HERE AND THERE ABOUT CENTRAL

By Your Roving Reporter

Senior Rings

Seniors who will graduate in June, 1944, and who want class rings should order them before October 15. Rings may be ordered at the Harry Berg Jewelry store, 109 W. Jefferson Blvd. There will probably be no opportunity to order a ring next spring.

Hi-Spot Dance

Jimmy McPhee, a Central student, and his new all-girl orchestra will furnish the music for a dance at the Hi-Spot in the Y. W. C. A. building tomorrow from 9 P. M. to 12 P. M. Other dances will be held on October 16, 23, and 29. On October 29 there will be a Hallowe'en Party from 9 P. M. to 12 P. M. Football fans are invited to come after the games.

WSBT Demonstration

Members of advanced science and mathematics classes attended frequency modulation demonstrations which were given each hour this morning by representatives of W. S. B. T. in room 315.

Pointer Speaks

"Getting Ready for Induction" is the subject of the talks given by Mr. P. D. Pointer at Washington High School Tuesday morning and at Riley High School this morning. Next week Mr. Pointer will speak at John Adams High School.

Physical Exams

Physical examinations will be given to all 9B and 11B boys at 7 p. m. this evening. All 9B and 11B boys must report to room 302 before leaving the building today. The 9B and 11B girls had examinations last Monday.

Riley's Birthday

Today is the ninetieth anniversary of the birthday of James Whitcomb Riley, our "Hoosier Poet." Indiana's most cherished poet, and author of the well known "Little Orphan Annie" and "Raggedy Ann", was born in Greenfield, Indiana in 1853 and died in 1916.

Basketball Practice

The basketball team will be starting practice next week at the Y. M. C. A. This year's varsity is made up largely of last year's "B" team. This experience will help the Bruins quite a bit.

The call for boys for basketball a few weeks ago brought out around forty boys. But, after football season, some more will come.

Symphony Concert

The South Bend Junior Symphony will present a concert Sunday at 4 P. M. in the Central Auditorium in which the Chinese skit "Ming Toy and Po Ling" by Rudolph Friml will be given. Twenty-six Chinese officers who are in training at the Studebaker Corporation will be the guests at the performance.

OFFICERS TO LEAD GRADUATES OF JUNE 1944.

"—AND THEN" IS NOW A HAS BEEN

Many are the memories of the Senior Revue "—And Then" that will linger long after the curtain came down for the last time Monday evening. Never to be forgotten characters were those of Lois Barnett as Eleanor, Dick Cortright, as Franklin D., and Richard Maternowski, as Winston.

Things to remember: those hilarious melodramists of Italy—Margaret Bango, Joseph Caparo, and Bill Fredricks; Martha Downing sending the audience into gails of laughter as the Duchess of Canterbury.

The dance steps of Rita Kielock and Rose Varga and the music of Jimmy McPhee's Orchestra lent atmosphere to the quaint English Soho night club. No one will ever forget Irene Kusmic singing "Blow Gabriel Blow" and "Dancing in the Dark." Chuck Kale's trumpeting and Joanne Ebersole's catchy "Gestapo Song" were truly 1A.

Tucked away in senior memories are Gene Sage and his trumpeting of "Derry, Down, Derry", and "Yankee Doodle". The finale, "Franklin D. Forbid", left everyone feeling that again the Senior Class under the able direction of Mr. James Lewis Casaday and Miss Helen Weber had made a success of the largest of its undertakings.

CENTRAL DRILLS FOR FIRE PREVENTION

Fire prevention week is being observed at Central this week by preparing for and having fire drills. The fire drills held Monday under the supervision of members of the fire department proved very successful. The Senior High building was cleared in two minutes; the Junior High building in one and a half minutes; and the Vocational building in fifty second. Central was inspected by the fire department and found to be free of fire hazards. Fire drills will be given every month as a State requirement.

Stamps and bonds have been sold as follows at Central:

Total stamps and bonds bought this week.....$1,041.80

Total stamps and bonds bought this year.....$5,534.25

Committee To Prepare Interlude Annual Chosen

The Annual Interlude Year Book committee has been chosen and is already at work on the publication which will come out next May, it has been announced by Miss C. Cripe, faculty adviser. The committee, made up of one representative from each 12B and 12A home room are: X-12, Peg Cook; 123, Richard Riffle; 211, Alice Gondeck; 216, Dona Schneider; 217, Mildred Heater; 222, Frances Vignali; 223, Gloria Stellner; 310, Mary Ellin McCrady; 320, Jacqueline Porter; and 401, Robert Nowicki.

It will be the duty of this committee to formulate policies and prepare the material for the year book. The Interlude publishes only one year book each year.

CLUBS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The following clubs have elected officers:

Jr. Walton: Pres., Eugene Bowles; Vice Pres., John Hofman; Sec.-Treas., Jannie Arnott.

Handy Andy: Pres., Loretta May; Sec., Dorothea Dunkin; Managers, Anita Swartz, Janis Brown.

Spanish: Pres., Mary Ellen McCrady; Vice Pres., Mary Jane Hunt; Sec., Paul Miller; Treas., Shirley Babcock; Reporter, Paul Miller.

Scrap Book: Pres.; Rosemary Taylor; Vice Pres., Dona Mae Philips; Sec., Odetta Smith.

Natural Science: Pres., Miller McCarthy; Vice Pres., Al Langel; Sec., Doris Elbel; Programs, Fred Kunde; Reporter, Martha Boyer.

Bundles For Russia Requested By Red Cross

The Red Cross is conductiong a national drive for "Bundles for Russia." Students are requested to bring to school any old clothing they may have at home. The clothing will be collected by the Red Cross on October 11 and 12, and will be given to destitute Russians returning to their homes.

SENIOR "B" CLASS SELECTS CABINET MEMBERS

The Senior B Class, which recently elected officers to serve them until they graduate in June, have just elected their cabinet members for the ensuing year. One cabinet member is elected from each 12B home room. The officers of the class automatically belong to the Cabinet. It is the duty of these Cabinet members to get the opinion of their home rooms on senior rooms and to meet with the other members of the cabinet to decide on their solution.

The Cabinet members and their home rooms are: President, Ralph Witucki, 223; Vice-President, William Freeman, 217; Secretary, Joan Bothwell, 217; Treasurer, Dorthy Dawson, 217; Thomas Pauszak, 216; Eric Falk, 310; Eileen Coleman, 401; Eugene Mazurkiewicz, 211; Arlene Good, 123; and Geraldine Uiemier, 412.

Since their are three officers from home room 217, all three have only one vote.

Bruins Anticipate Victory Over Central Catholic

The defeat of Gary Emerson by the Bruin horde leaves little doubt in our minds as to the outcome of the Central-Central Catholic game. The Indians are, as usual, not a strong team because of the smallness of their school. They were defeated by Niles High School in their opening game and they, in turn, knocked over St. Joseph's Academy for a row of yard markers.

The score rolled up by the Bruin offensive power shows how decisive the victory was. But, let us keep in mind for future reference the score of 38-20, which sprang from the Washington - Mishawaka game. The twin-city boys had all of the bad breaks, and they played without one of their best men and yet they made twenty points against the west siders. The fact that Central did not score a point against Zaleziki and his comrades is enough to make anyone wonder about the outcome of the battle for the hickory stick.

NEW BOOK STORE CLERK

Mrs. E. O. Johnson has been appointed the new clerk in the Central Book Store. The Book Store is open at all times during school hours.

12B CAREER CONFERENCES HELP SENIORS CHOOSE THEIR VOCATIONS

DISCUSSIONS OPEN TO ALL INTERESTED STUDENTS

The 12B Career Conference II will be held in the study halls next Thursday morning at 8:35 A. M., it was announced by Miss Jeanette Smogor, of the Guidance department

The subjects and the speakers, as far as they have been chosen, are as follows: Boys—"Problems Facing the High School Boy", P. D. Pointer, Principal Central High School. Girls —"Jobs in Industry and Employment Conditions After the War", Miss Thelma Powell, Sr. Interviewer U. S. Employment Service; "Fields Open to Girls in Science and Mathematics"; "Opportunity for Girls to Serve as Medical Technicians, Occupational Therapists, X-Ray Technicians, and Allied Occupations".

The third in the series of Conferences will be held on Thursday, October 28. The subjects and speakers are: Boys — "Army and Navy Air Corps and the Future of Aeronautics"; "Specialized Jobs in the Army or Critical Occupations". Girls — "Teaching — Is It An Essential Career?", C. M. Harris, Principal, Elder and Franklin Schools; "Nursing — With Special Reference to Present War Needs", Miss Mary V. Cheek, Director of Nursing, Epworth Hospital; "Opportunities with the Red Cross".

Mr. Glen Kropf, principal of Riley High School spoke to the 12B boys on "How the Selective Service Works" in the first of the 12B Career Conferences held in the study halls this morning at 8:35 o'clock. Mr. Kropf described the working of the V-5, the A-12, and V-12.

"Secretarial and General Office Work" was the subject of the talk given by Mrs. Martha Schutt, senior interviewer from the United States Employment Agency.

"Careers Growing Out of Home Economics" was the title of the talk given by Miss Laura Deephouse, supervisor of Home Economics in South Bend.

SWIMMING TEAM PRACTICE UNDERWAY

Swimming under Coach Elbel is progressing nicely with practice going on two nights a week in the basement pool. Several new boys have been discovered and they combined with his veterans returning from last year should make a good team. Carroll Cook, experienced distance man, is back as is Bob Hevel, superior dash man. Captain Bill Freeman is back to swim the 220 and Bob Mortensen is returning to dive. All of these men will combine to form a fine team.

USE THE DICTIONARY

Looking up a word in a dictionary is usually considered a most disagreeable task. It can be very interesting if the student realizes all that he may find in a dictionary.

Your English teachers tell you to look words up in the dictionary to find out how they are marked, how they are divided into syllables, their meaning, and their use in a sentence. The dictionary has lists of capitals of states and countries; it has maps and tables of the population in each city, state, and nation; it has the history of the English language and a guide to pronunciation. The dictionary gives the spelling, pronunciation, location, size, political relations, and other items of interest for more than thirty thousand places. It is biographical, containing more than twelve thousand names of note-worthy persons with their nationality, their profession and the dates of their birth and death. The dictionary contains a fund of astronomical, botanical, chemical, mathematical, and medical subjects. It has pictorial illustrations of anatomy, architecture, plants, symbols, mechanical devices, weapons and mythology.

The dictionary is so condensed and it is so easy to find material in it, that after you once start using it you will never stop.

COURTESY

One of the deplorable faults of the high school student in recent years has been his lack of habitual courtesy. Every year Central has sponsored a "Courtesy Week", to make our students more conscious of the meaning of courtesy, but the results have never been spectacular. Apparently, it has taken a war to do the trick because students and faculty alike have commented that the students, on the whole, seem to be more mannerly this fall than last year.

Perhaps this is because many young people held jobs this summer and courtesy was a "must." It seems then, that at last students are beginning to realize that indifference to the comfort and good will of fellow associates will get them nowhere. It is a pity that the importance of courtesy is not realized until the student finds himself in an environment where his every action is counted as either a merit or a demerit.

The impressions you make now with courteous or discourteous behavior are lasting. Make them be a credit to you.

If it's conventional to throw candy wrappers and scratch paper on the floor at home, by all means do so in the halls and in the cafeteria, at Central.

Fifteen 25c Stamps will pay for one PAIR OF SHOES. A million recruits—10 million pairs of shoes, is the Quartermaster's rule. Ten days of manoeuvres wear out the stoutest boots.

CENTRAL HALLS

Probably the most interesting part of your high school career is spent in ye olde Central Halls.

Ken Tupper thinks a lot of these halls — at least he's around school very early in the morning every day. (Of course it couldn't be Dona Schnieder).

Rowene Zick is seen every day, sixth hour, collecting attendance sheets and, as you can imagine, always manages to be near the front door when co-captain, Joe Mathews leaves for track practice!

Some people, like Poochie Miller, are always in a hurry and never see anybody. He acts like one of those green sophs, in a hurry to get nowhere.

Bruce Bruges sprints out of second hour English class every day and dashes down the hall. Could it be that the boy has school work to do, or that Pat Hukill has him worried?

Joan Hodson, like most of you Central undergrads, stays in the hall till five seconds, after all!

One thing that would look nifty in these olde halls is the Hickory Stick which we lost to Mishawaka last year. If Dick Deranek & Company have anything to say about it, it's as good as here. That's October 30, which gives you plenty of time to learn the Central yells — but good. 'Tis rumored that the Smilers are going to have a super dance after the game which is worth your time.

Thoughts: Every time we see Bill Bruggner walking down the hall with a pile of books under his arm, could it be that cute blond he has his eyes on? Some influence!

Miller McCarthy has been seen around the halls with a wolfish gleam in his eye for Bernadette, that cute little Junior.

We wonder what Sumner Ferguson does sixth hour when he is supposed to be at track practice? That's life!

It seems as if we spend most of our time in the halls. Say, do they still have class at Central?

MEET THE FACULTY

MRS. RATHJE

One of Central's newest and best liked teachers is Mrs. Rathje, the girls' gym instructor. She came to Central from Riley. She has an outstanding personality and takes an interest in all the students at Central, which makes her everybody's friend.

She is five feet two inches tall, has brown hair, blue eyes, and a light complexion. She is very tiny and cute. She likes all sports, especially tennis, basketball, and horseback riding. She also has a wonderful appetite and loves good food; dancing, music (popular), and plays.

She dislikes people who can't be trusted. Her desire right now is to find an apartment or house in which to live. Her main ambition is to make her husband (he's with the navy department) happy and to be a good gym instructor. All in all we think Mrs. Rathje is really a swell person.

A rattly old car chugged up to the highway toll gate.

Gatekeeper: "Fifty cents for the car, mister."

Johnny Macnamera (eagerly): "Sold!"

What Did You Think of the Senior Revue?

Joan Ayers — "It was good in parts."

James Oberfell—"It was all right!"

Peg Cook—"Marvelous!"

Jerry Michaels — "Worth my two bits!"

Jimmy Hans—"Pretty good."

Dorothy Nelson—"Best one yet!"

Tommy Pauszek is our vote for the sharpest blonde around Central! What say, girls!

Lucky Bernice Wermuth who had a super-date with handsome Jim Hans!

Delores Moore certainly does keep Pee Wee and Tuggy guessing — not saying anything about Brillian and Poochie's blank expressions!

They'll get there eventually—Tupper and Dona Schnieder!

We wish: Jimmy Powers would come back and make Jan happy again!

Budding romance — Helen Pappas and Jim Neely!

Marvin C. Casey, a summer school Central graduate, who is receiving training at Great Lakes sent a copy of the Great Lakes Bulletin to Central from which the following poem has been clipped:

WHEN THE WAR IS GOING TO END

Absolute knowledge I have none,
But my aunt's washer woman's sister's son
Heard a policeman on his beat
Say to a laborer on the street
That he had a letter just last week
Written in the finest Greek
From a Chinese coolie in Timbakoo
Who said a peon in Mexico
Knew of a colored man in a Texas town
Who got it straight from a circus clown
That a man in Klondike heard a Turk
Tell a fellow going to work
About a man in Borneo
Who knew a man who claimed to know
A New York man named Jake
Who's mother-in-law would undertake
To prove that her seventh husband's sister's niece
Had stated in a written piece
That she had a son who had a friend
Who knows when the war is going to end! —Gosport.

CLIPPED FROM THE REVUE

—AND THEN there was the woosome cutie, Erma Hunt. Gene Gollnick who ended up in the canine cabin in spite of his pistol packin' pappa cat . . . "Adolf" Cook playing second fiddle to a termite . . . Rita Kielock twirling like a pinwheel . . . Joan Hodson,—well! This could go on and on, but instead we'll just send a bouquet to Joe Caparo (didn't know he was so fond of flowers!) and orchids to all the rest of the cast and committeemen for a grand show!

EDUCATION FOR WORK

Education for work is the need of the hour. Every ounce of manpower and womanpower is vitally important. Schools are educating for work as never before. Vocational schools have already trained 4,500,000 adults for wartime jobs in industry. High school courses have been adjusted to meet the requirements of the armed services, of industry, of agriculture, and of government. After the war, educating for work will be no less important. Millions of adults will need retraining for peacetime pursuits. Aside from preparation for specific jobs the schools will be called upon as always for the foundation training needed by every citizen regardless of specialized vocations. Guidance of students into fields of service for which they are fitted and in which there is opportunity is of the utmost importance.

BEARS BOUNCE BACK TO THRASH EMERSON 32-2

LARGE SQUAD SEES ACTION IN STEEL CITY CONTEST.

Thoroughly keyed up by their defeat at the hands of the Washington Panthers two weeks ago, the Bears took a jaunt up to Gary last Friday, and completely pulverized Emerson High School's football team by an overwhelming score of 32-2.

Neither the eight block walk from the dressing room to the soot-covered field nor the smokey atmosphere pleased the boys in the least as they relentlessly smashed through a team which out weighed and out reached them.

Here again was a demonstration of Central football such as was seen in the game with Washington of East Chicago. The Bruins played good hard ball and the resulting score was the visible result. The invisible reward is the new respect which South Bend fans hold for them as a team for making such a spectacular comeback in winning over a school regarded by officials as a formidable opponent. This latest conquest should prove to any optimistic unbeliever that Central doesn't intend to be far behind when the final figures are tallied in November.

Stubborn Bear Defense

The Emerson eleven, having been held to a minimum in yardage gained on the ground due mainly to the charging of Central's forward wall, was forced to resort to an aerial offensive. This in turn displayed the activeness of our backfield on defense, for it was the interception of two passes by Dick Flowers and Dan Jaronek which set up two of the five touchdowns.

Central's scoring was handled by the Deranek brothers who tallied twice apiece, and Dick Flowers who made one. The first touchdown came in the early minutes of the first quarter when Dick Flowers went over after a 35-yard drive.

The Emerson boys were stubbobrn in the second quarter to the extent that they almost scored on a long pass which carried them to Central's 10 yard line. Here, however, they surrendered the ball on downs.

(Cont'd on pafe 4, col. 1)

Football fans are beginning to look at the conference race with great interest. Central fans have the opportunity to sit back for a couple of weeks and eye the ensuing battles at their leisure because last week's game with Emerson and the coming game with Central Catholic are both non-conference contests and have nothing to do with the conference standing. The Michigan City fracas scheduled for their field next week is a conference battle, but if last year's score is an indication of the outcome of this year's game, "de game is in de bag."

U. S. Treasury Department

If you should happen to be wandering around school field some afternoon about sixth hour, and a couple of fellows whip past, running like mad don't ask, "Where you going, Bud, to a fire?" These boys are not fire bugs, they are Central's great cross-country team and they are running their heads off for the orange and the blue.

oOo

Most of the last half of the game last week was played with the second string. They showed up well against the formidable Emerson team. Little Joe Deranek looked mighty good against the Gary boys and he broke away for some good long runs. Joe is pushing hard for a starting berth and it would not be at all surprising to find him out there at the beginning of the game. Another rookie who has been playing fine ball is Dick Flowers. These two boys counted for three of the five Central tallies with big Dick Deranek chalking up two others.

oOo

All eyes are turned on the Northern Indiana High School Conference battle which is now taking place. Central fans have the advantage of

EMERSON 2, CENTRAL 32

The third quarter saw plenty of action in the form of the Deraneks. ick started it by going over in the first four plays. Shortly afterward he took a kick on his own 12 and went all the way, but was called back to the Bruin's 35 for going out of bounds. Joe Deranek skipped all preliminaries and repeated the exact process on the next play, going around the other end. This time it was good for the six points. Dan Jeronek converted. History repeated itself twice in the next 20 minutes as D. Deranek went 60 yards and Joe Deranek 30 yards each for a touchdown.

Emerson made two points in the last minute when a bad center was fumbled by Flowers, and he was unable to get off his attempt kick before he was tripped.

BEARS MISS TENNIS MEET

The conference tennis meet was held in Elkhart last Saturday and for the first time in many years Central was not represented by a group of stars. In fact, the Bears were not even represented. Lack of transportation was responsible for the Bruin team not being entered. Elkhart ran off with the conference title, for the second consecutive year, behind the driving of Kalkoffman and Ebersole. Last year the smashing services of Kalkoffman defeated Bob Moore of Central in the state finals. Ebersole is a cousin of Joanne Ebersole, and he starred on the basketball teams that defeated Central in the regionals at John Adams.

. . . And there was the moron who sat on the bench at the football game waiting for the field to be flooded so he could go in as a sub.

BEAR FACTS (Cont'd)

being able to sit back for a few weeks and watch the fight for first place. The non-conference game last week, and the one which Central-Catholic tomorrow offers a breathing spell for the team. At the present time there is a three way tie for first place, with Washington having a slight edge, in our estimation. Undoubtedly, the conference standing for Central will hinge on the Central-Mishawaka game on the 30th of this month.

Excuse It, Please!

The Interlude last week failed to name Joe Pusztai as the Secretary of the Hi-Y.
