

GREAT NECK NORTH SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS OF 1960

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

- HARVEY ABRAHAM - leaves his little black book to future senior boys. In ten years we see Harry not wearing a tie to work.
- LARRY ABZUG - leaves Bach for Basie. In ten years we see Larry conforming to society.
- ALAN ADELSTEIN - leaves his reams of social studies homework to Mr. Lincoln. In ten years we see Alan as a question man for driving tests.
- LINDA ADLMAN - leaves saying "Hasta la Vista" to Miss Redding. In ten years we see Linda in a crew cut.
- RICHARD AGINS - leaves the Mercedes-Benz that he didn't win. In ten years we see Rich as Mayor of Kensington.
- LAWRENCE AKEY - leaves Mr. Porter's class still reading aloud. In ten years we see Larry as stage crew manager for a Broadway show.
- DAVID ALBERT - leaves a shiny black bicycle. In ten years Dave will replace his bike with a new Nash Rambler.
- JIM ALBERT - leaves five minutes early. In ten years we see Jim still haggling for Mexican goods.
- KAREN ALLENTUCH - leaves horsing around. In ten years we see Karen living in a big white house.
- LAURIE ALPER - leaves her stolen car. In ten years we see Laurie getting a ticket from a policeman.
- JOE ALPERIN - leaves still thinking of his 'accident'. In ten years we see Joe as "peppy" as ever.
- JUNE ALPERT - leaves a Trinity sweatshirt. In ten years we see June agreeing with everybody.
- STEVE ARLUCK - leaves his intelligent questions to Mr. Love. In ten years we see Steve as a senator.
- ELLEN ARONOWITZ - leaves her crossword puzzles to Mrs. Hoffman. In ten years we see Ellen on the Ukrainian line "creeing".
- ROZ AVNET - leaves Mr. Durfee a completed crossword puzzle. In ten years we see Roz as de Gaulle's right hand man.
- JOTHAM BAILEY - leaves much talent for the Art Department. In ten years we see Jotham as another Salvatore Dali.
- JAMES BALASSONE - leaves till 'working' on figures - Senior Class treasury figures. In ten years we see Jim as President of the United States.
- VINCENT BALDUCCI - leaves. In ten years we see Vin changing his name.

KEN BARDON - leaves still loving all girls. In ten years we see Ken playing saxophone for Woody Herman.

MEL BARKAN - leaves a slightly used baseball glove. In ten years we see Mel still trying out for the high school basketball team.

REINA BAUM - leaves Dr. Pinter a homework assignment. In ten years we see Reina singing.

LEONARD BEATTIE - leaves a left handed monkey. In ten years we see him president of AWU.

SONIA BECKERMAN - leaves laughing. In ten years we see Sonia happy.

MARION BEELER - leaves still unattentive to Dr. Pinter. In ten years we see her singing soft soparific songs sociably, so she says.

LINDA BEER - leaves a voice for her laugh. In ten years we see Linda "borin" but not bored.

BETH BELL - leaves her girls and fifty censored Last Will and Testaments. In ten years we see Beth trying to explain this one to her kids.

BARBARA BELOCK - leaves period seven forever. In ten years we see Barbara as a modern dance expert.

ADAM BENDER - leaves Mr. Levy a battered set of wrestling mats. In ten years we see Adam as a doctor.

CARL BENDER - leaves the remainder of his mispronunciation of physics terms. In ten years Carl will be a mad scientist.

ALICE BENENFIELD - leaves her high pitched voice. In ten years we see Alice biting the breeze.

BARBARA BENNET - leaves Sue. In ten years we see Barbara with perfect diction thanks to Mr. B.

MARY BENT - leaves singing in A Capella. In ten years we see Mary in a bomb shelter.

BOB BEREN - leaves for the track. In ten years we see Bob normal.

INGER-SIRI BERGAN - leaves for Norway. In ten years we see Inger square dancing.

CHARLES BERGER - leaves a pair of worn track shoes. In ten years we see Charlie running two more laps.

ARNOLD BERKMAN - leaves his car key to the Driver Ed. Department. In ten years we see him operating an auto school.

WILLIAM BERKOWITZ - leaves still refering to Adlai Stevenson. In ten years we see Bill still laughing at Mr. Price's jokes.

MARK BERKSON - leaves polishing his shoes. In ten years we see Mark as a literary critic for the N. Y. Times.

ALLAN BERLAND - leaves his 'Letters To The Editor'. In ten years we see Allan as a frustrated intellectual.

- JUDY BERMAN - leaves giving BL a pocket book for her birthday. In ten years we see Judy as a milliner.
- STEFFI BLANC - leaves sticking herself with "pins". In ten years we see Steffi going steady.
- PAUL BLANK - leaves Spanish 2 after 4 years. In ten years we see Paul as an undertaker.
- BARBARA BLATE - leaves beginning her future life. In ten years we see Barbara becalmed.
- DON BLOCK - leaves a score on the "Baird" test and a score on the Latin College Board. In ten years we see Don running every thing.
- BARBARA BLOOM - leaves a license with which she can chauffeur Peter. In ten years we see Barbara with a senior license.
- LINDA BLUMENFIELD - leaves intrinsic intuition inside her locker. In ten years we see Linda reading Webster's Dictionary.
- SUE BLY - leaves Dr. Pinter a low C. In ten years we see Sue grumpy.
- SHERI BOOMHOWER - leaves her archery. In ten years we see Sheri living in a haunted house.
- APRIL BORSDORFF - leaves her home nutrition course to Dr. Lee. In ten years we see April as a June bride.
- FRED BRANFMAN - leaves the cafeteria clean. In ten years we see Fred with a marble-top bar, Jeanette, - a blue telephone.
- TIMOTHY BREEN - leaves quietly. In ten years we see Timothy as an air force commanding officer.
- PHYLLIS BROCHSTEIN - leaves her tennis racket. In ten years we see Phyllis at Forest Hills.
- NANCY BRONSTEIN - leaves an unused audit for English XII-E. In ten years Nancy will be a sociological musician.
- EILEEN BRUMBERG - leaves Mr. Price. In ten years we see Eileen still waiting.
- BARBARA BURKE - leaves a bad note to Dr. Pinter. In ten years as a congresswoman to the United States.
- KEN BYALIN - leaves Great Neck's faculty imbued with the necessity of making senior classes stimulating. In ten years we see Ken as copy editor of the New York Times.
- WENDY CAHN - leaves for the Wendy City tomorrow. In ten years fishing for falling phonographs.
- DOLORES CARDINEAU - leaves a hot plate of mushroom soup and Australian rovioli with roll and butter and milk (one straw). In ten years we see Dolores as a dietician.
- MARIA CASTELLANO - leaves wanting senior privileges but knowing she can't have them. In ten years we see her drawing pictures in The New Yorker.

EDDIE CAUSIN - leaves a cheerleaders uniform. In ten years we see Ed as a pro soccer player.

GENE CEDERBAUM - leaves still afraid to kiss Ciba. In ten years we see Gene as chairman of the Assembly Planning Committee.

BOB CHAIKIN - leaves a reputation for the ability to talk on any subject at any time at any length. In ten years we see Bob on the N. Y. Knickerbockers.

PETER CHARON - leaves with his first name changed to John and his second name changed to James. In ten years we see Pete still singing off-key for Dr. Pinter.

PATRICE CHERNAY - leaves one last word. Ten years from now she will join in class discussions.

BARBARA CISSIK - leaves a mispronounced. In ten years we see her changing her name.

STU CLAYMAN - leaves a bird to Dr. Resnick. In ten years we see Stu still pretty.

DIANE COEFFIELD - leaves all her front row seats. In ten years we see Diane as a cheerleader at Syracuse.

BARBARA COHEN - leaves a permanent wave for some temporary fan. In ten years we see Barbara with a temporary wave for a permanent fan.

GEORGE COHEN - leaves his "vomit" for future years. In ten years we see George arguing logically.

JIM COHEN - leaves a used basketball net. In ten years we see Jim a 300 lb. weakling.

NANCY CONKLIN - leaves twirling a baton. In ten years we see Nany on the Rocketts line.

HEATHER CORDOVER - leaves her publicity committee for future notice. In ten years we see Heather bossing Donald around.

MARGARET COSSMAN - leaves as the girl without a boss. In ten years we see Peggy picking Cossynthia.

JIM CROSSON - leaves his black hair. In ten years we see Jim buying a 1970 Model T Ford.

DONALD DAMAST - leaves his extra credit reports. In ten years he will be a land-lubber.

AMY DANCIS - leaves with Adlai Stevenson a candidate. In ten years Amy has become Republican National Committee Chairman.

BARBARA DANCIS - leaves a violin and an early acceptance. In ten years we see Barbara at Carneige Hall.

JON DAVIDSON - leaves an example how to buy much and pay little. In ten years we see Jon growing cleats on his feet.

LINDA DAVIDSON - leaves Macy's to Gimbel's. In ten years we see Linda working hard at housework instead of homework.

FRANCES DAVIS - leaves tantalizing terribly, tripping tenaciously, toward two tiny tots. In ten years we see Frances erasing her t's.

- GEORGE DAVIS - leaves with an "Insight" in political affairs. In ten years we see Sandy as a Christmas tree decorator.
- PAMELA DAVIS - leaves still hoping for a bus ticket. In ten years we see her name on a package of cake mix.
- JANET DENENHOLTZ - leaves leaders corps. In ten years we see Janet replacing Martha Graham.
- KALMON DOLGIN - leaves still singing in the boy's locker room. In ten years we see Kal as a bible reader.
- GAIL DONSHIK - leaves dinner invitations. In ten years we see Gail still eating Mason Mints.
- ROLAND DORHOFFER - leaves still working math problems for Miss Makuen and the Great Neck Department Store. In ten years we see Roland in a Vic Tanney add.
- LARRY DOUGHERTY - leaves his LEL signatures. In ten years we see Larry still lying down on the basketball court.
- STEVE DRESSNER - leaves the clock in Mr. Love's room. In ten years we see Steve in the Catskills as a hotel meat inspector.
- PAT DRUCE - leaves Jr. Players. In ten years we see Pat playing with Junior.
- VERNON EDGAR - leaves with two parts in J.B. In ten years we see Vernon as a rich man with millions of girl friends.
- STEVEN EINHORN - leaves still arguing with Rich Epstein. In ten years we see Steve as a mad scientist.
- LEONARD EISENSTEIN - leaves a slightly used tupewriter. In ten years he will be TV's newest idol - Len Maverick.
- EILEEN ELIMAN - Leaves her Perry Winkle & Bud. In ten years we see Eileen with a pony tail again.
- PAULA EMANUEL - leaves TAPI. In ten years we see Paula as a nursery school teacher.
- ESLYN EMMER - leaves a squeamish translation to Mrs. Johnson. In ten years we see Eslyn as a doctor.
- DAVID ENDLER - leaves his breast-stroke for next years swimming team. In ten years we see Dave as a Harvard Law graduate.
- CAROL ENGEL - leaves her nice smile. In ten years we see Carol walking down Cedar Drive.
- BABS ENGEL - leaves for another cruise. In ten years we see Babs teaching Madame Bartova how to dance.
- JEFF EPSTEIN - leaves smiling at Mrs. Thompson. In ten years we see Jeff crossing the country on foot.
- RICHARD EPSTEIN - leaves still arguing with Steve Einhorn and amusing Mr. Love. In ten years we see Richard as a tap dancer.