

LAST WILL & TESTAMENT

GREAT NECK SOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS OF 1960

LAST WILL & TESTAMENT
CLASS OF 1960

Elaine Abrams leaves still “ranking out” Al Berger. In 10 years we see Elaine running a home for refugees.

Edward Acree leaves his Southern drawl to Mr. Minionis. In 10 years we see Ed as a 97 pound weakling.

Douglas Aichele leaves two hairs from his mustache to Mr. Singer. In 10 years we see Doug a groovy beatnik with a beard, sitting on a light pole he just knocked over, playing a trumpet.

Linda Alexander leaves Mrs. Tupper the right to call her Elaine. In 10 years we see Linda still going around with that same tempermental hue.

Steve Allen leaves Mr. Biel a book of revised Botticelli rules. In 10 years we see Steve in charge of the New York Subway System.

Henry Alter leaves Miss Chisholm a copy of Hot Rod. In 10 years we see Henry trying to convince a cop that mufflers are stock.

Robert Ayers leaves graduating. In 10 years we see Bob elected to the Hall of Fame.

Eleanor Bachthaler is leaving Holmes. In 10 years we see Eleanor raising a family in Ethiopia.

Barbara Balaban leaves Mr. Freeman to terrorize the next batch of future capitalists. In 10 years we see Barbara finding “overalls in her chowder.”

Randa Balaban leaves with more joy than she has ever had in her life! In 10 years we see Randa playing character roles off Broadway!!

Robert Baltimore leaves Mr. B. a pile of old junk which he calls furniture. In 10 years we see Bob owing the State of Maryland.

Robert Baltzer leaves a pair of legs to the wrestling team. In 10 years we see Bob graduating from the brown knee school.

Judith Baptiste leaves Mr. B. & Mrs. Mangan one costume to be used only in Wagner’s “Ring Trilogy.” In 10 years we see Judy going around in circles.

Ruth-Ann Baronof leaves Mrs. Ward two plane tickets around the world. In 10 years we see Ruth in college majoring in weekends.

James Beach leaves “Big Daddy” Biel to a new bunch of “kiddies.” In 10 years we see Jimmy still paying children’s prices in the movies.

Pamela Becher leaves the letter “B” to Mr. Biel and his game of Botticelli. In 10 years we see Pam trying to get someone to fix her car radio.

JoAnn Becht leaves Miss Botsch her KEYS. In 10 years we see JoAnn training for the 1972 Basketball Olympic Team.

Karen Belanger leaves her expert parking technique to a lucky Senior Girl next year. In 10 years we see Karen wrapped her Minks and Jewels.

James Belser leaves to the easiest Soc. Teacher in the department (Ha!), Mr. Turner, his cinchy (?) outlines of U.S. Foreign Policy plus one Otto Hirsch. In 10 years we see Jim finally arising from his long, long, hibernation.

Barbara Bennett leaves Mr. Freeman Pile 1 & Pile 2. In 10 years we see Barbara with Pile 3.

Robert Berg leaves Miss Chisholm, Now, Now, Now. In 10 years we see Bob still dropping boxes on other people’s toes.

Alec Berger leaves the second seat in the first row of the Physics room for Joe Klarberg. In 10 years we see Al telling his kids about tremendous a Basketball player he is.

Michael Berns leaves Mr. Abrams a bottle of Aerosol for his back room. In 10 years we see Mike still selling ties in the Brooks Brother’s of Great Neck.

Elliott Berv leaves his 4th period zoo without regret for the ranked-out mothers. In 10 years we see Elliott advertising Gillette Blue Blades.

Linda Besen leaves----(and why not!) In 10 years we see Linda owner of a car.

Richard Blessey leaves Mr. Dickerson one beat up trumpet score for Carousel. In 10 years we see Dick still slicing the bologna.

Stephen Block leaves his Trig. Regents to Mr. Thymius. In 10 years we see Steve trying to make the Washington Senators Class E form team.

Frances Blumenschein leaves empty gum and lifesaver wrappers, and a pile of shrunken grapefruits. In 10 years we see Fran finishing her mosaic while commuting between Dartmouth and Georgia Tech.

Carl Botti leaves an X Y2 to Mr. DeLaura. In 10 years we see Carl as a great lover.

Eileen Brennan leaves first period Physics to Mr. Singer and keeps wondering how she got to be the only girl in the class. In 10 years we see Eileen still taking Hi-Y attendance.

Thomas Bridges leaves crossing the East River via the Midtown Tunnel. In 10 years we see him making more little bridges.

Phillip Dright leaves his Soc. notes to Mr. Freeman! In 10 years we see Phil still in the Army.

Kenneth Brightman leaves running. In 10 years we see Kenny buying a seat on the Stock Exchange.

Philip Brill leaves the Republicans and the textile mill to Mr. Turner. In 10 years we see Phil cutting up after college---cadavers that is!

Joel Brodtkin leaves all the protests he forgot to make. In 10 years we see Joel teaching Spanish.

Frances Brown leaves a deodorizer for the smelly oilcloth in Mr. Sokol's room. In 10 years we see her married to the "Boy Next Door."

Janet Brown leaves Mr. Freeman and his chapters. In 10 years we see Janet still saying "Hiya Doll."

Roberta Brown leaves with New Jersey license plates, still impatiently waiting for letters from Syracuse. In 10 years we see her playing the field at Syracuse.

Joseph Bruschetti leaves Mr. Turner a blow torch and customizing lit for his M.G. In 10 years we see Joe still eating lasagna.

James Bryson leaves his great voice for Mr. Ormsby. In 10 years we see Jimmy singing at the Met.

Howard Burman leaves burning his "Cinders." In 10 years we see him singing "Cindy, Oh Cindy."

Richard Burns leaves a dictionary to Miss Chisholm. In 10 years we see Dick still trying to get out of his Volkswagen.

Hedda Burnstein leaves the easiest teacher in the school with several harder work sheets. In 10 years we see Hedda off on a tangent!!

Robert Butler leaves Mr. Freeman between two piles. In 10 years we see Bob still modeling Bill Bottom Trousers.

Matthew Caccioppo leaves Mr. Turner a bad arm, for baseball. In 10 years we see Matt still looking for the perfect girl.

Alice Callahan leaves Mr. Freeman his chapters. In 10 years we see Alice raising little carrot tops.

Tony Camejo leaves two books: Interpretation of Dreams by Sigmund Freud and What a Beautiful Day for Soccer by Milton Hess. In 10 years we see Tony on a couch.

Jill Carlton leaves watching a Manhasset basketball game and dreaming about Italy. In 10 years we see Jill going to Howard Johnson's by way of Flower Hill.

Phyllis Carlucci leaves Miss Mallon pleading for a quiet homeroom. In 10 years we see Phyllis taking care of the house that Jack built.

Elsie Chandler leaves counting her calories. In 10 years we see Elsie dancing for the Borden's commercial.

Janet Chernela leaves a de-Yankeefied Rebel. In 10 years we see Janet still moving.

Valentino Chester leaves his teachers with peace and quiet. In 10 years we see him having a "heart."

Anna Chow leaves her frustrated chances as Treasurer. In 10 years we see Anna as first woman secretary of the Treasury.

John Clark leaves Mr. Brunell to do his own business. In 10 years we see Keating eating a Clark candy bar.

Linda Clements leaves her sister a pair needles and a ball of yarn. In 10 years we see Linda the style editor of a knitting magazine.

Carol Cohen leaves the joy of working with the G. O.! In 10 years we still see her doing the driving in the family.

Sharon Cohen leaves without a stamp to put in her daily letter to Vermont. In 10 years we see Sharon living in "Leavitt" own sipping a "Mickey" Finn.

Randy Coleman leaves to Mr. Turner a full paid vacation for two at Hyde Park. In 10 years we see Randy finally catching on.

Charles Comer leaves Miss Chisholm two well worn books: A dictionary and Warringer's Hand Book. In 10 years we see Charlie as the proud creator of the world's first Physic's invention.