NOVEMBER 2017

I find it so appropriate to begin my ministry here with Community Presbyterian Church in the month of November. While Thanksgiving is only one day, later this month, I would like to reflect on what I am grateful for this entire month and I encourage you to do the same. I am so grateful to be here as the new pastor of this church. I am thankful for the PNC and the relationships I have formed there and the celebration we all shared in early October. I am thankful Holly and I have had such smooth transitions, selling our home in Chico, CA and finding a new home, we are excited about, in Redmond. Most importantly, I am grateful for God's faithfulness: I see this in how God has nurtured and carried this church for over a century, and into this new season of ministry. And I see God's faithfulness at work in my own life bringing me here to serve as your pastor. Thanks be to God!

In my first weeks in Redmond, I will be preaching on what I am calling the building blocks of the Christian life: Faith (11/5), Hope (11/12), and Love (11/19). Paul the Apostle writes in 1 Corinthians 13:13, that after all else in life is stripped away, "faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love." I want us to focus on these basic, essential elements of life together as a community, and for us to notice together, how faith, hope, and love spur us on to living every day with grace and gratitude.

Lastly, I want to extend my personal invitation to all of you to join me and others from around the Cascades Presbytery in celebrating my ordination and installation here at Community Presbyterian Church on November 11 at 2:00pm, with a reception to follow. I hope to see you there!

*With you in Gratitude,
Andrew Hoeksema*

Quilters Quips

Just another week and the quilts will be coming down. The hall and hallway look so colorful with all the quilts hanging. Hope you have enjoyed them. They will be up thru Angelfest, then we take them down to distribute them to the agencies that we work with here in Redmond. After that it is time to start making more for the next year!

As of the first of January the quilters will be meeting in Teddy's Hall EVERY Thursday at 10:00 am. We quilt until noon, break for a brown bag lunch, and then work some more. We have several projects going on, so don't feel like you have to be experienced to join us. We try to have something for everyone. So if you would like to be a part of this mission come join us or just stop in to see what we are doing.

We have some events coming up so mark your calendar for;

- *November 30 is a fifth Thursday so we will use this day to finish up some of the projects
- *December 7 we will distribute the quilts to agencies in the area.
- *December 21 NO QUILTING
- *December 21 We will meet at noon at Christys Kitchen for a no-host Christmas lunch
- *January 29, 2018 - February 1, 2018 WINTER QUILT BEE!

Youth Group Trip To The Bend Escape Room

Music Ministries

Karen Sipes, Director

It is time! We have begun work on the beautiful new Christmas cantata, "Invitation to a Miracle", by Joseph Martin. It is quite an uplifting work, with gorgeous songs, intermingling many familiar and beloved Christmas tunes with new and exciting arrangements. All singers are welcome to join us Wednesday nights 7-7:30 in the choir room. We also need some instrumentalists to round out our chamber orchestra. Parts available include percussion, bells, keyboard (a simple arrangement) and trumpet or other B instrument. Please see me if you would like to play or know someone who might.

Let's make beautiful Advent music together!

Blessings, Karen Sipes
