Please refer to the accompanying letter from the MLS Foundation for your reservation form and questionnaire for the memory booklet.

For additional class information, we encourage you to view the website: www.MLS-foundation.org and complete your profile, add pictures and generally send messages to other classmates. It is a very good source of communication and will be available for the rest of the year. Also the information that you provide will be published in a Class of 1964 Memory Book. We have reviewed the book provided for previous classes and we believe it is a very fine document that you will thoroughly enjoy.

The Michigan Lutheran Seminary Foundation is honoring us at this, our 50th reunion. We encourage you to make a special effort to attend.

Looking forward to renewing friendships.

Excuses have to be approved by your reunion committee,

Hogey Holtz
