

Section 5 GREENVILLE COUNTRY CLUB WELCOMES GHS CLASS OF 63!

On Saturday evening, reunion revelers gathered at the Country Club for an evening of celebrating and reminiscing. Before the program began, a unanimous thanks to the Reunion Committee was expressed with rounds of applause. Laurie Anthony McGee, Brenda Hall Teppig, Judy Lee Driskell, and Ben Nelken comprise the group that made the reunion possible.

After a buffet dinner, Ben Nelken and Laurie McGee made opening remarks. Mayor John Cox gave a welcome address and announced that Greenville was recently named the official home of the National Tamale Festival. Ben Nelken, Master of Ceremonies, followed with a Class of 63 game where no points were earned and no winners declared.

A memorial tribute for those who have passed away was a slide presentation of those classmates who are gone, but not forgotten. Announcements were made by Brenda Hall Teppig who is the founder and administrator of the class web page; Barbara McClendon Wallace who spoke eloquently about collecting anecdotal material to be sent to the Viet Nam Memorial in honor of our fallen classmate, Barry Crosby; and finally, President of the Senior Class, Paul Kossman, who cheerfully berated us for traumatizing him.

The evening ended with dancing to the music of the sixties, declarations of staying in touch with each other in the future, and more thanks to the Reunion Committee for making possible a wonderful weekend of memories.
