Orient and fortunately Seattle.

Toy, Kathy
Nelson, Kathy

I continue to make my home in the U Dist as I have for the past fifteen yrs. My horizons have expanded these past 20 yrs to include snow skiing & hiking. A career as a com'l lending officer in a regional bank keeps pushing me to new challenges but raising my children has been by far the greatest one!

Ulberg, Ron
Ulberg, Raun

Beauty School 1966; opened my own salon (Super Hair in the U Dist). Retired from hairdressing in '83. Opened a small hotel in '82 (The Emerald City Inn) and presently working as an innkeeper. Lived in Switzerland 1969 & worked in a salon to further my hairdressing career.

Children: Scott, 7½; Todd, 3½

Grad. from WWU in '68. Taught at Bellingham High. After a few moves and a variety of other jobs & travel experiences I finally settled in '71 into teaching Family Living & Child Dev at good ol' EHS. Still here & enjoy having some of my high school classmate's children as students. David teaches.

Wolfe, Christopher

Wife: Tonnie

Children: Micael, 11; Alyssa, 9

One of the most interesting experiences of my life occurred when I sat down to write this & realized that 20 yrs had elapsed since I graduated from EHS. Thinking it was a mistake, I added the years I spent getting a college education, spent working & playing, & I'll be darned if they didn't add up! I don't look, feel or act older!

Wray, Marvin

Wife: Ingrid
