THE ALUMNI AND FRIENDS OF TAYLOR ALLDERDICE HIGH SCHOOL'S HALL OF FAME

Early environmental lawyer, championship coach, retired federal prosecutor, pediatric urologist, and former Voice of America journalist are 2023 honorees who will be celebrated on May 4, 2023.

Pittsburgh, PA, April 15, 2023 – On May 4, 2023, Allderdice High School will recognize distinguished alumni and a beloved coach. Their diverse accomplishments have improved local and global communities. This year, alumni Marvin A. Fein (1956), Julieanne Himelstein (1974), Ronald Rabinowitz (1960), and Rosanne Skirble (1966) and Coach Edward Flynn will join the Allderdice Hall of Fame.

- Marvin A. Fein, JD, LL.M (1956) is an attorney whose 60-year career includes being a founding member and Director of the Pennsylvania Environmental Strike Force, the first cohort of lawyers to enforce environmental laws in the state. As Deputy City Solicitor in the 1980s, he is credited with helping to prevent the Pittsburgh Pirates from relocating.
- Coach Edward Flynn is marking his 42nd consecutive year at Allderdice, teaching biology for 31 of those years and continuing his winning tradition of coaching multiple sports teams to championships. Student-athletes, including those on championship cross country and track teams, have benefitted from his guidance, adopting healthy habits, enjoying team camaraderie, and persevering for their “PRs” in life.
- Julieanne Himelstein, JD (1974) is a former Assistant United States Attorney whose career at the U.S. Attorney's Office at the District of Columbia included more than 100 jury trials involving rape, sex exploitation and trafficking of children, public corruption, and terrorism. She was the co-lead prosecutor in the trial against one of the leaders of the attack on the U.S. Mission in Benghazi, Libya.
- Ronald Rabinowitz, MD (1960), Professor and Chief of Pediatric Urology at the University of Rochester and Historian for the American Urological Association, is an internationally renowned expert in pediatric urology and urologic history and education. He is dedicated to treating congenital urologic problems, research, teaching, and organizational leadership in pediatric urology and the history of urology.
- Rosanne Skirble, MA (1966) is a bilingual journalist, environmental activist, teacher and philanthropist whose 36-year career with the Voice of America (VOA) included reporting in English and Spanish on breaking science, health, and environmental news. Her achievements at VOA included hosting its premier science program and establishing its first environment beat to cover national and international climate issues.

The Hall of Fame ceremony will take place on Thursday, May 4 at 6:30 pm in the Allderdice auditorium. The event is free and open to the public; no reservations are required.

Taylor Allderdice High School, also referred to as “Pittsburgh Allderdice,” is a public high school located in the Squirrel Hill neighborhood of Pittsburgh, PA. The school opened in 1927 and is named for industrialist and Squirrel Hill resident Taylor Allderdice, who was a member of the city's first school board and president of the National Tube Company, which was a subsidiary of the U.S. Steel Corporation.
