

By Fred Doyle:

"The Continental's" w/David McCall, Tommie McCall, (AHS) grads, and Bob Lawless. Fred joined the group in 1965, from "The Satan's". Sat in with the Chevelles, asked to join "The livin' End", declined, joined Sandy and John Chappell of KRBC television. Later played with Waylon Huey, and The Livin'end lead player. Also, with Rick Skiles (country Western), a local band of bank robbers in South Texas. Luckily, Fred was not involved in that side of Rick's business! Bob Lawless played for President Bush in 2002-2003. Recorded "Blue Moments", in 1967 written by same writer who wrote songs for "Sam the Sham and the Pharaohs". Backed up the Outsiders "Time Won't Let Me", "Them" ("Gloria"), which was later joined by Van Morrison, & many others at Uncle Wally's Corral in the '60's.
