RYAN INNOCENT

Attorney Richard Meyer, with witnesses, Miss Toni Klein and Miss Evelyn Evans proved to the jury that Mr. Douglas Ryan was innocent of stealing a French poodle with a diamond collar from its owner, Lorraine Van Glahn.

DODGERS BEAT YANKEES

The World Series for 1963 was the most exciting ever played. The Dodgers, who beat the Yankees, gave all the credit to Marty Kosce, who hit 10 home runs during the four days they played, and to their pitcher, Roger Schwarz. Roger struck out 12 batters and walked one.

HEADS AT BENDIX

At Bendix Aviation, Teterboro, several new heads of departments, with their secretaries, have been chosen: Link White with Diana Cleary as secretary, Robert Hensel with Margaret Vreeland as secretary, Christopher Maraia with Bonnie Bednarcik as secretary, and Kenneth Siri with Carol Maher as secretary.

Awards For Race

Many people have entered in the Hot Rod Contest for 1960. They have built and driven their cars in this exciting race. First prize was presented to Robert Baron for riding at 220 miles per hour. Second prize went to Gordon Russell for riding at 217 miles per hour.

Handelsman Saves Girl

We must give credit to Melvin Handelsman for saving the life of Sharon Sparks, who swam too far out into the ocean at Ortley Beach.

OPERATION A SUCCESS

At the Medical Center Hospital in Jersey City, Doctor Richard Reichert with the aid of his nurses, Wendy Peyman and Muriel Tramontano, operated on Edward Wyman who had stubbed his toe.

BECKER WINS

The results of the Miss America Contest for the year 1960:
Miss Carole Maltagliati of New Jersey
Miss Valerie Brown of Virginia
Miss Marian Amelang of Hawaii
Miss Carol Lichty of Maine
Miss Elsan Zimmerly of Florida
Winner—Miss Peggy Becker of Pennsylvania.

Crystal Gazers' Gazette

WOMEN'S ROLLER DERBY

The Roller Derby's first race for women was between the Wild Cats and the Satans. Gail Lischke scored highest for the Wild Cats and Madeline Marzell for the winning team, the Satans.

MAYOR GALDA

The new Mayor of Paramus is Mr. Dwight Galda. Mr. Galda's father was mayor about 10 years ago. I must say politics does run in the family.

WOMAN PRESIDENT

The 1965 elections for President of the United States have just ended with the closest margin ever known. Mr. David Boses lost by one vote. The new President is the first woman to hold this office, Lucy Calabrese. Miss Calabrese succeeded mostly with the aid of her campaign manager, Jacqueline Herman. The Vice President is George Vlasits. Mr. Vlasits did not run for President because he was afraid of a heart attack.

Cole and Lancaster Complete Rocket Ship

Scientists, David Cole and John Lancaster, have finally built a rocket ship that will go to Mars. These brave aviators, Perry Dabinett, Clare Webb and Thomas Healey are going to take this dangerous trip.
