COMMENTS

Lost some, gained some, met some, ate some, that somes it up.

Not much has changed since our 20th-looking forward to seeing old friends and sharing pleasant memories.

Got married, bought a house, got a dog, had a baby. Yes, I have turned into my mother.

After a 3 year messy divorce, I am finally enjoying life once again.

For someone who fainted during a P.E. movie on emergency childbirth during my junior year, I have obviously proven that bearing children can be a snap.

Been in Alaska since '83, so come on up for a visit.

Since the 20th reunion my husband & I have had a beautiful baby daughter born May 9, 1992. The week after the last reunion I got pregnant so we're holding off going to the 25th, the 50th is also in doubt-----

We built a new home overlooking a lake last year and enjoy very much living "out of town". Life is good, and I'm trying to survive the teenage years with my sanity intact.

Since leaving Glenbard, life is great, I wouldn't change a thing.

I very much enjoy seeing my kids go to the same schools both my wife and I did and thankful to live in Glen Ellyn.
