I was married in 1998 and spent 1999 going through chemotherapy and radiation for breast cancer. I am now cancer free and loving life as a saved follower of Jesus Christ.

Sandy Batek Reliford

Bob & I celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary on June 7, 2000. All of us are very involved at our church: Bob teaches Sunday school, I sing in the choir and with The Joyful Noise, Kurt baby sits in the church nursery, and Kurt & Kate work in the church library. Kurt's been accepted at De La Salle High School as a freshman and Kate will begin 6th grade at Oak Grove Middle School.

Babs Carmichael Winbigler

I graduated from Illinois State and lived in Bloomington-Normal for 15 years. I became a State Farm Agent in Macomb in 1986. I'm active in my community and at Western Illinois University, where I was named an Honorary Alumni in 1997. In my spare time, I enjoy golf, music, reading, volunteering, and attending sporting events. During the school year I've been the PA announcer at different WIU events in Macomb. Although I've not had children, my nieces, nephews and great nieces and nephew seem to enjoy being spoiled by their aunt! This past May, my entire family (including all of my aunts & uncles) gathered to celebrate my parents 60th anniversary. Looking at my family, my work and play, my sentiment is: this life is good!

Cathy Early

After years of worrying what others thought of me, I've learned that what is important is what I think of myself. I may not have everything that I want, but I certainly have everything that I need. I am blessed

Sandra Fallon Egan

I was a legal secretary/paralegal for 12 years. I made this job switch a little over a year ago and I just love what I do! My second marriage of 14 years has been the best thing I ever did. Last year we bought 20 acres of range land in Colorado and are reviewing our "retirement" options for the future, can't wait.

Leslie Filson Lysenko

I have changed jobs since our 25th reunion, I am now the Office Manager/microelectronics technician for a small company. Things I have learned etc, etc: Things come full circle in life and it's a small world, I never thought I would end up living on the east coast and raising a family here, I am still singing some of the pieces I learned in high school I still have memorized today, its weird to have children in college and high school- we are not that old!, Glenbard West is still a beautiful high school campus today, do they still sell tunnel passes to the boys' gym and elevator passes to the freshman?

Margaret Fotler Johnson

Married at 39, stepmother of 2, mother at 41, one precious baby girl now in 1st grade, grandmother at 42 and again at 43. Survived divorce of stepson and remarriage (2 more step grandsons), survived divorce of step daughter, looking forward to her remarriage. Hope I live long enough to see my daughter get married, but not long enough for a divorce!

Debbi Gehringer Edwards

I have been blessed with a wonderful, loving husband (12 years), two great kids (most of the time), a terrific job (20+ years), parents who live nearby and good health. What else is there?? What have I learned along the way? Life is ever changing, therefore, take nothing for granted.

Robin Hahs Shelton

Since our last reunion I got remarried and moved to Texas. Paul and I love the state and do not miss the cold weather a bit. I have had a successful sales career at Helzberg Diamonds for 5 years. Ladies, for those of you still "looking" for the perfect man---too late, I married him!!!

Sharon Hendrickson Lindquist

I have gotten a second Masters Degree in Education Administration. I am planning on finishing my PhD in Administration and Curriculum. I have a son at University of Kansas majoring in architecture. My daughter continues to choreograph and dance with her Tap Company. In 1998, she was in the NY Macy's Parade and danced (tapped) in the Nutcracker on Broadway at the age of 13! This past summer I fulfilled a high school dream- I got to see my Boston Red Sox play at Fenway Park!!

Debbie Kwasinski Briggs

Since our 25th reunion: I retired at 45. I unretired at 46 my wife told me I "was cramping her style" and "needed to get a job with a real office to go to." Guess she got tired of me watching Jerry Springer all day long at home. Bummer. I try to remember what it was like to weigh 125 lbs. And have a full head of hair. The top 10 things I've learned while in the pursuit of life, love and happiness: 10. I'm on the highway to Hell 9. You can't always get what you want 8. Where have all the good times gone 7. Communication breakdown 6. It ain't me, babe 5. Rock and Roll all night. 4. She goes down 3. Talk, talk. 2. It's my life and the #1 thing I've learned while in the pursuit of life, love and happiness: it's a GAS, GAS, GAS!

Ted Langreder

I'm still in the same place- Wayne, Illinois for the past 23 years. Still have the same wife, Eileen, for 27 years. Fortunately blessed with three healthy, active children, Aimee is 21 and a senior at Drake University. Hal, Jr. is 20 and joined the family business two years ago. Kyle is 11 and a 5th grader at Anderson School. My wife, Eileen is in her second term as Mayor of Wayne. I am President of Plastic Specialties, Inc in Elgin, an injection molding business started by my family in 1964. In my free time, in addition to spending time with my family, I enjoy riding my Jet Ski and going for long, scenic motorcycle rides. I think the one thing I have learned over the years is to take nothing for granted--be it another person for just life itself.

It would be fun to see who looks good now vs. then, who has hair (I don't) and who doesn't, who's got kids in college and who were late starters etc. I now remember that warm June night, with the world ahead of all of us, none of us really knowing what to expect, but full of hope and anticipation. I am now a subject (sort of) of the Queen England having moved once again to the UK to head up the Jaguar Formula One team. Very interesting work, huge amounts of money involved and interesting people and places. I lived in England in the late 70's but today the UK is much more like the US than then. Anyway, please say hello to those that care and I hope one and all as a good time. See you in 10 years??

We now live back in Wisconsin after moving to Florida from Wisconsin in 1992, then to Kansas City in 1994, here in 1996. We should be able to stay put. I work for a firm called BETA System which provides computer systems services to stock Brokerage firms. Best wishes to all classmates from the Glenbard West Class of 1971.

What I have learned: Margery William was right when she said, "You become. It takes a long time. That's why it doesn't often happen to people who break easily, or have sharp edges, or have to be carefully kept. Generally, by the time you are real, most of your hair has been loved off, and your eyes drop out and you get loose in the joints and very shabby...but once you are real you can't be ugly, except to people who don't understand"

Since I've been M.F.L. (missing from list) for all the class reunions, I shall endeavor to be faithful to the facts of the last 30 years. First of all I can't believe I used those 50 cent words and second, I can't believe it's been 30 years since we left our beloved "Dump on the Hump" to become the folks we've become. My story starts as a transfer student from a tick-infested flea-bitten dirt floored log cabin of a high school. Well I guess that's what the wise folks at Glenbard thought when they read the transcripts from the Charlotte, N.C. High school I came from and decided that I needed two years to "get caught up with the rest of the folks". Well my parents were floored that they spoke "southern" and a bottle of Rebel Yell got me just one year held back. Than you Bob Egar for telling me to ditch the buttoned down oxford shirts and the penny loafers (look there are pennies in his loafers) with my beloved tassels (girls grabbed them-- Ginger I know you got one of them) and tried not to be too "yahooped" but I don't go to the "greaser" side either. Yeah- o.k. with that. What the hell was a "greaser" anyhow??? Well I found out later was nothing but a northern redneck. So I made my way, lost my accent, busted some cherry (northern term), drank some beer, smoked some pot and somehow got accepted to Ill. State Univ. Majored in Next to Nothing after two years headed South. Kicked around in Fla for a couple of years, mostly construction work in the north part of the Everglades and did become a "certified" beach bum (the t-shirt said so) Held some hatchling turtles in my hands and turned them back to the sea (hey jimmy buffet got nothing on me) Back to the real work, back to college. Back to Atlanta, GA for a couple of odd jobs to make ends meet and then accepted to Univ of GA where I majored in That Sounds Interesting and of course ran out of money but at this point in time I did meet Sally Anne (1975) a teacher and realized somehow this could be a stable influence on my life and has been to this day. We were married in 1983 and there are no little children cause of a drug taken by her Mom in the 50's so that she could conceive Sally Anne. But long story short I ended up on the short or heavy end of the office furniture business-- carrying stuff around (for my yank readers-delivering it to the office intended) and I said to myself "self, you can do this on your own!" and stupid old me -I did! Went into business for myself in 1979 and have never worked for anybody since then. Did various side jobs to supplement my furniture delivery business. Flea Markets on the weekends (I.H.O.P. international house of pressboard) Chimney Sweep Co. (I think of mary poppins without the cutesy kids) and finally teamed up with my brother in 1986 to start our own office furniture store. Would you like fries with that desk order? I bet he wished he had not fled south in 1974 when he was in one of the first Steppenwolf productions- Grease with Gary Sinise in that church basement. Yeah I'm pretty sure the allure of the business worlds beats the theatre every time. So what have I learned while in the pursuit of life,, love and happiness you ask? Don't they all tie in together? Happiness---I look back and smile and wonder why I'm still here after some of the fool things done in my life- I'm happy to be here writing this little memo to people I haven't seen in 30 years and look forward to that cabin on the lake in the North Carolina mountains. Love--I have been damn lucky to have a good woman with me for 26 years and that has kept me on the true path and as for life-it's everyday-it's taken for granted-- it's expected isn't it? I have been reading and writing poetry for the last couple of years and this quote sums it up best for me "And do not, in anything retreat from yourself-- just be alive, only that- alive- alive only that to the end.

So peace my classmates
