

Warren Holtzman leaves the old South on crutches. In 10 years we see Warren back on crutches.

Kathleen Hynds leaves the last of the “Hynds” 57 varieties. In 10 years we see Kathy with 58 varieties.

Arline Jacobs leaves the attendance office with less work. In 10 years we Arline as a truant officer for G. N. S. H. S.

Kenneth Jewel leaves Mr. Turner a broken nose. In 10 years we see Kenny dreaming when the children are asleep.

Thomas Johansen leaves all the paint brushes and all his headaches to next head of the art crew. In 10 years we see Tom building scenery for a Broadway show.

Leslie Josephson leaves Mr. Ghent a super anahist bottle to water his Voo-Doo bulb. In 10 years we see Leslie owner of a stable.

Jerrilynn Jourdan leaves her hiccups to Mr. Ormsby. In 10 years we see Jerry giving a diaper service some business.

Linda Juretic leaves a 50 year supply of daily jokes to the girls in the 2nd period lunch and 10 years of her life and a few gray hairs in room 402. In 10 years we see Linda a card.

Fred Kadin leaves homeroom 417 to those unlucky sophomores destined to suffer the wrath of the “Smiling Moslem.” In 10 years we see Fred a liberal.

Warren Kahn leaves Mr. Freeman a 15 week paid course in economics. In 10 years we see Warren as the best bowling cow doctor in the country.

Frederica Kane leaves able. In 10 years we see Riki walking with crutches.

Vincent Karaktin leaves all his used top and torn ligaments to Mr. Hess for next season. In 10 years we see Vinnie giving dancing lessons.

Anita Karpass leaves the green fields for David to cut next year. In 10 years we still see Anita A.K.

Ellenore Katz leaves Mr. Singer her empty teepee. In 10 years we see Ellenore raising kittens.

Patricia Kay leaves her black tights and pallid lips to Mr. Haber. In 10 years we see Patti with a bottle of Mana Schavitz.

Elizabeth Kelley leaves her autonomic nervous system for Mr. Abrams. In 10 years we see Betsey as a brunette.

Stephen Kelly leaves Miss Chisholm Calvin Coolidge, the man who said, “I do not choose to run.” In 10 years we see Steve married to a midget.

Peter Kent leaves Mr. Singer at the mercy of his dancing girls. In 10 years we see Pete advertising for Lucky Strike.

Beth Klein leaves policing an English “Bobby.” In 10 years we see Beth in “Bobby” pins.

Carolyn Klein leaves Mr. Singer a piece of her mind—the last piece. In 10 years we see Carolyn shopping at Alexander’s.

Margaret Kramer leaves Mr. Freeman to contend with the economic problems of the world. In 10 years we see Peggy as an economic advisor to Mr. Freeman.

Ronald Kramer leaves Mr. Turner the New York Giant Football Team. In 10 years we see Ronnie as a Foreign Policy Expert Advisor for the NY Giants.

Paul Kreiger leaves Mrs. Tupper a mega-phone, and Mr. Singer a new jug of Vermouth. In 10 years we see Paul owner of Kreigal’s.

Lois Kunkel leaves a quiet period 4 to Mr. Turner. In 10 years we see Lois getting rid of her Charlie horse.

JoAnn Lack leaves hearing Mr. Freeman’s famous words “Summarize please.” In 10 years we see JoAnn getting her Phil of rhinestones.

Linda Lado leaves her sister thinking about the wonderful time she will have next year, while she is sleeping. In 10 years we see Linda still sleeping.

Sandra Lake leaves Mr. O. no one to call “Dusty Shores, Dewey Grass.” In 10 years we see Sandy up a creek.

John LaSelva leaves Mr. DelPezzo all the stolen tools. In 10 years we see John mapping out trains for the Long Island Rail Road.

Leanne Laven leaves Mrs. Tupper in Mr. Haber’s room. In 10 years we see Leanne inlaying at Forest Hills.

Diane Leininger leaves Mrs. Davis all the cookies, candies, etc. that she brought to class. In 10 years we see Diane still deciding between Frank and Richie.

David Lerner leaves Mr. Haber to his misery. In 10 years we see Dave walking out of the bank at 3:00 and arriving at the local bar in his 1970 Merc at 3:15.

George Lerner leaves a good book of jokes to Mr. Ghent. In 10 years we see George walking.

Guy Leslie leaves Miss Chisholm's 1st period English class hearing, "Now, Now Guy." In 10 years we see Guy as an Admiral in the Navy.

Arthur Levi leaves the engineers measuring the height of the water in the fountains. In 10 years we see Arthur writing a "Dear Arthur" column.

Jack Levine leaves Mr. Field's a quiet homeroom. In 10 years we see Jack making noise.

Roberta Levine leaves all her make-up to her teachers. (You know who you are!) In 10 years we see Roberta without make-up.

Gerald Levy leaves Mrs. Tupper the book, The Differences Between Shorthand and Spanish. In 10 years we see Gerry owning a resort hotel on Tupper Lake.

Ronald Li leaves the coordinating council for someone else to figure out. In 10 years we see Ronnie as the great Chinese detective riding around in his new Corvette.

Mary Licht leaves Mr. Turner to the Moslems. In 10 years we see Mary as Head Nurse at North Shore Hospital.

Stephen Lieberman leaves Mr. Abrams a new senior class to us for testing the back room. In 10 years we see Steve working in that back room.

Carol Ligotti leaves Tony, but not for long. In 10 years we see Carol answering the question, "Which one has the Tony?" (She does!)

Richard Lindner leaves a Waldorf-Astoria menu to the Cafeteria. In 10 years we see Richard eating at the Waldorf.

Anthony Linn leaves to students who want good advice and are sometimes in need of a friend in which they can confide, the "Smiling Moslem," Mr. Turner. In 10 years we see Tony still shaking hands with every girl he sees.

Roslyn Lipton leaves Mr. O. his desk to sit at once again. In 10 years we see Roz running errands for Mr. O.

Barbara Livingston leaves a special routine. In 10 years we see Barbara still walking up from the parking lot.

Eileen Lohrey leaves a vacancy in the 6th period Spanish Choir. In 10 years we see Eileen leader of NAAT—National Association for the Abolition of Teachers.

Marjorie Long leaves Mr. DeLaura a dee-agram course. In 10 years we see Marj short (Why not?)

Annette LoPresti leaves Mr. Ghent his G.O. Bank without its money. In 10 years we see Annette operating a poodle shop for dogs.

Robert LoPresti leaves Raven to Mr. Biel. In 10 years we see Bob running an honor system for the whole world.

John Lowell leaves Mr. Wile a ring for his nose. In 10 years we see John with the same ring around his neck.

Frank Lutz leaves still trying to bat 500. In 10 years we see Frank—whoops—No we don't, he just turned sideways.

David Lynch leaves his afternoon detentions (by Miss Chisholm) to a certain co-op teacher (Mr. Hoak). In 10 years we see Dave with a full time job.

Patricia McCarthy leaves the library some peace and quiet. In 10 years we see her as a Coty girl.

Ronald McIntyre leaves fiddling around with cars. In 10 years we see Ronnie an owner of a garage.

David McKee leaves Miss Chisholm a stack of old absent lists for her spelling tests. In 10 years we see Dave spending a summer in Great Neck.

Joyce McNally leaves a New York Times to Dave McKee. In 10 years we see Joyce the famed historian of the 20th century.

Linda MacMinigal leaves Mr. Proctoe a supply of Ling fish for next year. In 10 years we still see Linda driving her green car.

Donald Mains leaves Mr. Singer the Yogi Bear Fan Club Treasury. In 10 years we see Donald with three T-Birds.

John Marcus leaves Sophie's hospitality to those who have known it. In 10 years we see Dr. John J. Marcus hunting rabbits at Seabring.

Robert Marcus leaves Mr. Ghent a book of laughable jokes and a dozen new bow ties. In 10 years we see Bob still Fillibusting.

Fred Margulies leaves from Heaven. In 10 years we see Fred as President of a top-notch theatre guild.

Sheila Mark leaves saying, “Is there no end to these halls?” In 10 years we see Sheila sunbathing in Miami.

Sergai Mars leaves the Vikings behind. In 10 years we see Sergai finally going to a class council meeting.

Josephine Masler leaves her gym suit for someone else to wash. In 10 years we see Jo married to a “Teddy Bear.”

Nancy Matthews leaves Mr. Booke waiting for the third generation. In 10 years we see Nancy the same “bouncy little cheerleader.”

Martin Megur leaves with the proverb “He is a fool that provides not for that which will most certainly come.” In 10 years we see Marty writing proverbs.

Susan Mehlman leaves a bottle of “mark eradicator” to Mr. McGrath. In 10 years we see Sue as a catcher with the Brooklyn Giants.

Paul Mendez leaves to Mr. Singer a book entitled “How to Complain about Anything.” In 10 years we see Paul forgiving his 9th grade Science teacher for calling him “Little Paulie.”

John Meyer leaves with Frank Lutz—their excellent behavior in the boys’ locker and shower rooms. In 10 years we see Johnny playing Shortstop for the New York Yankees, with his own cheering section.

Richard Meyer leaves Mr. Christy his best wishes for next year’s team. In 10 years we see Richie as wrestling coach for G. N. North.

Georgi Michele leaves a piece of chartreuse-pink paper for Mr. Bainard. In 10 years we see Georgi with the latest hair style in Chartreuse-pink!

Karen Mills leaves Mr. Proctor, warning him that she has spies in the school; and a message for “Daddy-O-Singer,” “Think Small!” In 10 years we see Karen spreading rumors about Mr. Seinrich to get even.

Ann Miltenberg leaves lots of attendance sheets to the boys’ gym; props, props, and more props. In 10 years we see Ann with a “Lauchener” heart.

Charles Miscio leaves Mr. F. with high technology and low grades. In 10 years we see Charlie as one of the best chemists in the world.

Dena Moldavsky leaves Mrs. Mangan her beauty parlor for next years Seniors. In 10 years we see Dena publish her book, "Poems to A Telephone Partner."

Judy Moldavsky leaves all the gum she can chew to her chemistry teacher. In 10 years we see Judy finishing her new book, "1,001 Things Wrong with This World."

Jill Moss leaves her shaggy dog to MAN. In 10 years we see Jill with Jackson and Perkins Inc., breeding roses and children.

Walter Murphy leaves a Shamrock. In 10 years we see Wally raising a small family.

Anthea Myslivecek leaves Mr. Turner, "the smiling Moslem," someone else to tease. In 10 years we see Anthea changing her name to Pobiedonotsev.

Shepherd Nachbar leaves Mr. Biel "plugging in" to his "process level." In 10 years we see Shep tending a flock of sheep.

Ann Nadler leaves all of her lost sleep. In 10 years we see Ann still deciding on what college to attend.

Charles Namur leaves Mr. Turner a stuffed Democrat. In 10 years we see Charlie out, running Holmes.

Randall Neeb leaves Mr. Zanchick guarding the upstairs cafeteria. In 10 years we see Randy with straight hair, combing it like Mr. Rus.

Lawrence Needleman leaves an empty can of "brown" wax. In 10 years we see Larry with another can.

Sharon Nelson leaves all of her needles and pins to Mrs. Mangan. In 10 years we see Sharon eating at the Squire Delicatessen.

Caroline Newman leaves Mr. Freeman a well used chapter book. In 10 years we see Caroline finally being called her right name.

Thomas Nied leaves his nickname OOTSE for Mr. D. to give some deserving Sophomore. In 10 years we see Tom as head coach for Soccer at Rutger's.

Alice Norman leaves her un-dreamt dreams. In 10 years we see Alice hanging in the Louvre.

Dennis Norman leaves Glickman behind. In 10 years we still see him a Norman.