

Robert O'Brien leaves his angelic behavior in Mr. McGrath's class but he takes his halo with him. In 10 years we see Bob singing Soliloquy to the tune of "Sweet Sue."

Rosemary O'Connor leaves the future Seniors to tackle Mr. Freeman's summaries. In 10 years we see Rosemary still crawling up the walls.

Margery Osten leaves her red slippers to the next theatre South proxy. In 10 years we see Marge directing the Broadway production of Carousel.

William Patrick leaves Mr. Biel a plagiarized book report. In 10 years we see Bill on the moon finally writing a long due book report for Mr. Biel.

Lloyd Perell leaves saying, "Upward and onward, Excelsior!" In 10 years we see Lloyd manager of Vic Tanny's.

David Perinchief leaves Mr. Biel all his unused footnotes. In 10 years we see Dave a star in the movies—a perfect part for him.

John Petschauer leaves Mr. Freeman a copy of the Wall Street Journal for October 29, 1929. In 10 years we see John buying another accessory for his car.

John Piccirillo leaves a worn out gavel and dented bell to the Key Club. In 10 years we see Johnny finally completing a pass and ending up married.

Caroline Pollon leaves without leaving a Last Will and Testament. In 10 years we see Caroline still trying to think of a Last Will!

Barbara Powell leaves joyously. In 10 years we see Barbara twirling her way to fame.

Kathleen Probst leaves the Future Nurse's Club. Get a Doctor!!! In 10 years we see Kathy as a doctor for FNC.

William Radak leaves Mr. Hoak a bunch of easy jobs. In 10 years we see Bill President of the Road Knights.

Carole Radl leaves Great Neck to new Seniors who, she hopes, will do their best to get the most out of their last year. In 10 years we see Carole getting to like shorthand.

Allen Raiken leaves for Mr. Turner a life-sized picture of F.D.R. so that Mr. T can be led in the right direction. In 10 years we see Allen drilling his way through Ronnie's heart!

Carolyn Rey leaves Mrs. Davis teaching her next class of girls to be clams. In 10 years we see Carolyn breaking up with Ritchie for the millionth time.

Victor Reiber leaves a new bag of jokes for the teachers and all the new Sophomore girls for next years Seniors. In 10 years we see Vic still borrowing a football helmet.

James Rice leaves Linn and B.R. happily singing South Pacific together. In 10 years we see Jim cool and debonair on an oil tanker.

Robert Rickens leaves his basketball uniform to Dutch Hess. In 10 years we see Bob bombing up to Mr. Tucker's office to register his car.

John Riordan leaves the school the seventh string of his guitar. In 10 years we see John still playing the seventh string.

Marsha Robinson leaves her diet pills to some chubby Junior. In 10 years we see Marsh and Jim choosing bath towels.

Marcelo Romano leaves Miss Colston a loaf of Tip-Top bread. In 10 years we see Marcelo in Argentina discussing U.S. foreign policy with his girlfriend.

Nancy Ronsheim leaves to Mr. Thymius a beautiful S.R.O. sign which could not be used because of the fire laws. In 10 years we see Nancy, the girl with the beautiful hair, on a "Brecker" shampoo ad.

Fred Rosen leaves a scud to anyone who wants it. In 10 years we see Fred eating at Woolworth's.

Linda Rosen leaves her Tuesday night buddies for her college studies. In 10 years we see Linda with stars in her eyes instead of her hair.

Barbara Rosenstein leaves the school all her pre-exam butterflies. In 10 years we see Barbara as a lepidopterist.

Barbara Rosman leaves Mr. Rice her knowledge on still life and American painting. In 10 years we see Barbara solving the world's biggest economic problems (Thanks to Mr. Freeman).

Steven Ross leaves Mr. Minionis some meter smore, some old Great Issues notes and an unopened Physic's book. In 10 years we see Steve teaching children how to write "script."

Elaine Royal leaves her desk, in Mr. Turner's room, to some other Democrat, who will have to put up with his "statements of truth???" next year. In 10 years we see Elaine walking three little Walkers.

Albert Rudolph leaves his comb to Mr. Haber. In 10 years we see Al a professor of Math at Harvard.

Joan Rumm leaves her headaches to the next guy who has dear Miss Mallon and Mr. Freeman in a row—ooh her head. In 10 years we see Joan drinking Vodka.

John Rumm leaves behind his Brandy. In 10 years we see him the father of Quadruplet's.

Michael Sacks leaves Mr. Freeman a mustache and a little car to get from one side of the room to the other. In 10 years we see Mike in his stick shift six Plymouth beating Phil Bright and his Fury in a drag race!

Joan Schachat leaves biology dissections to someone who doesn't have lunch right after them. In 10 years we see Joan a butcher.

Robert Schachne leaves Mr. Freeman a V.I.Z. In 10 years we see Bob a V.I.P.

Steven Schachter leaves a deck of cards to the cafeteria. In 10 years we see Steve still "estudiando el espanol."

Margaret Scheifele leaves Mr. Freeman with two last words. "summarize please." In 10 years we see Margaret repeating those words.

Sue Scheiman leaves Mr. DeLaura's class still having problems with problems. In 10 years we see Sue smiling.

Abbey Schiff leaves her most unsuccessful mark. In 10 years we see Abbey toeing her mark.

Susan Schiff leaves in the possession of an MG. In 10 years we see Susan teaching Chemistry and doing term papers just for kicks.

Robert Schimmel leaves driving people crazy. In 10 years we see Bob as a Driver's Ed teacher.

Henry Schnierer leaves the ivories in the auditorium to the music department's next adjutant. In 10 years we see Hank mourning over the loss of his long lost love—Jane!

Merrily Scholle leaves merrily! In 10 years we see Merrily and the Seniors singing at the Bell Anapolie.

Richard Schultz leaves Mr. Parker all of his ideals, and therefore, leaves confused. In 10 years we see Richard still sleeping in room 605.

Alan Schwartz leaves Miss Chisholm a Now, Now, Now class for next year's Seniors. In 10 years we see Alan buying auto insurance.

Francine Schwartz leaves the future students of G.N.S. for Mr. Biel to brainwash. In 10 years we see Fran hocking her furs.

Edward Schwartzberg leaves still waiting for a senior license. In 10 years we see Ed a renown author of Schwartzberg's Inane Quotations.

Howard Schweiger leaves Mr. Biel's English class fascinated and amazed over the vast knowledge of that man, he's making an inference of course! In 10 years we see Howie raising little Schweigs.

Marsha Seeve leaves the pillow in the Driver's Ed car for another girl her height. In 10 years we see Marsha surrounded by little change purses.

Harold Seidman leaves $1.49 that he owes his patrons. In 10 years we see Hal owing a couple of thousand dollars to his patrons.

Joan Settle leaves Miss Mallon a Senior who will pass Geometry next year. In 10 years we see Joan with long hair again.

Ellen Shamis leaves her famous walk to the next football captain. In 10 years we see Ellen driving a Siata to the Village at 3:00 am.

Sydell Sharp leaves Mrs. Davis's classes with regret. In 10 years we see Syd; she won't be dull.

Craig Shevlin leaves arguing un-semantically with Mr. Biel. In 10 years we see Craig as a semanticist.

Joyce Silver leaves all those-----tests to Mr. Freeman. In 10 years we see Joyce importing Brooklyn to Great Neck.

Myron Silverman leaves Joel Kaufman his latest book, Sports Editing Made Easy. In 10 years we see Mike taking advice from his book.

Robert Silverstein leaves Mr. Field's a lie detector to find out whether his student's assignments are true or FALSE! In 10 years we see Bob having to use a lie detector.

Elizabeth Simmons leaves taking with her A.U.'s M.C. In 10 years we see Betsy as Florence Nightingale II.

Peter Simon leaves seventh period G.I. class knowing that he is a little wiser and a lot sleepier. In 10 years we see Pete "ized."

Stephen Simon leaves a cluster of mysterious circles which will forever hog space in the G.O. bulletin board that could be put to some use. In 10 years we see Steve getting out a sentence without the use of a college board word.

Jack Singer leaves a text book informing future seniors on the art of passing their senior year doing the least work possible. In 10 years we see Jack sewing.

George Sintchak leaves Mr. Freeman a book, The Social Amenities of the Mau Mau. In 10 years we see George writing a sequel to that book.

Mallory Smul leaves some rubber in the student parking lot. In 10 years we see Mal finally putting up his top.

Stephen Sondov leaves to posterity all of his papers that Mr. Biel didn't mark. Didn't collect, and didn't even look at. In 10 years we see Steve will be the only person to service his Rolls Royce.

Matthew Sonfield leaves Miss Mallon a violin to play while she listen's to her students sad stories. In 10 years we see that Matt will be the largest seller of organs in the US.

Michael Spencer leaves with pleasure. In 10 years we see Mike chairman of the Board of Directors of River Raisen Paper Corporation.

Douglas Stahl leaves all his back homework assignments to Miss Mallon. In 10 years we see Doug still deciding on which scholarship he is going to use.

Roberta Stock leaves for Trenton, New Jersey to become a Rider. In 10 years we see Roberta painting Montmartre.

Polly Strax leaves her mark, but will return to win Mr. Abrams's bet. In 10 years we see Polly choosing a name that goes well with Todd and Robin.

James Suskin leaves Mrs. Tupper an air conditioner and to Mr. Abrams the Hi-Y's typewritten notes. In 10 years we see Jimmy eating an ice-cream "Cohen."

Jerrilyn Tager leaves her costumes to Edith Head and a stick of Dentyne to Mr. DeLaura for energy. In 10 years we see Jerri winning an Oscar for costume design.

Denis Taneri leaves to Mr. Clarke on extra voice to be used when his own becomes too hoarse to yell. In 10 years we see Denis playing B.B. with nails in his shoes to prevent him from walking.

Robert Tesoriere leaves this school—UGH! In 10 years we see Bob returning to this school—UGH!

Geoffrey Toplitz leaves the meek to enter into their inheritance. In 10 years we see Geoff singing—Orleans, Beaugency, Notre Dame, DuClery.

Clifton Traver leaves the auditorium a clogged-up conduit. In 10 years we see Cliff dropping over.

Elizabeth Turbyfill leaves an ash tray for Mr. Thymius. In 10 years we see Liz blonde naturally!!

Barry Vogel leaves Mr. Fields a book of beatnik poetry. In 10 years we see Barry celebrating his 12th year of night driving.

David Warmflash leaves Mr. Snyder and Mr. B. two happier men. In 10 years we see Dave being sold at Merkels.

Douglas Warner leaves all his beach days to someone else. In 10 years we see Ronnie running a used car lot.

Barbara Wasoleck leaves nothing...she is taking it all with her!