

Senior Class Play Aids New York Trip

Tony Mamede studying his part for "My Three Angels".

"Remember the Alamo?"

"No, but I remember the Junior Junket!"

Last year the junior class presented one of the funniest shows Clarke County has ever seen. This year, the same group who presented the "Junior Junket" has gone one step better. These seniors are presenting "My Three Angels" on Thursday and Friday, December 7 and 8, in the High School Auditorium. This play is a comedy, a play which will be entertaining to the audience and yet, performed with the dignity of seniors.

The money which the seniors will receive from this play will be used to send the class to New York. These seniors have been working toward this trip since their sophomore year when they sold note paper. But there is still a long way to go. This play can "take them a few miles closer" to New York if the citizens of Clarke County turn out to see "My Three Angels." The seniors don't expect to get something for nothing. Therefore, they guarantee an evening of pure enjoyment in exchange for $1.00, a dollar which helps the seniors come closer to their well-deserved goal—a trip to New York!

Senior Class Play Set For Two Nights

Tick Tock! Tick Tock!

The seconds are ticking off very quickly. It will soon be time for the Clarke County High School Senior Class to present its play, "Three Angels."

The play will be given Thursday, December 7 and Friday, December 8 at the high school auditorium at 7:30 p.m. All profits from the play will go toward the Senior Class fund in New York City.

The play is described as a hilariously funny comedy.

Senior Class Play

Scheduled Tonight

"My Three Angels" will be presented tonight and tomorrow night by the Senior Class of Clarke County High School in the school's auditorium. Curtain time is at 8

by Mrs. Donald Nie-

cene of the play is laid

Guiana.

principals are Thomas

Brenda Goldizen, Elizabeth

ong, Ann Polhamus, Carla isle, Alois Casper, George Car-

, William Whiting, Paul Mc-

Whinney, Ronald Sours and Antonio Mamede.

Senior Class Play Is Well Received

by Carol Handy

On the past Thursday and Friday, December 7 and 8, the CCHS auditorium was the scene of a real treat for all who love plays, fun, Christmas, and a good laugh. The Senior Class's presentation of "My Three Angels" was a delightful combination of these things.

The play, directed by Mrs. Donald Niemann, portrayed life in French Guiana in a rather unusual situation, on a rather unusual Christmas Eve.

The cast included Thomas Digges, as Felix Ducotel, a father; Brenda Goldizen, as his wife; Ann