

CCHS Students Win In Forensic Meet

April 1967

Four students at Clarke County High School were winners in the District LB Forensic Meet at Shenandoah College on April 15. Those placing first were Carol Handy in the girls' public speaking Rachel Pierce in the girls' poetry, and Barry Wood in the boys' prose. James Henderson was a third place winner in the spelling division.

Others participating in the meet from CCHS were Tommy Knight in the boys' poetry, John Davis in the boys' public speaking and Debbie Mallard in the girls' prose.

The students were accompanied to the meet by Mrs. Dean Bushong and Mrs. Alice Lorne, both English teachers.
