

MILITARY

The Corps! Bareheaded salute it,
With eyes up, thanking our God
That we of the Corps are treading
Where they of the Corps have trod —
They are here in ghostly assemblage,
The men of the Corps long dead,
And our hearts are standing attention
While we wait for their passing tread.
We, sons of today, we salute you —
You, sons of an earlier day;
We follow, close order, behind you,
Where you have pointed the way;
The long gray line of us stretches
Through the years of a century told,
And the last man feels to his marrow
The grip of your far-off hold.
Grip hands with us now, though we see not,
Grip hands with us, strengthen our hearts
As the long line stiffens and straightens
With the thrill that your presence imparts.
Grip hands — though it be from the shadows —
While we swear, as you did of yore,
Or living, or dying, to honor
The Corps, and the Corps, and the Corps!

The Late Bishop H.S. Shipman,
Former Chaplain, U.S.M.A.

BROTHERHOOD

PLEDGES

Company Q-5 marches on to the drill field to present another show.

Without cadence, Q-5 performs 'Open Winds.'

Q-5 demonstrates its oft copied Machine Gun Sequence.

'Screwed-Up Daisy' is another movement requiring exact timing.

Company Commander, J. Fred Hepler, signs off after another fine show.
