COMPANY

Present Arms . . .

“The Corps! Bareheaded salute it,
With eyes up, thanking our God
That we of the Corps are treading
Where they of the Corps have trod —

COMPANY

... At Ease!

They are here in ghostly assemblage,
The men of the Corps long dead,
And our hearts are standing attention
While we wait for their passing tread.

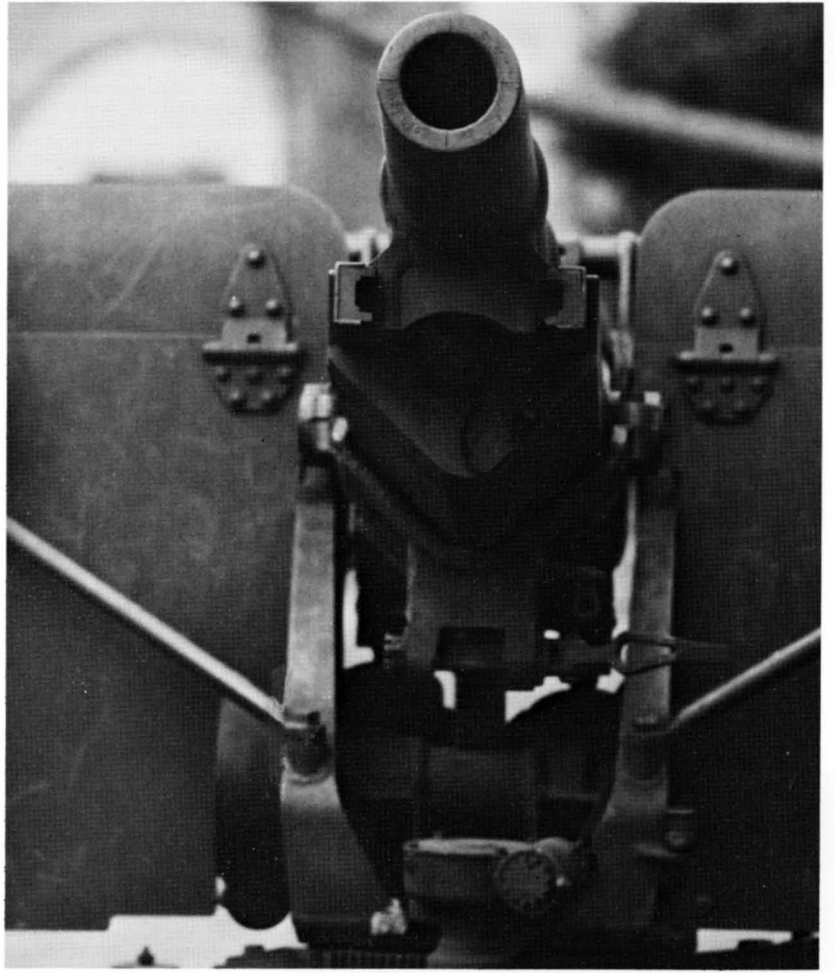

COMPANY

Crisp and Clean!

We, sons of today, we salute you —
You sons of an earlier day;
We follow, close order, behind you,
Where you have pointed the way;

COMPANY

Feathers stiff with wind!

The long gray line of us stretches
Through the years of a century told,
And the last man feels to his marrow
The grip of your far-off hold.

COMPANY

To brace—Chest out, shoulders back, chin in!

Grip hands with us now, though we see not,
Grip hands with us, strengthen our hearts
As the long line stiffens and straightens
With the thrill that your presence imparts.

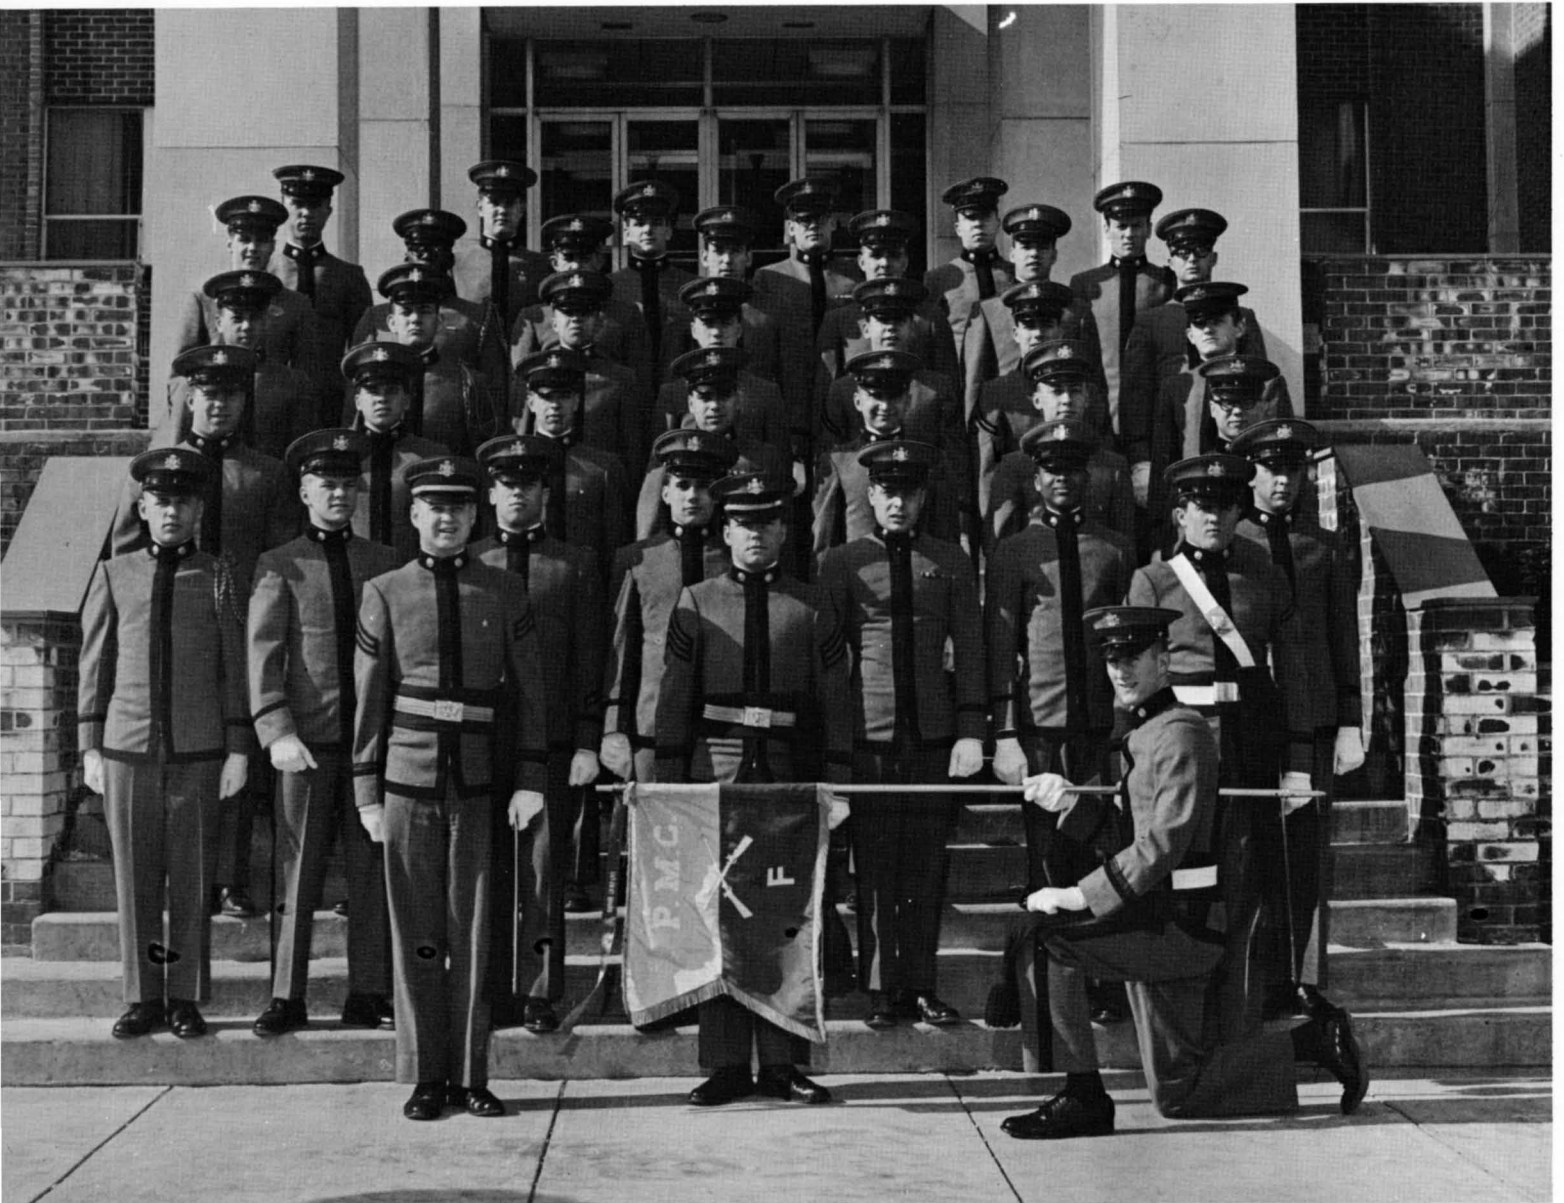

COMPANY

Stand straight! Look tall!

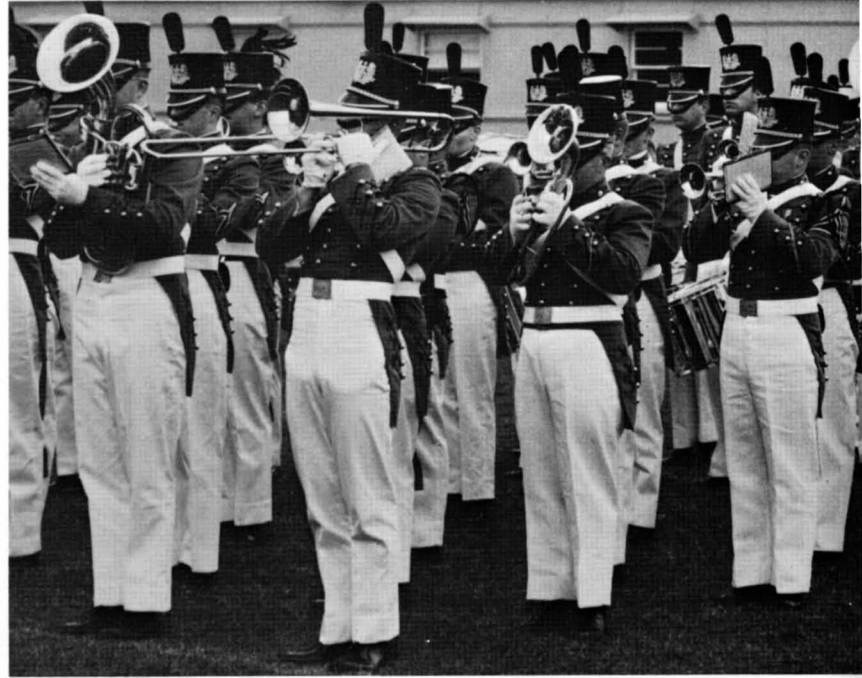

Grip hands — though it be from the shadows —
While we swear, as you did of yore,
Or living, or dying, to honor
The Corps, and the Corps, and the Corps!"
— The Late Bishop H. S. Shipman

The Pennsylvania Military College Band distinguished itself many times this year. Besides participation in many award-winning festivals throughout the country the band performed in concert during the year demonstrating great versatility and dedication. It represents the true spirit of Pennsylvania Military College as an old and fine organization.
