JULY/AUGUST 2018

Summer Spirituality

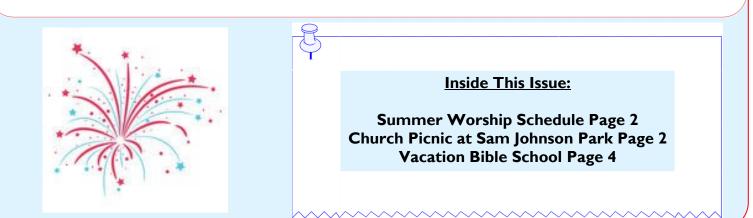

Summer is here and I have loved every warm day we have had so far this year in Central Oregon. We are out hiking every weekend. I am riding my bike from home to the church and all over town for meetings. I am sharing coffee and lunches with you all while sitting outside. What could be better?!

As the days are at the longest and the warmest, I want to suggest to us as a church that we have an opportunity to step into a different season of spiritual rhythm. Often, I hear people say they wish life would actually slow down a bit in the summer months, but somehow this season just flies by everywhere. This year, I invite you to make a choice to step into a season of Summer Spirituality. Here a few ideas for what that could look like in your daily life:

- * The sun is out early and it is warm on your back porch. Take your coffee outside and set aside an extra 20 or 30 minutes in your morning to sit quietly with God. Start your day with a Psalm, some silent prayer, or journaling a conversation with God.
- * Many of us are taking vacation with family or friends. Don't pack every day of a vacation with activity. Allow for times that are totally unstructured to enjoy the people you are with. At the end of a relaxing day together, make sure to tell them how thankful you are for their place in your life. Family and friends are life's greatest gifts from God!
- * Whether you are traveling extensively or staying close to home, summer is a great time to read and learn something new. Take time to consider how God might be leading you to grow or learn and choose a book that strengthens your connection with God or equips you for a new area of service to the church or the community.
- * While the sun rises early in this season, it also sets late. Take time to go outside and just stare and enjoy the sunset in the evening, the orange and pink clouds over the Three Sisters. Review your day with God. Where did you experience God present and leading? What in your day felt like a turning to or a turning away from God. Finish each day with this old spiritual practice of Examen, with gratitude and confession as the day comes to a close. A beautiful sunset is a perfect reminder of God's constant grace in our lives.

My prayer for us as a church is that we would all be journeying each day together in communion with the living God revealed in Jesus Christ. This can happen in every season. This is an invitation to choose to take steps deeper into that life this summer.

With you on the journey, Rev. Andrew Hoeksema

CPC Parking Lot Sale

Over-stuffed with "stuff" at your house? We are happy to help! Save those items to donate to this year's Community Presbyterian Church's parking lot sale. This annual sale will be held Friday-Saturday, September 14-15.

Recommended donations include tools, garden equipment, gently-used clothing, seasonal and Christmas items, sporting goods, toys. Please bring your items clean, in working order, and ready to sell on Thursday, September 13, between 8:00 and 4:00.

Profits from the 2018 sale will benefit our partner church in Mombasa, Kenya, providing meals for school children and hygiene products for girls. Thank you for supporting our mission work. For more information, you may contact either Rocky Johnson at 541-548-6798 or Margo Menown at 541-350-5711.

CPC Church Picnic

Save the date for CPC's summer picnic. Saturday, August 25 from Noon to 4:00 pm. This year the picnic will be at Sam Johnson Park located at 333 SW 15th Street.

The pavilion is already reserved with plans for activities and games for young children through high school. Bring the family! Enjoy visiting your church family in an informal setting. Both park and playground are accessible to those who are physically challenged.

Please sign up on the sign-up sheet in the narthex. Please contact either Sharon Lynch at 541-815-6178 or Linda Jackson-Shaw 541-548-8637 if you have any questions.

Quilters Quips

No Quilting July 19 due to Vacation Bible School!

CPC Summer Quilt Camp is scheduled for August 6-9. There will be lots of time to work on a project of your choosing as well as some mini classes and demonstrations. We will gather and set up at 9:30 am, followed by a daily demonstration. A Jelly Roll quilt on Monday, a mini class on Hand Quilting on Tuesday, Machine Appliqué on Wednesday, and Machine Binding on Thursday.

We are open to suggestions for other techniques to demonstrate. Please let us know and we will see what we can do. If you plan on making the Jelly Roll top, pick a roll with some colors that are light and dark and some in between.

We will be playing some games on Tuesday and Wednesday so you will need to bring the following items: 1) three fat quarters and 2) a white elephant sewing/quilting item wrapped or bagged.

As always, we will be eating at noon: Monday-brown bag, Tuesday-salad, Wednesday-Tate and Tate, and Thursday-leftover Tate and Tate, as well as desserts! With all that, there will be plenty of time for quilting, talking, ruminating, laughing, crying, and showing and telling.

There will be a sign-up sheet in the narthex in July. There are limited spaces for machine set ups so reserve your spot early. If you sign up and can't make it, let us know so that one of the quilters on the waiting list can attend. For more information call Becky at 541-548-1689 or Norrie at 541-548-4472.

Music Ministries

Director, Karen Sipes

Summer is officially here! Kiddos and teachers are out of school, and many things officially slow down a bit, the choir being no exception. For me, summer is a time to focus on organizing our vast music libraries, and preparing for the year ahead. Learning and preparing new anthems and praise songs to introduce. Summer choir means no more choir robes until after Labor Day. It also means no Wednesday night rehearsals for the same time span. The choir will meet at 10:15 Sunday for the first 3 Sundays in July. From July 22 through September 2, there will be one service at CPC, at 10 am. The choir will then have all of August off, and I will plan special music for that time. August 12, we will do our annual Hymn Sing Sunday and I encourage you to invite friends to this uplifting, spirit-filled time to sing favorite hymns and worship in song. A sign-up sheet will be out soon to ask for favorite hymn requests for that day. I manage to find almost all of the hymns requested, but often there is that elusive one that isn't in any of my hymnals or online to be found. If you have one that may be harder to find, if you know a source for it, please share that with me. I'm also always open to hymn and praise song suggestions through out the year. Individual preferences vary, and I choose music for both services based on the scripture and sermon focus each week. When introducing new or less familiar songs, I try to repeat them so that they become more familiar. I am truly thankful to serve this congregation and all of the wonderful, talented singers and instrumentalists within Music Ministries.

Blessings, Karen Sipes

Blessings, Karen Sipes Sunday Morning Adult Classes Mat Are We Doing This Summer??? Mountain Room Class at 9:30am We will finish our current study, The Bible Jesus Read, on July 15th. From July 22-Sept, 2, we will join the Library class. On Sept. 9th, we will begin a study on a book by Eugene Peterson, Tell It Slant, which explores how Jesus used language, particularly in his parables and prayers. His was not a direct language of information in instruction but an indirect, oblique language requiring a participating imagination - "slant" language. Tell It Slant beautifully points us to Jesus' engaging, relational way of speaking as a model for today. Study Guides will be provided. This class led by Jeff Kardy and Steve Cross will continue to meet through the summer to study the book of Mark; they are currently on Chapter 8. From July 22 - Sept. 2 they will join with the Mountain Room Class and meet at 9:00am.

Bible and Brew Group

The Bible and Brew group met on June 9th at 7th Street Brew Pub. They enjoyed food and drink, and discussed Paul's conclusion that we had no condemnation in Christ Jesus (Roman's 8:1). The discussion included hints of Sunday's sermon by Pastor Andrew when he discussed the grace of the Holy Spirit.

The group invites everyone interested to join them at their next meeting at Round Table Pizza on July 28 at 4:00 pm. Come join in the nourishment of body and soul! The group will be discussing Philippians 4:6-8. Read and prepare beforehand!

Children & Youth Ministries

Director of Youth and Children Ministries Emily Nelson 541-548-3367 emily@redmondcpc.org

Hello! I'm Emily Nelson, your new Director of Youth and Children's Ministries. I am so excited to join with you and walk together in pursuit of Christ! I want to share with you a little about my heart and passion for ministry, my enthusiasm for this role, and give you a glimpse of who I am.

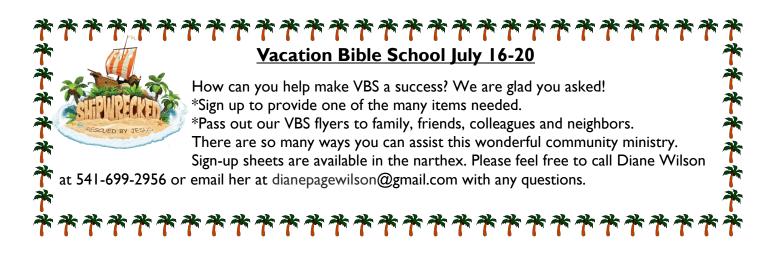

I have a love for students, and a deep desire to see middle and high school kids walking in an intentional, growing, passionate relationship with the One who loves them the most. God has set my heart burning with a desire to see youth walking an authentic, growing, healthy relationship with him, and I believe this happens best in the context of intentional community. Because of this, it has been my joy to walk alongside teenagers as they navigate the tricky road between childhood and adulthood and begin to discover who they are and who they were created to be. I am excited about the opportunity to journey with younger children as well in my role at CPC, and look forward to encouraging, supporting, and partnering with parents as a part of that. It is my heart that children and teenagers would know and believe that they are loved, they are known, and that their lives have purpose. I am eager to meet and begin building relationships with the children and youth at CPC and to walk alongside them as they grow in relationship with God and each other.

When I'm not working with students, I enjoy reading, writing, discussing the finer plot points in Star Wars, and making corny jokes (or as my students refer to them, "Emily jokes"). I love traveling to new places and trying new things – especially new foods! Sports are awesome (volleyball and baseball are my favorites), and I'm always up for a movie or game night! Basically, I love connecting with people and finding common ground.

I am so thrilled to join you and excited for what the future holds! I invite you to join me in praying for the children and teenagers of Redmond as we approach the upcoming school year, and especially for the youth and children's ministries at CPC as we anticipate the work God will do in the lives of these students. I'm looking forward to meeting you soon!

In Christ,

Emily Nelson
