

GHS CLASS OF 1986 NEWSLETTER #7

Welcome to the 7th Newsletter – Special Coronavirus Edition!

Hello everyone, and welcome to the 7th newsletter of the Gardner High School Class of 86, unquestionably the greatest class ever to walk through the hallowed halls of Gardner High.

Who could have seen this social distancing thing coming? As most of us sit home under shelter-in-place orders, the newsletter is back with some great updates. We are still awaiting our million dollar small-business loan from the government, but in the meantime, we hope this newsletter brings a smile to your otherwise mundane day. With Indiana now allowing groups of 25 or less to get together, I am able to bring back most of my staff here at the home office.

We are only one year away from our next reunion (35 years!) The planning will start soon. If you are interested in helping or just want to socialize please send us a note. Since our next few planning committee meetings will likely be over Zoom, we can finally have meetings that are “pants optional” without getting HR involved again.

Updates, Updates, Updates...

John Billings quit Facebook for a while, and is looking forward to golfing someday.

David Breault celebrated a birthday in October.

Brett Bush has been drinking A LOT of wine and watching Netflix.

Mike Cormier went to the grocery store.

Russ Cormier has been helping several folks with zoom and IT issues. He recommends unplugging your router and waiting 30 seconds.

More Updates...

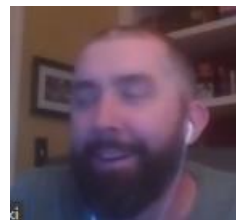

Eric Jacques has been taking a lot of naps.

Scott Eidenger watched the Tiger King and got a new fire pit.

Tony Perry has posted some funny memes on Facebook.

Pete Rodski has been walking his dog multiple times a day. And he recently discovered that Smirnoff makes a blueberry flavored vodka.

John Stromski got a haircut and has been clearing his history on his computer daily.

David Roy has been social distancing with a glass in hand.
