

JULY

Mike Davis and Judy Lautsch rehearse their parts in the South High School Summer Drama Workshop production of "The Boyfriend." The musical comedy is set in the Roaring Twenties on the French Riviera and features songs and dances of that era. Curtain time is 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday at South High's air-conditioned lecture center.

Lady Brockhurst (Michele Jaquette) scolds Lod Brockhurst (Tom Neece) who is captivated by the charms of Lolita (Lyn Rodgers) as the lifeguard (Tom Hoffer) looks on with amusement during South High School's presentation of a roaring twenties play, "The Boyfriend," to be given tonight and tomorrow at 8 p.m. in the South High lecture center.

Daniel Beene, 1968 graduate of South High School, has received a $500 renewable scholarship from Signal Oil Company. With him is the company representative, James Rasbury. Daniel plans to attend one of the branches of the University of Californian.

South High Players Ready for Curtain of 'Boyfriend'

The curtain will rise on "The Boyfriend," South High's Summer Drama Workshop production, tomorrow and Saturday nights at 8 p.m. in the school's lecture center.

Starring in the female lead is Liz Bailey, senior at SHS, who portrays Polly, the sweet young thing. Liz has appeared in "The Teahouse of the August Moon." Her starring role as Sharon in "Finian's Rainbow" won her a nomination for the school award of "Best Actress."

She was also the narrator of the award-winning one-act play, "The Brick and the Rose," and has been active in speech and choral activities, winning awards in both.

Also participating in the school's choral department are Liz's alternate-night co-stars, Jon Serrano and Birchard Denney, both seniors. Jon and Birchard were seen in "Finian's Rainbow." Birchard has also appeared in "Cinderella," and "Teahouse." At the Kern County One-Act Play Festival, he won the "Best Supporting Actor" award for his role in "The Brick and the Rose."

Mike Davis, junior, is cast as Polly's "veddy British" father, Percival. Mike has appeared in every major school production this year, including "The Brick and the Rose." He starred in "Finian's Rainbow," and his portrayal of Mr. Van Doan in "The Diary of Anne Frank" won him a "Best Actor" nomination.

Judy Lautsch, senior, new to the South High stage, is cast as Madame Dubonnet.

Hortense, a French maid, is portrayed by Barb Leonard, junior. Nominated as "Best Drama Student," Barb was seen in "Teahouse," "Finian's Rainbow," and "The Stranger."

Linda Murray, senior, is cast as Maisie, a spirited young flapper. An active drama student, Linda was cast in "Finian's Rainbow."

Maisie's boyfriend, Bobby, is portrayed by Steve Fidler, senior. Steve was nominated for "Best Actor" following his role of Og the leprechaun in "Finian's Rainbow."

Tom Reece, senior, plays the role of Lord Brockhurst, a wealthy and flirtatious old

see Boyfriend—page 27

Maisie and Bobbie, portrayed by Linda Murray and Steve Fidler, charleston together in a scene from South High School's presentation of "The Boyfriend." The play, set in the roaring twenties on the French Riviera, will be presented by SHS Summer Drama Workshop tomorrow and Saturday at 8 p.m. in the school's lecture center.

Boyfriend

from page 21

man. He has appeared in "Cinderella," "Teahouse," "Finian's Rainbow," and "The Brick and the Rose." He also won a nomination for "Best Drama Student."

Lady Brockhurst is played by Michelle Jaquette, junior. A backstage crew leader in other plays, Michelle has appeared in "Teahouse" and "Finian's Rainbow."

Jan Kirsch, junior, portrays Dulcie, another young flapper. Jan has appeared in every production this year and was presented the award for "Best Season Contribution." She garnered a "Best Actress" nomination for her role as Anne Frank and was also nominated "Best Drama Student."

Sophomore Renee Young portrays Nancy. Fay is played by Kris Bower, who was also seen in "Finian's Rainbow."

Marcel is portrayed by Richard Mallard, another newcomer to the South High stage. David Bailey, freshman, plays Pierre, and Alphonse is portrayed by Bob Calton, seen in "Finian's Rainbow."

Also appearing in "The Boyfriend" are Lyn Rodgers (lead dancer), Eleanor Cragg (lead dancer), Nancy Kinkade, Jeanne Kinkade, Maggie Caldwell and Tom Hofferd.

Directing the play is Georgia Watkins. The musical director is Rich Davis and choreographer is Holly Smith.

Tickets for the 1920 musical may be purchased by calling South High for reservations or at the box office before the performances.

Summer school for South High School senior Linda Murray, means make-up and costumes. Linda is helped by summer school drama instructor, Miss Donna Hopkins, as she prepared for the recent production "The Boyfriend." The Summer Drama Workshop is just one of many courses offered to a record number of summer school students in the Kern High School District this year. The summer school program was begun in 1961 in the district, with a session at Bakersfield High School. This year summer school has been taught at all campuses in the district. The district also supervises summer school at Camp Owen and Juvenile Hall.

Eleanor Gagg, Bob Calton, Nina Rojas and Walt Lucas portray some of the square dancers in the South High School's production of the one-act play, "The Devil and Daniel Webster," to be performed at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m. tomorrow at the South High Lecture Center. No admission will be charged.

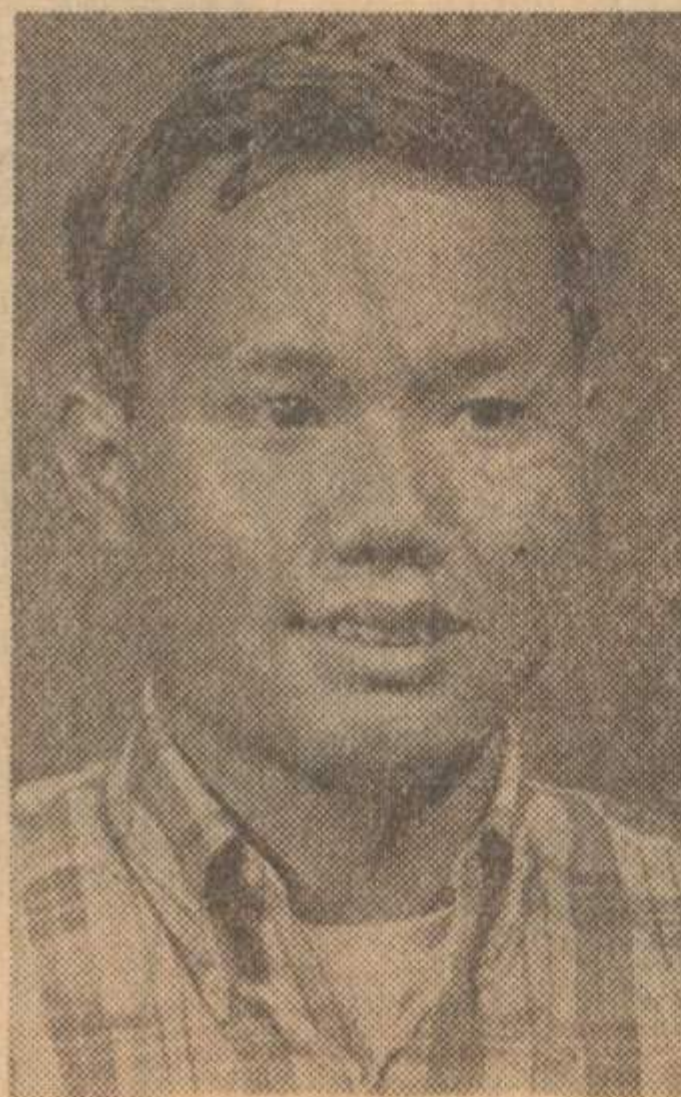

Highlight of the six-week summer school session for 113 students in the eight Kern High School District schools was graduation day yesterday. At the ceremonies, from left, were John Cotton, South; Jeanie Miller, East; John W. Harp, program co-chairman; Sheila Starbuck, West High, and Bill French, also a co-chairman for the event.

Herbert Jung Awarded Four-Year Scholarship

Herbert Jung, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jung of 1700 Stillman Avenue, has received a four-year scholarship to the Medical School of Harvard University, Cambridge, Mass.

According to the scholarship winner, the award consists of $3,100 and a $500 work program, renewable for four years.

Jung is a June graduate of South High School, where he was student body treasurer, president of the California Scholarship Federation, president of Medical Club, a member of Russian Club and was on the staff of the school newspaper.

HERBERT JUNG