Family: Scott - 18 1/2 Lee Anne - 13 1/2

Occupation: Stay-at-home mother.

Highlights/Lowlights: Graduated from Bishop Miege H.S. in 1970, went to KU one semester, started working afterwards, became a born-again Christian in 1971. Moved to Tulsa, Ok., in 1973, married Bob Rowe in 1974, worked for 3 years as secretary and payroll supervisor for a property management company until Scott was born in 1977, been active in school and church activities and raising kids ever since.

Most important thing I've learned in 30 years: Is that the search for happiness or fulfillment does not lie in things we acquire, accomplishments we fulfill, or how good we look, but only in a personal relationship with Our Heavenly Father through Jesus Christ His Son, and not in just believing, but in having a personal relationship with Him can we find the only answer to true happiness. Scriptures John 3: 5-8, John 6: 35-40

Occupation: Started Clune Equipment Leasing in '91 with Mark Henke (Laura's brother). We lease and finance office, construction and medical equipment.

Highlight/ Lowlights: I guess I haven't been down too low or up too high, but I was the 1991 Grand Prize Winner of the KC St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Most important thing I've learned in 30 years: Trying to be too witty or too philosophical in answering a question like this is dangerous.

Michael B. Corcoran

7031 SW Queen's Ct.
Topeka, Ks. 66614

Home phone: 913-478-4801

Business phone: 913-478-4888

Family: Married to Dolores for 24 years. We have two children, Kelly, 20 years old and a junior at the University of Kansas. Cara, 16, and a junior at Washburn Rural High School in Topeka, Kansas.

Occupation: Owner/ Vice President of Corcoran Chemical Products, Inc. Buildings manager of Fairlawn Plaza Shopping Center, property management of offices and apartments.

Highlights/ Lowlights: I have had numerous highlights in the last 30 years. Just to name a few, getting married, buying our first house, having a son, building a new house, trips to the Bahamas and Jamaica, having our daughter, Chiefs season tickets with our son since '89, Final Four trip in '93 with my son to New Orleans, and the "best" highlight is raising my children and watching them grow and become their own person.

Most important thing I've learned in 30 years: Keep a positive attitude. Treat people like you want to be treated. Give your kids freedom to learn and earn your trust while they live at home so they will be ready when they leave.
