“Forty Years And Still Going Strong!”

Sunday Picnic

Sunday Afternoon

October 21, 2001

Temperatures were in the high 80's by noon, but that didn't stop the class of '61.

Elaine

Someone finally remembered to get a group shot at the picnic.
How many classmates can you recognize after 40 years...

Another Shot of Some of the Reunion Attendees.

Henry Kohlenberg and his kids found shade under the old bridge

Sunglasses and shorts were the dress of the day. Guys with less hair than Herb wore hats.

Jane gets a chance to chat with Ms. Montgomery, Elissa's mom.

Jess Thompson and Bob Mahr

Jess, Eddie and Dan

Tom, John, Dick and Martha enjoy lunch and conversation.

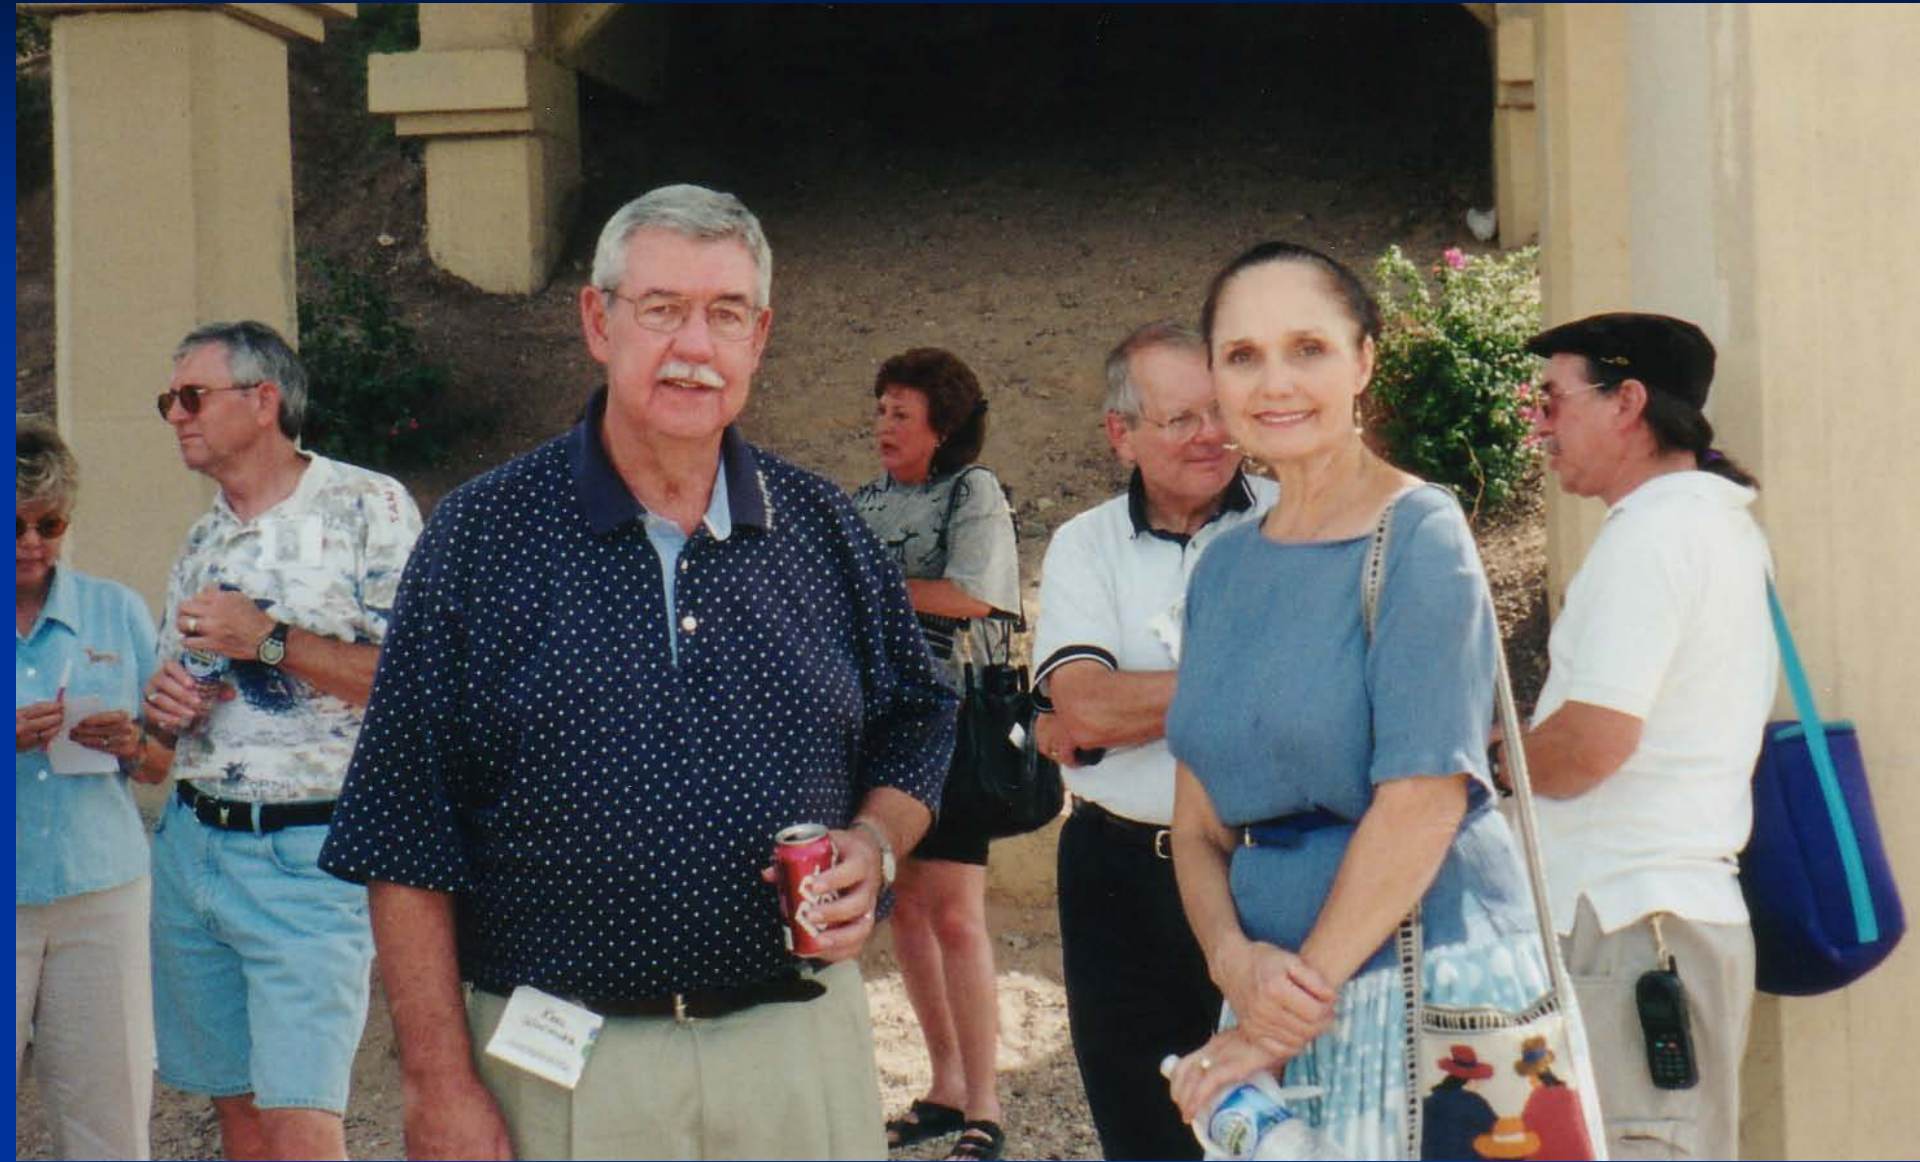

John Black with his old Jeep

Judy (LaFontaine)

At one time or another everyone cooled down in the shade of the old bridge.

Larry, Elissa, and Jane

Linda (Blalock) and her husband Ron enjoying their lunch.

Renewing old friendships.

Bob and his wife Judy found a great patch of shade near the lake.

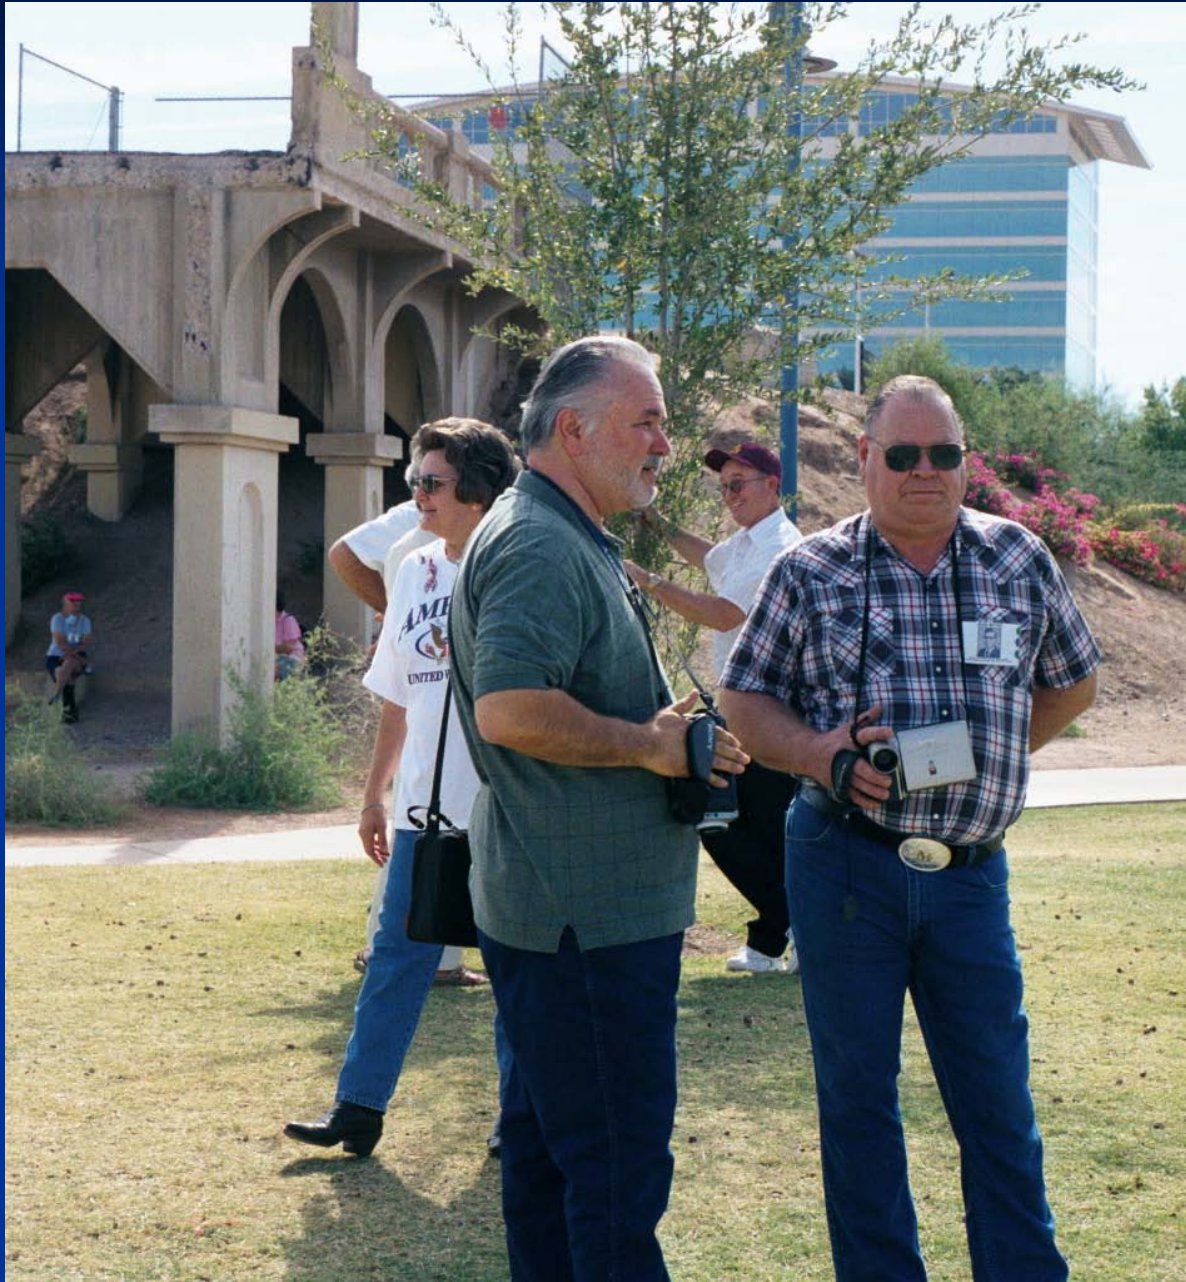

Margaret (Hyer)

Nick & Bob share video camera information

The sign on the bag said, “Will M.C. for food.” Paul found his spot of shade.

Barbara, Gracie, Judy & Elaine

Al Hobbs, Cindy Windes, Betty (Baird) and Pam

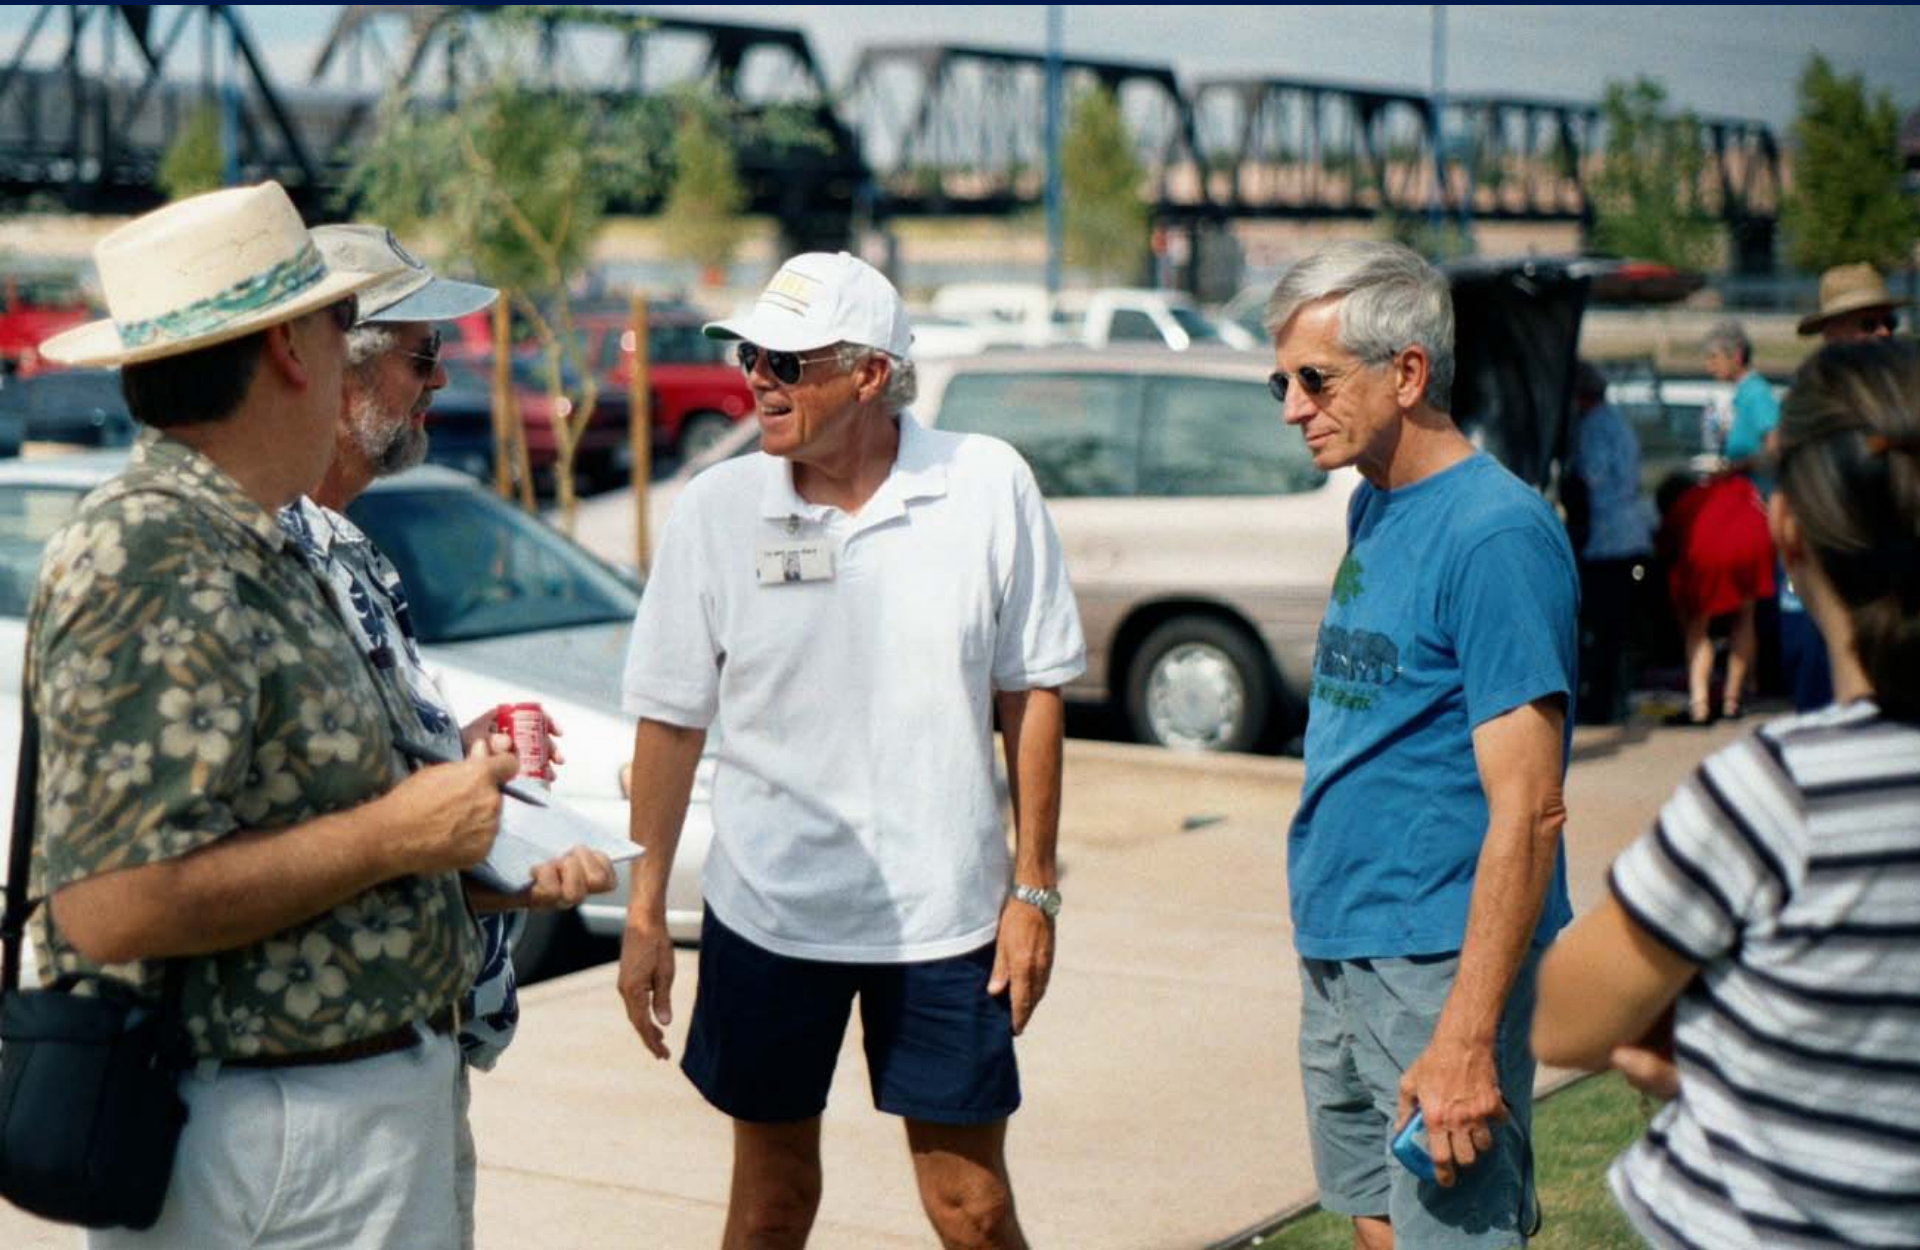

Neil, Dick and Eldon

Kathy, Linda, Martha and Margee

A bunch of old guys at the park, swapping stories of the old days in Tempe.

THE END

- Thanks to all you classmates that took the time, effort and expense to make the trip back to Tempe for the reunion.
- Elissa (Montgomery) Tap, gets the “Travel Award” for traveling the furthest (Arlington, MA) to get to Tempe. Tom Krill came in second, traveling from Lexington, KY.
- Thanks too, to all those that helped make this reunion possible including Sharon McGaughy, Pat Moffat, Paul Turner, Larry Windes, Bob Mahr and my wife Sara Clark.
- A special thanks to all those that sent notes of thanks for the great time they had. It made the time and effort worth while.
- I’ll continue to track the location and information about our classmates. I can be reached at tempe61.com
- Best wishes, and I hope to see everyone in Tempe for the 50 year reunion...
Dan Clark.
