Hymn No. 7— 'Now Thank We All Our God''

(Be Seated)

Congregational Prayer (In unison with the minister)

"Almighty God, Who hast made all things for man and man for Thy glory, sanctify our body and soul, our thoughts and our intentions, our words and actions, that whatsoever we shall think, or speak or do, may by us be designed to the glorification of Thy name and let no pride or self-seeking, no impure motive or unworthy purpose, no little ends, and low imagination stain our spirit, and unhallow any of our words and actions. But let our body be a servant to our spirit, and both body and spirit servants of Thine. Amen.

Anthem—"O God Of Youth"

Darst

O God of youth, whose Spirit in our hearts is stirring
Hope and desire for noble lives and true,
Keep us, we pray thee, steadfast and unerring;
With light and love divine our souls endue.

Fill thou our hearts with zeal in ev'ry brave endeavor
To right the wrongs that shame this mortal life;
Give us the valiant spirit that shall never
Falter or fail however long the strife.

Teach us to know the way of Jesus Christ our Master,
Give us his clear-eyed faith, his fearless heart,
And through life's darkness, danger and disaster,
O may we never from his side depart.

May we be true to him, our Captain of salvation,
Bearing his cross in service glad and free,
Winning the world to that last consummation
When all its kingdom shall his kingdom be. Amen.

Anthem— 'He Comes To Us''

Schweitzer-Marshall

He comes to us as One unknown, without a name, as of old, by the lakeside, He came to those men who knew Him not. He speaks to us, He speaks the same word: "Follow thou me!" and sets us to the tasks which He has to fulfill for our time. He commands, and to those who obey Him, whether they be wise or simple, He will reveal Himself in the toils, the conflicts, the sufferings which they shall pass through in His fellowship, and, as an ineffable mystery, they shall learn in their own experience who He is.
