Your name in high school and now if it has changed.

Karen Miller White

Currently living in:

Fillmore, CA

Marital Status, partner's name, kids, grandkids, etc:

At present time I am single, dam! lol I have two children, my daughter Keri who has 2 boys and my son Kevin who has 3 daughters thank goodness none have given me great grandkids

Education highlights:

After high school I went to FJC for a year and half then moved away to start my education in the school of hard knots. So I am still learning after all these years.

What kinds of work, hobbies, vocations, or other idiosyncratic pursuits have occupied your time and attention over the years?

I work most of my years for LA County Parks and Recreation doing varies jobs. After retiring I moved to WA and did some gardening and traveling. After my boyfriend died I moved back to this area to be close to the kids. I did work at Lake Piru for several seasons and now working part time at a honey farm here in Fillmore in the retail store.

Favorite travels:

My favorite travels have been in the motor home, really meet a lot of good people on the road. I still hope to see more of the US at some time.

If asked to name your greatest accomplishment, what would it be?

Gee that is a hard one. Besides my kids I am not really sure I have reached my greatest yet!

Who or what was your biggest influence in life?

Life itself - new doors just keep opening up.

Your favorite quote:

God helps them who help themselves

Favorite school memories?

Swimming of course - lol seems I was always wet

Favorite teacher?

Swoffer of course, my PE teacher
