The wind blew against my face softly, just as it did 25 years ago on graduation day.

Even though that was years ago, sometimes it seems only like yesterday.

That was a time when we all said we were going to conquer the world, we thought we could do anything.

I can still remember the names being called off, and watching each person receive their diploma.

I thought we were going to live forever and remain friends for years to come.

I never realized that watching my classmates receive their diploma may be the last time I would ever see them.

June, 1969

Graduation day was a time to reflect on ourselves each other, goals and memories.

We were given a diploma for our accomplishment.

Today, I would like to give the highest diploma offered for all of those who can only remain a memory.

Thank you for all that you have done for me and others.

All of the lives that you have touched and changed maybe just because of a smile that you cast upon your face.

I sometimes feel you dancing in the wind, just as the air is your ballroom.

I tremble with joy, knowing you are soaring in everlasting beauty, congratulations!
