DeLind-Corkrey

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Franklin DeLind (Marcia Bradford Corkrey), married in ceremonies here Saturday evening, are now in Nassau for their honeymoon.

Okemos Community Church was the setting for the nuptial exchange between the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Corkrey, 2134 Lagoon Drive, Okemos, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lanier M. DeLind, 2188 Hamilton Road, Okemos.

The bride's pea u de soie gown featured an empire bodice of imported ribbon lace and a chapel train of matching lace. Her bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis.

Attendants were Miss Sheila Corkrey, the bride's sister as maid of honor; Miss Corinne Corkrey, the bride's sister, as Miss Gabriele Adler of Dearborn, both bridesmaids. They wore identically styled gowns of gold satin and carried pale green fuji chrysanthemums. The maid of honor's bouquet also featured yellow rosebuds.

William Van DeLind came from Milwaukee, Wis., to be his brother's best man. Ushers were Douglas and Thomas DeLind, brothers of the bridegroom, John Shick and Robert Breckenfeld.

Special guest at the wedding and reception in the church parlors was Mrs. Janet Severance of Okemos, grandmother of the bridegroom.

The newlyweds will make their first home at the Park Garden Village Apts., Okemos.

A senior at Michigan State University, the bride will receive her degree in June. She is a member of Alpha Phi sorority.

The bridegroom, who attended MSU, now is in the hardware business with his father in Okemos.

Area Girls Give Cheers At Detroit

Cheering on new 1963 cars at Cobo hall Aug. 19-23 were eight Lansing, Okemos and Michigan State university cheerleaders. They also rode on the Friendship 7 float for the Michigan state fair parade Aug. 24.

The team of cheerleaders: Marcia Corkrey, Okemos high school senior; Chris Powell, Okemos high school sophomore; Harriet Davidson, Lansing Eastern senior; Mary Klüber, Lansing Everett senior; Sue Martin, M. S. U. sophomore; Nancy LaLonde, M. S. U. sophomore; Christin Potts, high school junior from Bloomfield Hills, and Jane Patris, M. S. U. sophomore.

The cheerleaders were part of 75 other entertainers at the show in Cobo hall. Uniformed in red berets and skirts and white sweaters, they did cheers, pompon routines, and greeted executives and dealers. Working with Artie Field's band, they sang and did the twist for a stage show.

A week before their performances, the cheerleaders met in Hartland, Mich., at Camp All-American for practice on the special cheers.

She adored her children and grandchildren beyond words. She loved being with them and reveled in watching and sharing in their many accomplishments in school, sports, and on the stage.

She will be dearly missed and fondly remembered by her children, Molly Wanko (Jeff), Anne Wendt (Tom), and Thomas DeLind (Kelly), her grandchildren Aaron, Isaac, and Naomi Wanko, Felix, Eliza, Caz and Mairead Wendt, and Ben and Clare DeLind, nephew Brad Hedeman, and her devoted husband of 53 years, Robert DeLind.

A private memorial will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Sparrow Hospital Hospice.
