

Douglas George "Doug" Frakes, son of Paul D. (1933-2008) and Katharine (Kahres) (1936-2007) Frakes, was born 27 August 1954, Michigan. He graduated from Okemos High School in 1972 and went on to have a not only a successful business and employment career but a 42 year marriage to Holly (Brookhouse) that included 3 children and 2 grandchildren.

Doug died at home in Williamston, Ingham County, Michigan, 27 March 2020. He will be interred with his parents and brother Gregg (1962-1986) in Evergreen Cemetery, Lansing, Ingham County.

Lansing State Journal, Apr 16, 1978

Frakes-Brookhouse

Holly Brookhouse of Fremont and Douglas Frakes of New Orleans, La., were married Saturday afternoon at First Christian Reformed Church in Fremont. They were attended by Molly Brookhouse and Gregg Frakes.

The bride is the daughter of Jay and Lois Brookhouse of Fremont. The bridegroom is the son of Paul and Katharine Frakes, 4419 Elmwood, Okemos. The couple will live in New Orleans, La.

Lansing State Journal (Lansing, Michigan) Monday 30 March 2020

Douglas George Frakes

Williamston - 8/27/1954-3/27/2020

Doug Frakes of Williamston, passed away in his home surrounded by family, due to complications from diabetes. He had a diverse work history - he was a restaurateur, business owner, and then transitioned to a long, successful career in the Michigan Department of Corrections. He was a devoted Spartan fan who enjoyed golf, boats, car shows, travel, weekend trips with his canine companion Ivy to the family cottage, and spending time with his grandboys, family, and friends. He is survived by his loving wife of 42 years Holly, son Justin (Samantha), daughter Lesley, son Darren (Lindsay) and grandsons Nolan and Gideon. A private family ceremony will be held at Gorsline Runciman Funeral Home and he will be interred at Evergreen Cemetery in Lansing.

Notification of Doug's passing curtesy of Scott Smith..."Doug was a great friend who never complained about his health challenges."

Douglas George
Frakes

WILLIAMSTON -
8/27/1954-3/27/2020

Doug Frakes of Williamston, passed away in his home surrounded by family, due to complications from diabetes. He had a diverse work history - he was a restaurateur, business owner, and then transitioned to a long, successful career in the Michigan Department of Corrections. He was a devoted Spartan fan who enjoyed golf, boats, car shows, travel, weekend trips with his canine companion Ivy to the family cottage, and spending time with his grandboys, family, and friends. He is survived by his loving wife of 42 years Holly, son Justin (Samantha), daughter Lesley, son Darren (Lindsay) and grandsons Nolan and Gideon. A private family ceremony will be held at Gorsline Runciman Funeral Home and he will be interred at Evergreen Cemetery in Lansing.