was in her twenty-sixth year of teaching at Greenhills School in Ann Arbor when she died. A beloved daughter, niece, sister, cousin, wife, and aunt, a stalwart friend, and above all an adoring mother, she was also a bibliophile, writer, thespian, gardener, cook extraordinaire, music lover, choral singer, fangirl, fisherwoman, ardent traveler, intrepid explorer of the outdoors, slight pyromaniac, connoisseur of luxurious baths, and ferociously competitive player of darts, backgammon, ping-pong, softball, euchre, and any other game. She is preceded in death by her mother Maria Schwartz (Rodriguez-Ortiz), and she is survived by her father William A.J. Schwartz, Jr.; her wife Julia Marvin; her daughters Maria and Melissa LoCicero; her siblings Bill Schwartz, Mary Ann Gottlieb, and Rod Schwartz; her ex-husband A.J. LoCicero; her aunt Sor Elisa Rodriguez-Ortiz; and a host of beloved cousins, nieces, and nephews. Her remains will rest in her ancestral home of Aibonito, Puerto Rico. Lisa's boundless appetite for life, her candor, her passion for justice, her ability to see and bring out the best in others, and her profound love for her family and friends will continue to inspire all of us who have had the privilege of knowing and loving her. Her funeral will take place at 4 pm on Tuesday, February 26, at St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, 306 N Division St, Ann Arbor, MI 48104. In lieu of flowers, please donate in Lisa's honor to World Central Kitchen: World Central Kitchen, Inc., P.O. Box 392289, Pittsburgh PA 15251-9289
