

Last Will and Testament

I Harry Ackerman will to Pequeno oso all my honey for quick energy.

I David Amsden hereby bequeath to Mr. Neal all of my pleasant disposition, and my friendly face around his office, and to CHIEF Frankfurth all my broken pencils.

I Dean Anderson bequeath all my broken drum sticks to the Riviera Beach High School Fighting (?) Hornet Band.

I Ann Annis bequeath all of my advanced knowledge of all Biology II esperiments that turned out successfully.

I Jim Arnold hereby bequeth my surfboard to the surfing hall of fame (namely the ship) which will be lent to would-be surfers, who would want to prove themselves by riding my board. After all if you can ride my board you can ride anything.

I Michael Atwater hereby bequeth my rosey cheeks and my extra super mole in my navel to anyone needing two groovy beauth marks.

I Penny Azeredo bequeath my duty of teaching our coordinated basketball players to dance in our next production to Anna Elkins.

I Sam Baglier bequeath and bequest herewith all of my personal ideas to the remaining Key Clubbers for their future I.C.C. assemblies?! S.O.E.

I Casey Barton Hereby bequeath my spike wrench to Evan Davis.

I Greg Bean hereby bequeath my good humor and endless jokes to Mrs. Longyear because she needs them.

I Virginia Belton hereby bequeath to Mrs. Watson my mini-skirts and to Mr. Frankfurth my worn-out sandles.

I Greg Bennett leave Charlie Lowery my ability to keep out of trouble.

I Russ Bennett bequeath my lisp to any nut who is dumb enough to use it also, my ability to leave early for lunch everyday to next years drama class I also leave to Miss Vicki Bobb my class ring, which I never got.

I Elaine Benenson bequeath my honey bottle to all little bears and my swimming records to Roberta Lang.

I Laura Benenson bequeath my swimming "inspiration" back to the original owner in hopes that it will bring good luck.

I Loretta Bernard being of sound mind and body do hereby leave on my motorcycle!

I Mary Lou Bernardi hereby bequeath all the pride, tears & joys that I've fognd at Riviera Beach High to the future classes.

I Bob Burman hereby bequeath my ability to skip school and get away with it to my brother Jim.

I Cheri Boggy hereby bequeath my ability to play the guitar to Fergi.

I Jack Bollinger hereby bequeath my blonde wig and fake eyelashes to Steve Owens and the rest of the guys that threw me out of Phys Ed with just my on, and hope that poor girl that saw me has recovered from the shock.

I Viv Brackett hereby bequeath my English grades and knowledge to John Kenney in Mrs. Longyear's class next year.

I Jerry Bullard hereby bequeath my dunking ability to Cecil Asher. P.S. Sorry Randy Lee but the dunk is banned. Too Bad, how sad.

I Jimmy Cladwell do hereby bequeath Leslie's ability to mess up boys, to Susan who's ability is quite will developed already.

- I Mary Jane Forsythe bequeath the thrills and entertainment of R.B.H.S. to Kathy Stocum, Cindy Magill, Linda Stocum and my baby brother. May they enjoy it as much as I have.
- I Barry Franklin bequeath a full years supply of No-Doz to the incoming soph. class. (may they rest in peace)
- I Peggy A. Garrett bequeath my various seats in Mrs. Burgess second period childrens hour to any other well diserving person and to anyone who has Mr. Batts for geometry, a steel shield.
- I Priscilla Geiger bequeath my two majorette uniforms to Jamie Ponder and Bobby Geiger, my fifth chair french horn part to Richard Meitin.
- I Bruce Gilbert bequeath my bad grades to Sue Goodrich; my "English" book to "Mr. Vernon Jaramillo.
- I Linda Gipe bequeath my old typewriter ribbon to my sister Nancy; and also my seat in Miss Opie's class for the next "dope" that comes along.
- I Gerald Gload bequeath the right to drop Glassware in Mr. Scambler's Bio. II class to anyone who qualifies.
- I Ron Goldston bequeath my same seat for two years in Mr. Neyhart's class to some other idiot.
- I Pat Gravelin bequeath my old beat up seat in Cont. History to any person who wants it.
- I Jerry Green do bequeath my wonderful personality and charming disposition to anyone who knows what to do with them, because I don't.
- I Tom Greenwood bequeath my seat in Miss Reel's Business Law class for some fine young junior.
- I Harry Grosser bequeath my great dislike for alcohol to Charlie Lowry.
- I Allan Groves bequeath the only high-back chair in Mr. Ornstein's second hour Physics class to the fastest chair switcher in next year's class.

Best of Luck
in the future!
Mrs Hershberger

Best of Luck
M. Neal

Best Wishes to a fine
Class

Chyk Canipe

Censored

Success to Class of '67
Mrs. Gunn

Best to you, always
Mrs. Orin

The best to everyone
Mrs. Winkler

To Some Wonderful People
Caring On!
Mrs. Freeman

- I John Kerslake bequeath to Corky Bullard my ability to gross out all girls, and to Vern Jarmillo all the headaches of Civitans.
- I Carolyn Kunsman bequeath my golden alto voice to the lucky altos in Adv. Mixed Chorus next year plus my prized paint brush to those unfortunates who paint scenery for next years production.
- I John Konrad bequeath all my abused books if usable to any doof who is stupid enough to read these. P.S. Unless I return next year.
- I Jackie Ketchens bequeath the job of secretary to any organized Keyette; and my height to any basketball player-especially to Larry ("Sonny") Quinn.
- I Sheila Keresey bequeath the new music building to the class of next year.
- I Gary Kendall bequeath my O.B. to the swim team of Riviera Beach High School.
- I Bobbie Kerste bequeath all the senior Priviledges (?) to the unfortunate underclassmen!
- I Kathy Ketcham bequeath all the waves you can find in Riviera Beach to Ben Hartig.
- I Kent Koelz bequeath my ability to skip study hall to Bev Harder who can't miss breakfast first hour S. H.
- I Kally Kapetanias bequeath my personality book to Bob Smedburg. Also, Tom Hayes all my memories of R.B.H.S.
- I Nancy Klotzbier bequeath my path which I have tread to slavishly to set an excellent example to my dearly beloved sister, Jeanne, to follow.
- I Patricia Lewis bequeath my seat on bus 16 to Cathy B. and Donna B.
- I Mickey Lewis bequeath my solo baton to Diane Abby, who's to chicken to take it and my ability to skip to Sue Mac Queen.
- I John Lew bequeath all juniors all beer cans on the beach and my football shoes to anyone who can get into them.
- I Joseph O. Lesko V bequeath my love (?) of bookkeeping to the poor minds of the students who take it next year.
- I Wendy Lambert bequeath my ability to surf to Stingray.
- I Sue Link hereby leave! YEE-HAW!
- I Jim Lingemann bequeath all my basketball talents and skills (ha ha) and a book "How to Play Basketball in 3 Easy Lessons" to all the needy underclassmen and especially to Tom Sherman.
- I Joann Lockwood bequeath my alias Agnes to anybody who wants it.
- I Linda Loftus bequeath my lock on the E-wing stair railing to anyone who can get it off.
- I Frieda Lott bequeath to all the teachers at R.B.H.S. my brother John who is as well behaved in school as I am. Never talks, never chews gum and always on time to all coasses.
- I Wayne Malmquist bequeath my name of Stump to Pat More.
- I Paul Margaritis bequeath to James Wheatly the presidency of the Key Club and all that goes with it. (calendar, conventions, Mrs. Miller and I.C.C. tickets)
- I Chuck Mathison bequeath to Sue Ricci all the memories of R.B.H.S. we share together for these past 3 years.
- I Donna Miller bequeath to my Civie, Linda Goldstine my continual winning shriek throughout high school, to my sister, Connie, all the Happiness and joys of my Sr. Year, and to "Micky Mantly" a withered flower in hopes that it may soon rain.
- I Doug Marsh bequeath all of my knowledge I have learned in second year Latin to anyone who needs it?
- I Jane Maurer bequeath my wonderful wise cracks and volumptuous vocal talent to Mr. Martini.
- I Phyllis Manior bequeath to Ruth Rodgers and Vicke Bobb our memories of my "car" and the problems we had trying to get it to run.
- I Joan Martin bequeath my fifth four class to Donna Dukes with hope that she can carry on our tradition.

I B. G. Porro bequeath to the advanced mixed chorus- the first five years of Debi Sue Shinglehouse in hopes that she will turn six (or eighteen) soon.

I Mildred Pelfrey bequeath my tall slender figure to any unfortunate pudgy little girls.

I Micholás Pomona bequeath my sea aquarium to Cindy Willy

I Linda Pearson bequeath my shy timid personality to Donna Day.

I Debbie Placey bequeath John Harms a chicken coop, Jan Evans one Pair of invisible flippers, Hunter Joslin a pink bath robe and Bob my fantastic ability to speak spanish.

I Chuck Pigott bequeath my physics book to anybody who is fool enough to take it.

I Allan Pinder bequeath my eyebrows to Francis who doesn't have any, I also give my extra fat to Gary Wilson.

I Joyce Peifer bequeath the Spanish Club and 4th year Spanish to anyone who can take it!

I William Warrington Preston Jr. bequeath a truckfull of broken butterfly wings, and a shattered stream of unsymbolic sounds to anyone with a wrinkly on their forehead!

I Charlie Pect bequeath my skolastic knowledge to anyone who can fill such high standards.

I Elizabeth Sue Price bequeath to all future D.C.T. students the privilege to skip school and go to work.

I Sharon Pedersen bequeath one used and battered D.C.T. teacher to Bonnie Larson.

I David Parks bequeath to Gary Wilson all my turn down dates, and also my good looks.

I Ernie Polassis bequeath my name Big Ern. to any who deserves it.

I Mary Parker bequeath a huge bucket and shovel to Mark Miller.

I David Pace bequeath all my extra lbs. To anyone who needs them.

I Jim Quinn bequeath my rotten disposition and jealous temper to anyone who wants it.

I Jerry Rector bequeath my Brain to Frank Kelly, my hair to Coach Noels, my surfing ability to Steve Taylor

I Pamela Riddick bequeath my phone number to all the boy's in Palm Beach County and a proposal of marriage to anyone who will listen.

I Debbie Rowbothom bequeath to Nancy Frawley my worn out Senior girdle.

I Christine Ruggles bequeath my gym shoes and dirty towel to Brenda Ruggles.

I Janie Rushing bequeath to Nancy Timmons, the armband and the M.K. Book.

I Sandy Rodenhizer bequeath the piano in Male Choir to anyone willing to take over in 67 -68

i, cain rainer, hereby bequeath a power failure and one humble poet to franklin.

I Rick Sparks bequeath my beautiful friendship with miss OPIE and the B.V.D. cast to any priviledged junior.

I Linda Shoeman bequeath one slightly wrecked drivers ed car to Mr. White.

I Vivian Seyler bequeath to Dan Williamson all my intelligence, which he desperately needs.

I Mel Savyers bequeath my seat in Miss Opie's room to anyone drunk or sick enough to take it.

I Jill Sariti bequeath to Tina Rowbotham my new crop.

I Richard Capone hereby bequeath all my books to the next homecoming bonfire.
My seat in detention to Venita Galloway, and my term paper done for Mrs. Longyear to anyone with 50¢. (C report)

I Terry Carmack bequeath my love for riding the bus to Niki and Becky, my typing ability to Sandy Bargar and my pillow to Linda Goldstine.

I Brian Carroll bequeath my unused copy of Lord Jim to anyone who is stupid enough to want it.

I Elaine Cato bequeath my ability in shorthand to Lindi Zellner.

I Nick Cindia bequeath after five years of pure H _ _ _.

I Glenda Clayton bequeath my last plastic model of my "model T Ford" to Gary Montana.

I Sharon Conaway bequeath my old and ragged gym shoes to Fergie.

I Ina Connolly bequeath my seat in Contemporary history to those of infinite patience, and my place in the lunchline to anyone who can fight off the underclassmen.

I Jim Day bequeath my job as public chauffer to anyone who wants it.

I Clarissa de Villers bequeath all my dead tennis balls to Betsy Fuller, Laurie Kaufman and Marsha Kelker.

I John Dirauer bequeath my past habitual absences to Larar Graves who himself is quite often not in school.

I Paul Dollins bequeath my vacant seat in study hall to Mr. Wing

I Mike Donth bequeath my favorite teacher, Miss Opie to Animal as I am sure he will love to have her.

I Steve Doran bequeath all my _____ grades in Mrs. Longyears class to anyone who will follow the tradition and fail also.

I Diana Doss bequeath Jeanette Stepherson to enjoy her years at R.B.H.S. as I have Good Luck

I Barbara Dover bequeath my seat in Bookkeeping and in Home Ec. IV to whoever is crazy enough to take them.

I Margie Drake bequeath my blue racing strips to to Chris Licata.

I Sharon Ehler bequeath to Anna Elkins our fountain and all its fun; to Nina Veck Veckman my seat in Mrs. Longyear's class and to Noreen Sharpe my terrific golf scores..

I Suzanne Ehrler bequeath my little green Simza to my sister.

I Tom Eilers bequeath my notebook and meaningless notes to Tim Glass. My math notebook to Steve Lee, my Fine parking place to Karen Anderson, all my demerits in band to Chip Madsen, and my empty pens and broken pencils to Mrs. Burgess.

I Allison Elder bequeath to Betsy Fuller President of the sophomore class my comb for use in P.E. next year.

I Bill Eubanks bequeath anything left in my notebook to Steve Lee.

I Brenda Evans bequeath my lockers that I don't have to Chris Webb also my grey hairs in the senior year.

I Bill Ferguson bequeath my Tuba to anyone who will clean out the paper and gum.

I Meg Fernekees bequeath my tortoise shell glass frames to anyone brave enough to wear them.

I Jan Fisher bequeath senior term papers to all unfortunate juniors.

I John Flynn Jr. bequeath to Charles Lowry my two favorite records "Runaway" and "Ratfink".

I Art Follmer bequeath Miss Opie to all juniors and seniors with my deepest sympathy.

- I Steven A. Hinds bequeath my pile of Historical English novels to any future Eng. IV student of Mrs. Longyear.
- I Steven Hebert bequeath to Mike Williams my ability to write my own excuses.
- I Phil Hendrickson bequeath my old yearbook camera to anyone who'll take it.
- I Jack Harrigan bequeath my senioritis to any junior that also can't wait to "Get Out".
- I Pat Hauptner bequeath my senioritis to Kathy Stocum, have fun Kathy.
- I Cindy Hunt bequeath the bottom locker to my sister Pam and all of the lunches she missed at Blizzards; to Jack Cox all my old gum wrappers; to Barb Dixon a great year of golf on the team.
- I Wayne Harper bequeath my pop top chain to the school.
- I Mary Ruth Hunt bequeath my ability to sing to Adrienne Stewert and Cindy Pompeli. Also my good disposition to Papa Goode.
- I Sherry Hawk bequeath my seat in Biology II to Donnie Snyder; my top locker in C-wing to Pat Pittman; my seat in Mrs. Longyear's class to anyone crazy enough to take it.
- I Ric Hill bequeath Frank Brown all tar scraped from my slein which just happened to be acquired because of surfing at Jupiter "Ranch".
- I Margaret Harper bequeath my southern accent to any hick that wants it.
- I Pat Hogan bequeath my ability to keep my sanity in algebra class to any deserving juniors.
- I Terry Hamontree bequeath 3/4 of a gallon of pink laquer to anyone who likes pink.
- I Sherri E. Heulitt bequeath all my clothes to Tom Hays and my chewing gum.
- I Bruce Harden bequeath my seat in Mr. Daniels finger painting class.
- I Bill Hallin bequeath my alarm clock to Abdule.
- I Karen Harouff bequeath my rank with Mrs. Livertree the job of fixing her cup of coffee to Kathy; to Terry a year supply of ABC gum.
- I Bonni Hedges bequeath my blace roots and different shades of hair to Cindy Mac Gill.
- I Jeannie Holder bequeath my place in Civinettes to Pam Pigott, and my seat in Mrs. Longyear's honor English class to Patti Bowers in hopes that she won't have to work as hard as I did.
- I Earl Heulitt bequeath my seat in Mrs. Longyear's class to whoever would like it.
- I Abbie Herrick bequeath my five cadillacs to driver's education class.
- I Bonnie Hankey bequeath all my study hall passes to Dede Ketcham.
- I Arthur Ivester bequeath my ability to cut up during lunch to Kennie Kendall, and my whistleing to Ray Adkins.
- I Les Jolls bequeath that after I leave that my parking place on the west side of school is left to a Dodge man.
- I Mike Joslin bequeath my number 11, and the excellent relationship with Coach Lincoln Knowles to anyone who deserves them.
- I Beth Johnson bequeath taking dictation in shorthand class to Lyndy Zellner.
- I Dean Johnson bequeath to all juniors the ravishing beauty Miss Opie?
- I Maralyn Johnson bequeath to Sandee Anderson my Spanish book in Hopes that she gets more out of it than I did (which wasn't much)
- I Nancy Jamieson bequeath to the Home Ec. room of Riviera Beach High I have 3 rat traps and hope they work better than the poisoned oats do.
- I Yvette Johnson bequeath 10 lbs. to Renie Balfour.
- I Jerry Janies bequeath Mrs. Longyear my Bob Dylan Poem book.
- I Elizabeth Knowles bequeath all the dishes and cups there are to be washed in Mrs. Levitre's Home Ec. class.

- I Malcolm Phillip Miller I (and only) bequeath my sensuous good looks, scentillating personality, gargantuan intellect, unparalleled physical achievements and jumble manner to my brother who needs all he can get.
- I Patti Mills bequeath one used Contemp. His. Book to Johnny Hammock, one pair of used loafers to Terry Murphy.
- I Gary Marsha bequeath my excuses for being absent to whoever may need them.
- I Michael Moree bequeath Connie to Tom.
- I Pam Mercer bequeath all the happiness and work of my senior year and the too long last six weeks to my "baby" sister Debbie.
- I Melinda Munro bequeath all the fun I lost by not being in any clubs.
- I Richard Munsell bequeath all the dents and scratches on my car to any idiot who drives his car near this school's micro-parking lot.
- I Michael R. Miller bequeath to Mrs. Coila Longyear all souvenirs which I gather when I make my annual homage to Mecca.
- I Jim Mullens bequeath all my fans, and good grades, my parking space and all the empty raisin bran boxes in my locker to Mike Eger.
- I Gary Mc Daniel bequeath all my detentions and my subtracted nine points to S. D. Frankfort. Keep up the fine work in remembrance of me.
- I Jim Mc Keich bequeath two (censored) years with Mr. Watson to anyone who wants them.
- I Rick Mc Masters bequeath my seat in Mr. Watson's Cont. History class to anyone unfortunate enough to get him.
- I Kathy Mc Garry bequeath my ability to learn golf and fall for a two iron to any "new" Senior girl in next years graduating class.
- I Lynn Mc Gilvary bequeath my blue contact lenses along with my Foster Grant's to any poor blind soul with patience and a good sense of humor.
- I Chuck Mc Bride bequeath my english teacher to the Smithsonian Institute or the highest bidder.
- I Bill Nice bequeath my boots and my unique personality to anyone who wants them.
- I Paul Oliver bequeath all my detentions and nine points off to S. D. Frankfort.
- I Louie Odell bequeath my knee brace and 20 pounds to Mike Kenderick.
- I Bruce Ogle bequeath my title as "shop formen" to any underclassmen who has the unique qualifications to fill this position.
- I Dan O' Dwyer bequeath free termite inspection of the school.
- I Mary Owens bequeath all my old book reports to Brenda Ruggles and all my A's in Business Math to the person who sits in my old desk in the future in Miss Reels class.
- I Melinda Odum bequeath my ability at getting caught for skipping and then getting out of it to Nancy Timmons.
- I Renee Orlando bequeath to Sharon Parker my seat in Mrs. Mc Anally's room.
- I Jennifer Parker bequeath to Nancy Timmons my little wet corner in Journalism.
- I Connie Perine bequeath the feature page of the Campus Voice to anyone stupid enough to take it. My dried up tempera's, and my hidden talent to Jeanny Rosenquist in Art II next year. And all my Coast Guard pamphlets to any senior girl who might find them interesting.
- I Drew Poston bequeath all my pink socks that were used all during football season to Larry Quinn and my physics book to Steve Taylor.
- I Chriss Peterson bequeath my place as caddy on the Girl's golf team to anyone who has a strong shoulder.

I Steve Sargent bequeath my laugh to Niki Paras, My walk to Everett Benez and for Tennessee June 2.

I Richard Torde bequeath my parking spot next to the garbage pole to Cliff Caudill.

I Bruce Thörn bequeath the Orchestra to Brigadoon, may it too appear once, ~~in~~ every 100 years.

I Norman Thomas bequeath a sprinkler system that waters the grass not the students.

I Linda Timmons bequeath my airconditioned sneakers for those with hot feet.

I Bruce Wilson bequeath Books - skooB

I Joan Willard bequeath several bottles of tranquilizers to Mr. Goode, to be taken after "Brigadoon"

I Jim Williams bequeath a years supply of OFF bug spray to Miss Opie for her gallatn fight against the insect world.

I Greg Wolfe bequeath HAIR to Riviera Beach High School for the purpose of making the coming student bodies more warm to outsiders.

I Joan Kouns bequeath to Linda Callahan my success in School popularity contests.
with the hopes she will laugh.

I Faith Tupino bequeath my ~~position~~ as captain of the girl's golf team to Noreen Sharpe.

I Susan Bishop bequeath my best times in cheering to Roxy Pope and my seat in Mr. Fossett's history class to anyone speedy enough to keep up with him, and Brian a date to the Prom.

I the typist of these Last Wills and Testaments bequeath the privilege of doing this awful tast next year, and also beg forgiveness of the few(?) errors,

A large handwritten '67' is centered on the page. A long arrow points from the top right towards the '7' of this large '67'. There are several smaller handwritten '67's scattered around the main one: one at the top left, one at the top right, one at the bottom left, one at the bottom center, and one at the bottom right.