

STUDENTS CELEBRATE 'NOEL FRANCAIS'

As Christmas draws near, people all over the world are preparing for the holiday season. In France, as well as in our country, Christmas, or Noel as it is known to Frenchmen, is anticipated enthusiastically by young and old alike.

The students in the French classes here at John Adams learn much about the French celebration of Christmas. French carols are sung, and all come to know of the Pere Noel who is comparable to our Santa Claus. Another character in the French celebration is his counterpart, the Pere Foueltard, who is said to come to the homes of the bad children.

Paris Adorned by Baraques

The pupils become aware of "baraques" which are a feature of Paris at Christmas time. They are small stalls or booths built along the streets where all kinds of knickknacks are sold such as candy, toys, and all the latest novelties. It is like a fair, and the booths are kept up until after New Year's Day.

It has been the custom in past years for the French III classes to apply their knowledge in the form of a Christmas party, in a truly French manner.

"WE WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS AND A HAPPY NEW YEAR" is the greeting of Sue Welber, Gayle Heyn, Wendy Fischgrund, Julie Ebeling, Judy Jacobson, Trully Thompson, Marilyn Rainier, and John Thompson.

JOHN ADAMS HIGH SCHOOL — SOUTH BEND, INDIANA

December 20, 1957

"Twas the Week Before Christmas and All Through the School . . ."

Christmas murals adorning the main halls at Adams are the creations of the Student Council. Beginning their annual project on December 13, the Council is displaying the illustrated story of Clement Moore's "Night Before Christmas."

Hi-Y and Y-Teens have been responsible for the Christmas trees in the halls.

Hi-Y Active For Holiday Season

Local families in unfortunate circumstances will receive special Yuletide gifts from the Adams student body as a result of the Hi-Y's Christmas Goodwill project. Students were asked to contribute canned goods on Monday and Tuesday, Wednesday was "potato day," and a special money collection was taken on Thursday.

The drive, under the chairmanship of Doug Gill, was off to a flying start on Tuesday when six bushel baskets full of canned food were collected.

Post Office

The Hi-Y also played "mailmen" this week. Under the direction of Gene Chamberlain, a mailbox was placed at the Four Corners. Adamsites sent Christmas cards to their friends by placing two Christmas seals on a card bearing the name and homeroom of the card's intended recipient. These cards were then delivered to the homerooms. It was felt that this mailbox plan would encourage the purchase and use of Christmas seals.

Roman 'Eagles' Hold Saturnalia

Miss Gwendolyn Kaczmarek's Latin class saw characters step out of the writings of Cicero and Ovid at their Roman Saturnalia on December 19. They brought gifts for such renowned personages as Daedalus, Silanus, Catiline, and Clymene. Paul Niemeyer and Phyllis Plotkin were co-chairmen for the event.

A style show of Roman fashions, Roman customs, and the portrayal of Roman myths were the activities of Mr. Geo. Earl Carroll's Latin classes as they celebrated the Saturnalia on December 19. The classes also had Roman refreshments and favors. Chairman for the first hour class was Barbara Maculski. Sid Polk and Diane Refner handled the arrangements for the fifth hour, and Brett Morse was chairman for sixth hour.

Committees Plan Celebration

Assisting Barbara in the first hour class were Anne Kluessner, refreshments; Nancy Gerber, decorations; Sandra Weaver, program; Donna Davidson, favors; Sue Altman, cleanup. Fifth hour committee heads include Steve Lumm, Anita Walter, decorations; Kent Hedman, entertainment; Anthony Rachels, program; Larry McCamman, refreshments.

Kathryn May, refreshments; Marilyn Kronewetter, favors; Debbie Opperman, entertainment; Doug Weddle, decorations, and Larry Robison, cleanup, comprise the planning committees for the sixth hour class.

Sponsored by the Adams Hi-Y, Jim Wiseman will be master of ceremonies. The program will include familiar carols played by members of the Adams orchestra under the direction of Mr. Ronald Walton, and group singing led by Larry Thompson.

Pictures of Turkish City On Display in Library

The city of Istanbul, Turkey, can come to life for Adams students through pictures and descriptions on display in the library. Rona Belek, exchange student from Turkey, provided the pictures portraying such sights as street scenes in 16th century Istanbul, the Galata Bridge, the castle of Rumeli Hisari, the Dolmabahce Palace, famous mosques, and even the ultra-modern Istanbul-Hilton Hotel.

AHS Christmas A La Espanol

"Noche de paz, noche de amor . . ." If you happened to pass 213 this week, don't be alarmed by what you heard. It's just the Spanish classes singing Christmas carols.

In each Spanish III class eight pupils were chosen to participate in a "posada," which means, literally, "an inn." The skits took place in the home of a well-to-do Mexican family. The mother had just prepared the nativity scene when some pilgrims came to the door. They were invited in and joined in the singing of carols with the family. After the songfest the pilgrims and the family shared a "pastelito" or cake. The rest of the class, hungry by this time, were served cupcakes and candy canes, donated by members of the class.

Future Nurses Tea Honors New Members

New members of the Future Nurses Club at Adams and their mothers were honored at the Future Nurses Tea. This annual affair was held at 3:30 p.m., Thursday, December 19, in the library. Sponsor of the club is Mrs. Dorothy Chamberlin.

Future Nurses Club members are earning Adams hours by serving trays to patients and feeding helpless patients at St. Joseph Hospital on Wednesday and Thursday after school.

Those who recently received pins are Judy Heston, Bonnie Nemeth, Becky Papandria, Sheila Hoffman, Barbara Maculski, Linda Farian, Mary J. Zellers, Sharon Hendricks, Anita Walter, Donna Diamond, Barbara Leonard, and Judy Singler.

School will be dismissed at 3 p.m., December 20, 1957, for Christmas vacation. Classes will resume at 8:20 a.m., January 6, 1958.

Charity Gives Brotherly Love All Year Round

Charity, like love, is an all-encompassing word. It does not limit itself to a dictionary meaning: generous giving to the poor. It represents to mankind all that is good and pure, something to live by, a way of life.

It does not limit itself to races or religions, for it is a quality belonging, or potentially belonging, to every human being. It is the generosity of the philanthropist, the trusting love and understanding of a child, the ink of a poet's pen, and the greatest combatant of evil forces, love.

It is an everyday thing. We see it occurring at school, in the comradeship of the student body, in courtesy, in student-teacher relationships. We see it work for us in projects which we support, "Share Their Fare," Christmas Seals, and our Korean orphan.

We see it in South Bend. This great little word envelopes, surrounds and invades our city each year, asking for a million dollars . . . and getting it . . . asking for hundreds of workers . . . and getting them. Even if our charity were lost or rejected, we would not lose the tranquility and golden happiness which comes from having given, without expecting something in return.

It seems strange that it takes Christmas to bring out the love of the world. But it is not so hard to understand when one considers the sort of life we lead, busy, hurried, unthinking. Feelings are stored up for "the proper time and place." Fortunately there is a "proper time and place" for all to let themselves go and express the appreciation felt for loved ones, which they have tucked away through the year. Christmas opens those doors, helping us to follow the great command, charity.

DECEMBER REVERIE

Snowflakes, fleecy and fluffy . . . ice skating . . . snow-laden pine trees . . . stars . . . sleighbells ringing. Bitter cold . . . icy roads . . . slush . . . clumsy rubber boots . . . getting up in the cold.

Holly wreaths . . . brightly decorated streets . . . holiday shoppers . . . Christmas carols . . . vacation . . . parties . . . Christmas trees . . . mistletoe . . . the Christ Child's Birthday.

He Sprang to His Sleigh and Yelled, "Oogley, Oogley"

'Twas the night before Christmas and all thru the abode,
Not a reptile was stirring, not even a toad.

The nylons were hung on the chimney real crazy
In hopes Santa would come this eve so hazy.

The kiddies were nestled all snug in their beds
While visions of Jayne danced about in their heads.

When out on the chlorophyll arose a gone sound
And out of the "Posture Pedic" I did abound.

Away to the window I flew like a thrush
And in my face I got some black slush.

When out of the orange colored skies
Popped eight snow eagles to my surprise.

With a little old cabbie so lively and quick
I knew in a moment it was St. Nick.

So fast those John Adams Eagles came
And he whistled and hollered at every name.

Now Masher, Pizza, Sour Cream, and Blintzen,
On Meteor, Cupid, and Vanguard don't sitzen.

To the top of the antenna, to the top of the TV
Dash away, dash away, dads, you send me.

And mad cats, they flew real neat
And they came along with a steady beat.

So up to the chimney top they flew
With toys and, of course, St. Nicky too.

And then in a twinkling I heard in the street
The clapping and crashing of big sloppy feet.

As I pulled in my cranium and turned toward the east
Down the chimney fell a hairy ole beast.

His teeth were like stars, they came out at night.
His cheeks were rosy, he sure was a sight.

His face was covered by a white beard
Oh my gosh, he looked very weird.

He had a broad gluteous maximus, a voice real mellow,
When Nicky laughed it looked like cherry jello.

A wink of his eye and a twitch of his nose
Made me wonder and suppose.

He didn't say anything while at work
I figured he was quite a jerk.

Sticking his finger in his eye
Up the chimney he started to fly.

He sprang to his sleigh and did "oogly, oogly,"
The eagles replied with an "Ushubi Dubi."

And I heard him say as he look leave,
Happy Christmas to all and a merry New Year's Eve.

Drama Clubbers Visit "Big City"

Last Saturday morning 76 sleepy-eyed Drama Clubbers stumbled aboard two super-deluxe buses headed for Chicago. To occupy the two hours between South Bend and Chicago several games of hearts were played. The biggest winner won the gigantic amount of 34c.

Off to Lunch

We arrived at 11:45 and were instructed to remain in the bus station until 2:00. Of course these instructions were followed to a tee. Did you know that the Blackhawk, Marshall Field's Tearoom, and Wimpie's are part of the bus station?

At 2:00 all of us trouped, en mass, to the Shubert Theater to see "My Fair Lady." With our ears popping we climbed five flights of stairs to reach our seats. After being seated we adjusted our high powered, triple lensed telescopic binoculars to find, to our amazement, that those ants below us were people. Thanks to the excellent accoustics in the theater, we were able to enjoy the show, which lived up to every expectation. The sets, costumes and, above all, the action was magnificent.

Bus Time Again

We had about an hour to kill before bus time. So again everyone remained in the station and ate at the new resturants there.

Homeward bound at last. We discovered that our tired 76 had looted the city. Among the loot were several knives, a cream pitcher, boxes of stationary, three used Christmas Seals, and one waitress.

As the clock struck 9:30 our weary group landed at Adams — home to our little beds with fond memories of our trip to the "big city."

Have you seen the long faces?

Woe is us! The last day of school for two weeks — what will we do to while away the time?

All of us are looking forward to the Christmas dances and parties. Suzie Altman and Karen Keller will be especially anxious. By the way, at the last count there were thirteen dances scheduled.

The students of Mrs. McClure's English classes are glad to see her back.

Say, Liz, did you ever get your horse tied to the chair in 106?

Congratulations to the swimming team for their victories over Gary Froebel and Portage. A large audience would be appreciated. Our basketball boys haven't done badly either. Let's all attend the games.

What's "Joers Dry Gook?" It is advertised in one of the Civil War newspapers for U. S. History, but what is it?

Welcome back, Ned Fogarty!!

Mr. Reber has been seen sneaking around with a little camera (6 inches by 1 inch).

Charlie Brown: "Gee, I cut myself shaving."

Sherme: "I didn't know you shaved."

Charlie: "Well, I don't, as a matter of fact, I didn't even cut myself either."

Janet Lovelace, what high class literature you read on buses!

Everyone in the fourth hour history class is terribly fond of that celebrated poem "The Raven," revised by one of its most illustrious members.

Who is Zelta Blackroot?

Mary Ann Haines had a merry birthday party in the cafeteria (cake included). Pat Scott, Joyce Resler, Ilene Schultz, and Dot Sellenburg were the hostesses.

Who will be the recipient of a polar bear rug when Mr. Litweiler and friends finish with it?

Hear the boys (John Bock, Jim Messick, D. J. West, Dave Getzinger, Pep Hirou, Tom Kaiser, Bill Esterline, Jim Downs, and Dan Gregory) had quite a time at Jim Downs' house Friday night.

Did anyone hear any explosions coming from the chemistry room Friday? Many students are minus eardrums.

Anita Walter had an interesting trip to Niles with a certain John last Saturday.

The features in the ALBUM should really be something this year! Are we right, Brian Hedman?

Read the Tower!! An expose of several prominent seniors will be run several weeks after Christmas.

Cookie Mickelson plans to write a sequel to Bridey Murphy.

Who is culprit who keeps putting tomatoes by the TOWER door.

Merry Christmas to all!!!

Christmas Time Around the World

What!!! No Christmas tree this year? No holly? No presents? Woe is me. Wouldn't that be a fine thing if we missed out on all the fine side-lights of this great holiday?

But if we were to suddenly erase all the Christmas traditions we have received from other lands . . . there goes Christmas. For we Americans are a mixture of all nationalities. Germany gave us the fir tree, the Saxons donated holly, the Italians contributed the carol . . . even the idea of celebrating Christmas came from many lands.

Oh, Christmas Tree

Climate differences influenced the manner in which the countries celebrated Christmas. The Germans introduced the Christmas tree which they decorated in honor of the Child. Martin Luther began the custom of lighting candles. Under the influence of Francis of Assisi, the Christmas carol came into being, changing little as it was translated from the Italian, French, German and finally into English.

God Yul

The Scandinavian countries have always had a natural tendency for keeping Christmas because of their location and winter traditions. They prepare weeks in advance for the great holiday, bringing out their special foods and clothes. Special holiday food is given the cattle because of their presence in the Bethlehem stable.

St. Nick

Our Christmas celebration is the Dutch and Belgium "Feast of St. Nicholas." According to legend St. Nicholas was a jolly old churchman who was known for his gift of giving and later became associated with the tradition of giving gifts at the end of the year. It seems he was first adopted in the Netherlands as the children's patron saint.

Santa Claus, a contraction of St. Nicholas, has become a world-wide character, known as Kris Kringle, La Befana, Yule Tontem, and Christkindli.

Buan Natale

The Italian Christmas is a sacred holiday with solemn church service, especially Midnight Mass. The Presepio, or representation of the Nativity is in every home. Members of the family and guests kneel before it and musicians play before it.

In Mexico tradition recreates the journey of Mary and Joseph searching for a resting place. Groups of nine families meet at a house, and go from room to room. Finally coming to the last room (the stable) they sing their thanks.

Whether it is Buan Natale, Feliz Navidad, Un Joyeux Noel, Boas Festas, God Yul, or Merry Christmas, it is the same in any language: Peace on earth, good will toward men.

Tourney to Highlight Holiday Season

On December 27 and 28 the Holiday Tourney will be held in the Adams gym. The Eagles will host Riley, St. Joseph, and Washington. We are the defending champs and have hopes of keeping the crown. The "B" team will also have a holiday tourney held in the afternoon of these nights.

January 7 will see East Chicago Roosevelt come here to play the Eagles. Then on the 9th the Eagles travel to Mishawaka to play the Maroons in a conference game. On January 16 Adams will host the "big, bad Central Bears."

The freshmen travel to Mishawaka on the 9th and will host Riley on the 14th. They will then play Michigan City there on the 16th.

The wrestling team is in a tourney tomorrow with Central, Riley, and Washington - Clay. On January 8 Crown Point comes here and on the 10th the matmen host Howe. On the 14th they travel to Niles.

On January 6 the swimmers travel to Valparaiso and on the 10th LaPorte will come here. So far the swimming team has a 5-0 record.

CAGERS DOWNED FOR SECOND LOSS BY MICHIGAN CITY, 71-56

The hoopsters lost their second game in a row to Michigan City 71-56. After a 4-0 lead at the first the Eagles never saw the lead the rest of the game. This loss brings the overall season record to 3-2 and the conference record to 1-1.

High point man for the game was Schaumann from City with 17 points. Gene Phillips was high for Adams with 12 points. Next were Roland Davis and Jim Rea with 11 points each. Rea saw his first action after missing two games, but McKnight was benched.

The "Pink Imps" beat the "Beagles" 36-30 in an overtime after the final regular-time score was 30-30.

EAGLE SWIMMERS DOWN WALLACE FOR THIRD WIN

On Thursday, December 11, the Gary Lew Wallace swimmers traveled down to the Eagle swimming nest only to go back home clawed 54-32. Tom Olander, Jon Olander and Doug Gill turned in excellent times in winning the 120-yard individual medley, the 40-yard freestyle, and the 200-yard freestyle respectively. This was the respected Eagles' third straight win this year. This year's team is of state championship caliber and hopes are high of bringing home the state trophy on February 22. The attendance at this first home meet was exceptionally poor. There were approximately 20-25 students. The swimmers could lower their times tremendously if a crowd would turn up at the home meets.

The results:

- 40-yd. freestyle—1. J. Olander (A), 2. Jim Wiseman (A). Time :20.0.
- 100-yd. butterfly—1. T. Olander (A), 2. Brandley (A). Time 1:07.1.
- 200-yd. freestyle—1. Gill (A), 2. Fett (A). Time 2:17.0.
- 100-yd. backstroke—1. Hartke (A), 3. Phelps (A). Time 1:06.9.
- 100-yd. freestyle—2. Toepp (A), 3. Kowals (A).
- 100-yd. breaststroke—1. Hammes (A), 3. Reynolds (A). Time 1:23.4.
- Diving—1. Fett (A), 3. Wilson (A).
- 120-yd. medley relay—Lew Wallace.
- 160-yd. freestyle relay—Lew Wallace.

EAGLE MATMEN WIN OVER LA PORTE 32-15

A week ago today the Eagle matmen traveled to East Chicago Roosevelt only to come back beaten 32-16. The 16 points for Adams were won by Joossens, a pin for 5; Mickow, a pin for 5; Cógdell, a decision for 3; and Brandley, a decision for another 3. This was Joossens first varsity match and he pinned his man in 1:41 of his second period.

Wednesday the Eagles won the meet over LaPorte 32-15. Three matches were forfeited to LaPorte for overweight. This accounts for the 15 points. They forfeited two, also because of overweight, and the rest of the matches were won by the Eagles.

Frosh Win First Five Games of Season

The freshman basketball squad has won five straight games this season to go undefeated into the game of yesterday. In their first game the Frosh defeated Washington-Clay 40-24. Then Mishawaka was defeated 35-20. Riley was the third team to fall to the tune of 44-40. Then came St. Joe 38-24. Finally, LaPorte lost 49-47 in an overtime thriller.

The team is comprised of 18 boys all of almost equal depth. This depth is really the secret of the team's success, says Coach Hunter. Doug Combs is one of the more promising, having scored 22 points in the last two games.

Tankers Smash Howe

The Eagles of the swimming team turned back the hopes of an upset victory by Howe Military Academy and whipped the future Colonels by the score of 56-30. The undefeated Eagles scored first in every individual event and gave away the two relays. Outstanding times were turned in by Doug Gill, Tom Olander and Jon Olander. The Eagles are very ably coached by Mr. Joseph Laiber and are expected to place high in the conference and state meets.

The results:

- 40-yd. freestyle—1. Fett (A), 2. Wiseman (A). Time :20.0.
 - 100-yd. butterfly—1. Brandley (A), 3. Reynolds (A). Time 1:09.2.
 - 200-yd. freestyle—1. Gill (A), 3. Toepp (A). Time 2:16.4.
 - 100-yd. backstroke—1. T. Olander (A), 2. Kowals (A). Time 1:05.5.
 - 100-yd. freestyle—1. J. Olander (A), 2. Wiseman (A). Time :59.0.
 - 100-yd. breaststroke—1. Bussee (A), Hammes (A). Time 1:22.0.
 - Diving—1. Fett (A), 3. Wilson (A).
 - 120-yd. individual medley—1. T. Olander (A), 3. Kowals (A). Time 1:18.7.
- The medley and freestyle relays were won by Howe.
