Swim Team Begins Practice

About five weeks ago, the John Adams 1967-68 swim team began to practice. They did exercises for almost a month and then on October 2 they began to work out in the pool. Determined to make this year a repetition of last year, the Seagles swim to perfection each day after school. Even in the mornings the swimmers are up early working out either by swimming or by lifting weights.

When asked what he thought their chances are this year for another undefeated season and state championship, Coach Coar said, "I think they'd like to do the same thing again this year."

With the eleven returning let-terms, the returning swimmers, and the eager freshmen, the John Adams Swim Team will give their opponents a rough time this season.

Helping Coach Coar are Mr. Robert Reed, assistant swim coach, and Jerry Decker and Jim Herreman, co-captains.

They are: Mike Bergran, Leslie Borough, Sue Howard, Phillip Kendall, Marcia Major, Tommie Moore, Debbie Olson, Charmaine Robison, Sue Stahley, and Carol Voyles.

Students Practice for North Central Concert

While most Adams students have a vacation during Teachers' Institute, many of our choir and orchestra students will be involved in the North Central Conference. Twenty-three high schools coming from South Bend, LaPorte, Goshen, Elkhart, and Mishawake will take part in the program.

The guest conductor of the orchestra this year is Mr. Edwyn Hames, who is presently conductor of the South Bend Symphony. Several of the orchestral selections for this year are: "Water Music," by George Handel; "Sound of Music," and "Ballad of Brotherhood," which will be performed by the choir and orchestra together.

Mr. Don Neven, from the University of Wisconsin, will be the guest conductor of the choir this year. Some of the selections the choir plans to use are: "Brigadoon," "Brother John," "Kyrie Eleison," and "Ballad of Brotherhood."

There will be rehearsals at Adams all day Thursday, October 26. That evening, the concert, will be held in the Adams auditorium. Tickets will cost $.50.

MU ALPHA THETA HOLDS INDUCTION

Mu Alpha Theta, the Honorary Mathematics Club, will hold an induction of new members, Wednesday, October 18th, in the home of Mr. Volney Weir, the club's sponsor.

Students must maintain a "B" average during their freshman

Album Awarded Second Place

In the annual yearbook judging, by the National Scholastic Press Association, the 1967 John Adams Album received a second-place rating. Only about one dozen high schools in Indiana receive such a rating.

The National Scholastic Press Association is associated with the University of Minnesota who judges all of its members yearbooks.

The Album is also rated by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, affiliated with Columbia University, but their results have not yet been released.

Pom Pom Girls Chosen for the Band

Something new has been added to the half-time shows starting with the Riley game on October 6: twelve pom pom girls. The captain and coach of these twelve girls is Jackie Scheiman. Jane Paulk, Rhonda Neff, Linda Meilner, Maureen McPhee, Chris Brown, Ellen Barrell, Mary Davis, Annette Krueger, Fran Niespodziany, Ida Phelps, and Pam Hubbard constitute the rest of the group.

Mr. Withrow, who is sponsoring the pom pom girls, commented that he was very pleased with the fine job that the girls were doing, but he also felt a little disappointed that out of the approximately eighty girls who signed up, only twelve were selected to be in the final group. Anyone who is interested in trying out for this group is welcomed at any time.

Pictures Taken for the Album

The Album has started to take pictures of all the clubs at Adams for the activities section this week. All club presidents submitted information on the members and the activities planned for the clubs during the 1967-68 school year. This information will be used in an explanatory paragraph written about each club. Shelley Cossman and Gail Brook are the activity section editors.

Where is Our School Spirit?

Is there anyone at Adams who has any school spirit? I would honestly like to know. The cheerleaders do, of course, and many of the freshmen, but the rest of the student body seems to feel that they are too cool to cheer, or that there is no use in cheering at the games; after all, the players can't hear them. I pity the poor B Team cheerleaders who must cheer in the football stands and try to make the spectators cheer; they get little, if any response to their cries of, "C'mon, cheer!" You know, of course, that if these cheerleaders weren't in the stands, the student spectators would complain because they couldn't hear the cheers.

Another bored group at pep assemblies are the lettermen. The general opinion of Adams' letter sweater wearers seems to be: Why should I cheer for the football or basketball players? I'm a swimmer, or I'm a baseball player. Big deal! The girls cheer, don't they? You never see them out playing football on school field or basketball in the gymnasium. There is also another side to this story, however. How many football or basketball players go to swimming, wrestling, or track meets unless they are on those teams? Why is it that we always schedule pep assemblies for football and basketball, but never for track, or any of the other sports we have at John Adams? We have a swim team which won the state championship, and a tennis team that won the sectional; why don't we ever show our appreciation to them for the efforts they expend trying to win these titles? It seems unfair. If they get discouraged sometimes, it is no wonder.

I certainly hope that someone cares enough to answer these questions. The TOWER informed me that they will print any letters that are given them.

A Disheartened Booster

The "God" of the Weak Man

Are you weak kneed and unable to stand by yourself and have to depend upon a paper "God" known as a cigarette? If you take one of those weeds out and take a close look at it you will find your "God". Here in a piece of paper is wrapped some tobacco, and you devour it whenever you are a little nervous or when tension builds up. You are a six foot person and something possibly 100 millimeters long has control of you. "I can stop whenever I want to," you say. Just try to put your little "God" away and you will see just how hard it is to quit.

With all the medical evidence today, one would think the facts would scare all smokers. According to the findings of the Reader's Digest magazine "cigarette smoking is a health hazard of sufficient importance in the United States to require appropriate remedial action." Here are some of the findings published in a report from the Herald Tribune.

Cigarette smoking greatly reduces lung function. Breathlessness is far more prevalent among smokers than non-smokers.

Women who smoke during pregnancy tend to have babies who are under weight at birth.

Now that you have read these facts take a look at your hands and teeth. Notice their color. If you have been smoking a long time you will notice that they have a walnut color. If your hands are not brown yet you have something to look forward to in the future.

A little known fact about tobacco is that the Pilgrims used the weed for poison. This same poison is killing 100 people a day in the United States.

Many people who have stopped smoking say the only thing they regret about smoking is that they didn't stop sooner.

Is this little piece of paper and weed going to be your "God"? Always remember that no one ever died from the lack of tobacco. The worst that can happen to you is annoyance, for which you are repaid by a better wind and pulse, and a mouth that doesn't taste like glue.

"Extension" No Longer Exists

The I.U. Extension has ceased to be. With the graduation of the first senior class last June we now have the South Bend-Mishawaka Campus of Indiana University providing many of the benefits of the Bloomington Campus.

This year the size of the local full time faculty has reached the figure 73, a net gain of 23 from last year. The professors are chosen on the same basis as the downstate faculty. "There are no second rate people here," cites Mr. Thomas White, the bright young public relations director of the Campus.

The courses at the South Bend-Mishawaka Campus are identical to the courses at Bloomington. They are intended for:

(a) the student working for a bachelors degree in English, history, elementary education, or in certain fields of business where one may complete all requirements at the South Bend-Mishawaka Campus,

(b) the young high school graduate who wishes to attend college on a full time basis in his home locality,

(c) the high school graduate---young or old---who wishes to work toward a college degree but whose responsibilities oblige him to take college classes on a part time basis,

(d) the adult non-degree student who desires to take college courses for self-improvement of his job status, or simply to satisfy his desire to continue formal education,

(e) the student who may be working for a degree at another campus and who finds it convenient to take part of his work nearer home, and

(f) the student who wishes to take courses applicable to graduate degrees.

This year most of the 3,027 students at the South Bend-Mishawaka Campus are on a four year business or education course. These courses cost 600 dollars per year, not including clothing, travel, entertainment, and personal items.

The South Bend-Mishawaka Campus has a variety of student organizations in which all students are encouraged to participate. These include a Student Senate, a chapter of the Student National Education Association, Alpha Lambda Sorority, forensics, music and theatre, Spectrum, the Campus newspaper, and Realm, a literary quarterly.

Many dramatic, musical, and special events are presented each year, enhancing the full cultural intellectual development of each student. These events, many of which are free, are open to the public.

vatin, Brad Magee, Bob Syburg, Mary Clemens, Ruth Ann Goldner, Karen Urbacke, Howard Berman, Tim Williams, Maureen McPhee, Tom Schragger, John Ford, and Vincent Fragomeni, juniors.

The induction will be conducted by the president Craig Steinke after which punch and cookies will be served.

EAGLE OF THE WEEK

Mollie Sandock, the honored student this week, is also an honor student, having one of the highest scholastic standings at Adams. Through her fine scholastic average, she has brought recognition to herself and to Adams, especially through the fact that she is a National Merit Semi-Finalist.

Mollie Sandock

Mollie has also been an active contributor to the John Adams drama club. Presently, she is student director of "Earnest in Love," in addition to playing a minor lead in this musical production. Earlier this year, Mollie was chairman of the drama club car wash.

While drama club takes up much of her time, Mollie is also in Thespians, National Honor Society, and is vice president of the Math Club.

For relaxation, Mollie enjoys playing the piano and reading. Concerning the future, she has no definite plans, but hopes to major in English at Radcliffe, Pembroke, the University of Chicago, or the University of Michigan.

C.E.D. Sponsors Christmas Sales Training Program

Again this year, the Cooperative Education Division of the South Bend Community School Corporation is sponsoring its annual Christmas Sales Training program. The course is for students, 16 years of age or older, who wish to prepare for employment during the Christmas season.

Although employment cannot be assured, the Indiana Employment Service will test, interview, take job applications, and assist in making job placements. Last year, 151 students enrolled from area high schools; 130 of them completed the course, and 82 were given positions by the Indiana Employment Service.

All interested students should register free of charge at the Central High School Auditorium from 4:00 to 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, October 17. A general session will follow registration from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. Five sessions will follow on October 18, 24, 25, 31, and November 1. All sessions will be at Central from 4:00 to 5:30 p.m.

Training will include: How to Get the Job, How to Sell, Personal Appearance, and Grooming.

For additional information, telephone the Cooperative Education Office at 234-8141, extension 206.

Don't forget to buy your tickets for the fall play, "Earnest in Love". They may be purchased from any Drama Club Member.

WHO SAID PIZZA SALES ARE BORING?

It is common knowledge that the Adams Band staged a pizza sale a couple of Saturdays ago. You have, no doubt, heard many things about it. You have heard all the dry facts about how many they made and other such boring topics. Most likely, though, you have not heard what really went on that bright, sunny afternoon.

what they are doing. If they don't they always find a sensible, logical way of figuring out what to do or where to go. GARY DARE did it by flipping a coin. It only worked twice all day, but he never got discouraged.

Oops! There goes another one.

Things out of the ordinary always happen. Two pizzas were crushed. One of them was sat on by GREG POWERS and the other was stepped on in JEFF NOBLE'S car. There was also the time that SHELLEY NATKOW went up to a house and the man answered the door, only to say that he did not order a pizza. It ended up that she was on North Tuxedo not South Tuxedo.

People are just so knowledgeable of what is going on in the world. Mr. Myers fought for ten minutes with one of the band members because he was sure he was not supposed to receive a pizza. He just couldn't realize that his wife, Mrs. Margaret Myers the Tower sponsor ordered one.

When you think back on it you realize that much was accomplished. JEFF NOBLE put 120 miles on his car. It took JOAN NUGENT and TIM SHULA two hours to deliver a pizza. They claim they could not find the house, but we all know differently.

There is a lot more to that sunny afternoon, but it is now very dark. If you want to support fun loving kids buy a band pizza next time you are asked.

Jerry Parker's LION'S DEN, So. Bend, Ind., has been designated a "Scene Stylesville Store" by G. Q. Scene, the magazine for teen men. Just a few doors

Early one Sunday morning, an innocent and unsuspecting Mr. Carroll awoke to discover his house beautifully decorated with pastel and flowered toilet paper. Beware members of the faculty, for you may be next.

It has been debated lately as to who has the larger waist; John Ford or Becky Lindsay. One thing we do know though, is that Becky has more hair on her legs.

One of the students in Mr. Reber's second hour chemistry class, brought an old album of Adams and showed Mr. Reber his picture. Mr. Reber remarked that he "had just as much hair then as now. He simply got a crew cut and the crew bailed out."

Mrs. Gadomski admitted to her fourth year Latin students that she spent over a half hour one morning going absolutely nutty looking for her glasses to take to school. When she got to school, she found they were in her purse all the time.

When Mr. Kline's sixth hour English class becomes a little too boring, Andy Nielsen and Alan Ein resort to knuckle cracking contests. One Friday, Alan discovered he had ten toes he could crack to beat Andy. Mr. Kline, realizing they were very skillful, asked them to demonstrate their talent in front of the class. To this, Andy remarked, "I'm all cracked out."

Who was it that lost her shoe marching down field in band practice? Judy Huff sure looked funny doing fancy footwork with one shoe off and one shoe on.

Norm Melick walked out of Mr. Holmgren's first hour speech class with a broken heart. For years now, Tim Bath has promised to take him frog hunting and Norm thought finally the big day had come. Tim shattered all his hopes and dreams by telling him the frog season was over and they would have to wait until next spring. Poor Norm, better luck next time.

It all started at six-thirty in the morning. The pizza committee staggered into the school, very bright and ready to go to work. They organized the cafeteria, so that at nine, when the doors were just busted open with people wanting to work, the assembly lines would be ready.

Keep Working.

There are things which hold up the production lines a little bit. You always seem to run out of everything you need. For example, when one line ran out of cheese about eight people helped to crush a bag full of mozaralli. Sixteen hands make the job go much faster. Also there was the time that GREG POWERS lost his watch in a pizza. If you happen to find it please send it back to him.

What's this! The leaning tower of Pizza.

After the pizzas are all nicely put into boxes and stacked high on tables, the job is half over. All of our manpower now turned to delivery. We even let Mr. Withrow and Mr. Shafer help by letting them deliver out in Mishawaka. Now wasn't that nice of us?

Band members always know exactly where they are going and

Mrs. Liebeler Named Youth Page Editor

Mrs. D. Liebeler

Mrs. Dolores Liebeler, the mother of four, has been appointed as the youth page editor for the South Bend Tribune. She now is the "press" for Adams students. She has had tremendous experience with teen agers; her second oldest child, Carol, is a senior here at Adams.

Originally Mrs. Liebeler came from Willmar Minnesota, a town about the size of LaPorte, near Minneapolis. She attended the University of Minnesota, and came to South Bend in 1960. Mrs. Liebeler believes that much is geared to today's youth. She finds the work stimulating with the bright youngsters. "They have a lot to offer."

She will publish any controversial material as long as it is in good taste.

Teens can voice their opinions on any subject, and if they wish, their names don't have to be put in the paper. Mrs. Liebeler would like to see more creativity on the page, not just dry facts.

Mrs. Liebeler lives in this school district. When asked about her opinion of Adams she said, "An excellent school."

Two busloads of juniors left at five o'clock AM for the first of three excursions to Dearborn, Michigan.

ADAMS to TEST LAPORTE TONIGHT

Eagles Try to Rebound from Two Setbacks

by Kurt Heinz

Tonight Coach Jerry Planutis' Eagles take their 3-2 record to LaPorte who will be out to avenge last year's 14-13 loss to the Eagles in a most thrilling game. LaPorte's record is now 3-3.

Adams chances for retaining their N.I.C. crown suffered a severe blow last Friday when they lost to Riley, 21-20.

Score Quickly

Three plays after the opening kickoff, Adams recovered a Riley fumble on the Wildcat 20. Jay Zimpelman later scored on a 2 yard run. Paul Shapiro added the extra point and Adams led 7-0 with 8:49 left in the first quarter.

In the second period, Riley marched 99 yards in five plays with John Parsons going over for the final yard. But the score was not tied for very long.

Score Tied

Ken Ivory then capped a 60 yard drive with a 3 yard run. Again Shapiro kicked the PAT to give Adams a 14-7 lead. Riley bounced right back scoring on a 3 yard pass to put the score at 14-14 as the half ended.

In the third quarter, Adams successfully executed a 52 yard drive with Zimpelman running the final 10 yards up the middle for the score. On the extra point try, the pass from center was low and Bert Fleming tried unsuccessfully to run it over.

Time Runs Out

In the fourth quarter, Riley scored on a 3 yard run. Bob Lyons kicked the extra point and Riley held a 21-20 lead. In the closing minutes, Tom Kruyer recovered a Riley fumble on the Adams 13. Sayers hit Mike McGann on a bomb but the clock ran out as the Eagles suffered their second straight setback.

NETTERS TAKE TWO; B-TEAMS SPLITS

by Mark Bravin

The South Bend Sectional Tennis champs of John Adams fought well last week as they clashed with Washington on Tuesday and Mishawaka on Thursday of last week.

Beat Washington

Against Washington, Sectional singles champion Mike True defeated Ed Brooks 6-3, 6-2, while his doubles partner Dave Beatty beat his man Tim Cyman 6-1, 6-0. Chris Chrapek, the only player from Washington to win his match, took Dennis Kelly in a very close one 7-5, 6-4. Bob Brickley beat Jerry Ranz 6-3, 6-0; and Dave Woo beat Roy Baker 6-4, 6-1. True and Beatty crushed Cyman and Ranz in the only doubles match 6-0, 6-2. Team score: Adams 5, Washington 1.

Upset Doubles Champs

The highlight of the Adams-Mishawaka match was the upset of Mishawaka's first doubles team by True and Beatty. In the Sectionals, True and Beatty lost to a team which they beat 6-3, 6-0 on Thursday. Adams took 4 of 5 singles matches with Bob Brickley's match being the only defeat. Brickley and Dennis Kelly lost to Mishawaka's second doubles team in a pro set, 9-5.

B-Team Played 2

The B-team netters played host to Jackson and neatly crushed their opponents 9-1. On Thursday they were visited by Mishawaka and were defeated 6-1. Members of the B-team are: Paul Woo, John Brickley, Al Murdock, Mark Bravin, Rann Schultz, Ron Reisman, Bob Syburg, and Kurt Kaufman.

by Howard Berman

After rather disappointing performances in their last two games, Coach Planutis' Eagles should bounce back strongly. This game means very much towards the NIC race.

***

Good luck to Coach Poe's runners in the city meet next week as they will try to bring home the winning trophy.

And who is Coach Moe shooting now?

Harriers Suffer First Defeats

by Alan Hartwick

Next week, the harriers of John Adams will participate in the annual city meet at Pinhook Park. The Adams cross-country runners fell to Goshen and Michigan City ending an eleven meet winning streak. The Eagles were beaten 22-33 by Goshen and 25-30 by City on the Redskins home course in a triangular meet.

Bill Manuszak was the first Adams man to cross the finish line. He received a fourth place ribbon. Lloyd LeCount of Goshen was first and City's Mike Schepanek and Gary Schroeder were second and third.

Frosh Streak at 5

by Wesley Dixon

Next Thursday, the freshman football team will be going after their sixth victory when they encounter the Washington Panthers.

Last Wednesday, the team defeated Clay for their fifth win in a row with no defeats. Rick Newbill and Dick Hawkins scored the touchdowns for Adams. Rick Madison ran both extra points. The final score was 14-0.

Michigan City Ties Beagles

Monday, Coach Buczkowski's B-team will play host to the LaPorte Slicers behind the school.

Last week, the Beagles played the Michigan City reserves to a 20-20 draw. Jay Zimpelman, who was recovering from a knee operation played in the game to test his knee and led the Beagle scoring attack three times.

The Devils drew first blood scoring on a 15 yard pass and then ran for the extra point. Zimpelman then scored from the 4 and again from the 1. Scott Jordan kicked both extra points and the Beagles led 14-7. City bounced back with a 6- yard touchdown pass to put the score at 14-13. Zimpelman scored from the 2 to put Adams ahead 20-13 at halftime.

In the second half, City scored on a 1 yard plunge and passed for the extra point as the game ended a 20-20 tie. The B-team record is now 4-0-1.
