

MIDDLE SCHOOLERS TAKE OVER SAINT PETER'S PREP

Middle Schoolers Take Over Grand & Warren

As Prep students were away from campus Wednesday for Prep Day and Freshman Arts Day, a new generation of potential Prep men took their place for the day. Some 60 middle school students from seventeen Catholic, private, and charter schools gathered for Prep's 5th Annual Middle School Leadership Conference.

Major themes of the day included identifying one's leadership style, working collaboratively, identifying weaknesses, and setting goals. The workshop was conducted by juniors and seniors from Prep's Ignatian Leadership Team, under the direction of Mr. Juan Arteaga (pictured), Ms. Trish Fitzpatrick, P'07,'16, and Mr. John Irvine, '83, P'11.

At the conclusion of the day, middle school girls and a team from Saint Dominic Academy ventured across town to Prep, for lunch and for a prayer service with Prep's president, Fr. Ken Boller, S.J.
