Reunion dinner was held here.

After an elaborate dinner, Georgetown apparently couldn't afford to give us SPP calibre "Golden Diplomas".

But we did get a gold medal.

Update

Jim Barry, who graduated with us, died in March 2015. A great basketball player, he was inducted into the Georgetown Hall of Fame in 1976. "To this day, Jim holds the scoring record set in 1965 at Georgetown for most points in a game (46)." After Georgetown, Jim graduated from Seton Hall Law School and retired from private practice in 2010. See website of O'Brien's Funeral Home, Brick, New Jersey, for full obituary. — Tom Carroll

Because of Jim's knee injury, he graduated with us in '66.

Tom Carroll was one of Jim's teammates.

He was unable to be with us to join in our celebration because it conflicted with the Cristo Rey graduation.
