Prep. Slates Father-Son Awards Fete

The first Hudson County showing of this year's World Series films will be shown at the annual St. Peter's father - son sports award breakfast Sunday morning following the 8 o'clock mass in the school cafeteria.

The highlights of the New York Yankee triumph over the Cincinnati Reds will be shown while Frank O'Rourke, head scout for the Yankees, looks on at the awards affair.

A HOST OF scholastic athletes will be on hand. Each St. Peter's student is invited to bring his father along as guest of the parish Holy Name Society.

Len Zdanowicz, Hudson County back of the year, St. Peter's Prep and Villanova football star Lou Rettino, who scored the winning touchdown for Villanova in the Sun Bowl against Wichita, and Bill McCarren, scout of the Red Sox, will join O'Rourke along with Hank Morganweck, former International League baseball umpire.

Brass Gets Shakeup Jitters Streamlining Of Army Due

By CHARLES CORDDRY
WASHINGTON (UPI)—The administration soon will announce plans for a giant shakeup in the Army Department — an undertaking so controversial that a former defense secretary once compared it with the pain of backing into a buzz-saw.
Developed at Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara's direction and approved by President Kennedy, the reorganization will deal a blow to long-entrenched Army agencies and set a flock of officers to worrying about old traditions and new assignments.

Opposition Certain
Kennedy may comment on the long-pending overhaul at his news conference Monday. Details have been leaking out for weeks. The authoritative Army - Navy - Air Force Journal published more today and commented that the reorganization "already has drawn sharp protests from a number of

One Out Window Irate Husband Accused Of Shooting Wife's Guest

A Jersey City man accused of wounding his wife's visitor with a volley from a 20-gauge shotgun was due in Municipal Court today for arraignment.
The wounded man, his lower back peppered with pellets also injured his ankle when he dropped from a third-floor window last night following the shooting.
When police arrived, they charged Jackie Bails, 23, of 579 Grand St., Jersey City, with atrocious assault and battery and assault with a deadly weapon.
Then they took Carl Brooks, 22, of 248 Halladay St., Jersey City, to the Medical Center, where he was treated for buckshot wounds and released.
Brooks was visiting Bails' 18-year-old wife, Ruthie, at her mother's apartment, which is connected to the Bails' apartment by a bathroom, police said.
The three, in the presence of Mrs. Bails' parents, argued earlier in the night, police said. In a fit of anger, Bails disappeared through the connecting door.
Minutes later, he reportedly fired through the door, wounding Brooks, who then jumped from the window to hail police.

FBI Nabs 3 with Him In Bayonne Victim Dumped In North Bergen

Harold Kayo) Konigsberg, 34, freed by a Hudson County jury last February on a murder charge, was back behind bars again today.
Konigsberg, 34, of 506 Avenue A, Bayonne, and three other men were arrested by FBI agents last night in a garage at 15 W. 22nd St., Bayonne. They face a federal charge of receiving stolen goods.

Warm-up Hints Nice Weekend

A nice winter weekend, with a few clouds and temperatures a few notches above freezing, is predicted for Hudson and Bergen Counties.
While a warming trend set in today, the temperature before dawn was one degree colder than yesterday's low of 14.
More Cold Next Week

It Happens Wrong Numbers

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — Police asked Charles Manghan for his driver's license when he was stopped for speeding. "Is this what you want?" asked Manghan, nervously pulling some papers from his wallet.
Manghan had pulled out 23 numbers slips. A lottery charge was filed against him as well as a speeding violation.

Today's Good Deed

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — Even a couple of ducks did not know how to weather Louisiana's coldest wave of the century. Two quackers were frozen solid in a park pond.
Two Parkway Commission employees chopped the ducks out of the pond, scraped the ice off the birds and placed them next to a greenhouse boiler.
The ducks are recovering.

Feller Best Bet to Earn Niche in Hall of Fame

By STEVE SNIDER

Bob Feller figures to make it if anyone does.

He's the top candidate as veteran baseball writers cast their ballots in an effort to elect one or more worthy "old-timers" to the Hall of Fame at Cooperstown, N. Y., for the first time since 1936.

Feller, Jackie Robinson and Phil Rizzuto, who retired from the majors in 1956, became eligible for election this year and they're being considered along with a flock of other stars of an earlier era who haven't yet picked up enough votes for admission.

The writers are pretty choosy — and that's as it should be. Even Joe DiMaggio wasn't elected the first time around but Feller seems to have an excellent chance of hitting in his first "at bat."

The one-time Iowa farmboy who won 26 games for the Cleveland Indians despite four seasons lost during World War II, goes on our ballot along with the highly controversial Robinson, Edgar (Sam) Rice, Hack Wilson, Burleigh Grimes, Joe Medwick, Luke Appling and Red Ruffing.

Hollywood

This is the full-size Newport 4-door Sedan.

CHRYSLER $2,964*

Newport, the full-size Chrysler, is still the one to check if you're looking for real value.

Newport's the car that's helped Chrysler off to a rocketing sales success so far this 1962 model year. It still surprises people that so much car can be priced so modestly.

Newport, with full-size 122-inch wheelbase, sits on a road like it costs a thousand or so more. It serves up six-person comfort with an interior that's richly trimmed and fitted with typical Chrysler finesse. Obviously, this is no jr.'edition.

Newport's beautifully engineered. Torsion-bar suspension holds it flat and steady in the corners. Its big Firebolt V-8 engine delivers 265 horsepower on a surprisingly small ration of regular gasoline.

Yet, Newport's price is pegged down where it's still the surprise of 1962. As much a surprise as the high trade-in offer your Chrysler dealer is ready to make.

Taxes, Taxes, Taxes

This is the season of budgets and tax talk.

Most frightening is the Chamber of Commerce prediction that Jersey City's tax rate may rise to an unprecedented level — above $120.

Most intriguing is President Kennedy's suggestion that he be given power to reduce income taxes in times of stress.

Most likely: That in 1962 taxes will make everyone unhappy.
