Two Fair Lawn traffic accidents took the lives of a man and a boy during the past 24 hours.

Janusz Sirminski, 11, of 34-34 11th St., was killed yesterday on his way home from St. Catherine's School, when a tractor-trailer tipped over and crushed him.

Leonard K. Souler of Glen Rock died today after his car crashed into a pole.

POLICE SAID a truck driver, David Spambato, 24, of Providence, R. I., told them the Sirminski boy was pushing a bicycle in his road. The truck turned over when Spambato tried to swerve and miss the boy, he said.

Spambato is in fair condition in St. Joseph's Hospital, Paterson, with internal injuries. Police said they would charge him with causing death by auto when he is released from the hospital.

SQUIER, 31, of Glen Rock, was fatally injured when his car ran off Mecht Avenue and crashed into a pole near 17th Street.

He died a half hour after being admitted to Barrett Hospital in Paterson. Police said Squier was en route to work at the Walter Kidde plant in Belleville when the accident occurred.

A Jersey City woman whose purse containing $82 was snatched from her hands as she waited for a bus, had it safely in her possession again today after a fast-moving series of events that included a stolen car chase.

Mrs. Loreta Duddy, 55, of 386 Pavonia Ave., told police she was standing at Pavonia Avenue and Erie Street when a car drove up, a young boy jumped out, grabbed her pocketbook and then leaped back into the car and sped away.

Mrs. Duddy caught the license number and telephoned police. Ten minutes later Patrolmen Louis De George and Joseph Chap-

Two orderlies at Christ Hospital, and a pal were killed today when their speeding auto slammed into a concrete wall and two light poles off Lincoln Highway in Kearny.

The dead, all residents of Jersey City, were the driver, Leonard Richardson, 27, of 418 Jackson Ave., and his passengers, James E. Drummond, 22, of 732 Ocean Ave., and Joe Willy Beale, 21, of 3 Madison Ave.

A FOURTH passenger, Monroe Addison, 20, also of 3 Madison Ave., escaped serious injury.

All but Beale were orderlies. Hudson County police said Addison told them he was asleep at the time of the crash.

All four men were thrown from the demolished vehicle. Police speculated that Addison's miraculous escape was because he was relaxed in sleep during the impact.

ADDISON told police that he and his friends were returning from an evening in Newark when the accident occurred at 3:30 a.m. He was treated for wrist and head cuts at West Hudson Hospital, then questioned and released.

Police said Addison appeared to be "completely stunned" by the accident. They described him as HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Marilyn Monroe, who gained national prominence as a nude calendar girl, enhanced her standing as Hollywood's No. 1 glamor girl this week by splashing in the altogether for a swimming scene in her latest movie.

Marilyn stripped to the buff on orders from director George Cukor for a swimming pool scene in "Something's Got to Give."

Something did — Marilyn's flesh colored swim suit.

"I HAD BEEN wearing the suit, but it concealed too much," she said "And it would have looked wrong on the screen."

"It's the first time I've ever worked in a movie without any clothes on. The set was closed, all except for members of the crew who were very sweet. I told them to close their eyes or turn their backs, and I think they all did."

Cukor, a calendar fan, said Marilyn's figure was better than it was at the time the calendar was published.

MISS MONROE, giggling like a school girl, said it took almost all day to shoot the scene. Her co-star, Dean Martin, was absent.

"I think he was out playing golf," Marilyn said.

Welcome Tomorrow

More Tests for Scott, And Then Skin-Diving

GRAND TURK ISLAND, Bahamas (UPI)—Scott Carpenter, who returned healthy, hungry and alert from three orbits of the earth, hoped to finish telling eager scientists today about his experiences in space, with time out for some of his beloved skin-diving.

Tomorrow the nation's new space hero returns to Cape Canaveral for a welcoming parade and a reunion with his wife, Rene, and their four children.

Dates with Doctors

Today more long sessions with doctors and engineers were scheduled in the little tracking station hospital that has served as "de-briefing" center for the U.S. orbital space flight program.

But Carpenter hoped to take a break during the day to get in some skin-diving over the coral beds off this Bahamian island. When he was here in February to assist in de-briefing fellow astronaut John Glenn, Carpenter, an expert diver, helped save the life

ATLANTIC CITY (UPI)—George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, blamed the National Association of Manufacturers yesterday for failure to solve the unemployment problem. He said reduction of the work week to 35 hours would "have a tremendous impact" on the economic growth.

Bishop Sheen Writes

Humans Without God Are Mostly Inhuman

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

What often passes as religion is nothing but ethics and natural morality. Religion as a Divine force implies something that is non-human; namely, a gift from above which can be accepted or rejected. God in some way enlightens the mind to see a truth that was never seen before; He strengthens the will to do things about it that were never done before, thus setting before us motives which will persuade the will to accept what is freely given. This gift is called grace, because gratis.

The grace of God is like the light of the sun which is outside the window. If the blinds of our will are down, or if the windows are dirty because of our behavior, the light will not come in. Human cooperation is, therefore, essential for the entering into a higher and Diviner life than the merely human. All this is a very mysterious and slow process. In the springtime the fields are arrayed in their beautiful vesture, but one cannot see the power of God raising the sap through root and fibre, along stem and branch and unfolding each bud and blossom.

Yanks' Houk Not Fazed By 'Sophomore Jinx'

By STEVE SNIDER

Manager Ralph Houk of the Yankees, who won a pennant and World Series as a rookie pilot last year, is running into the "sophomore jinx" . . . Injuries have hit Mickey Mantle, Luis Arroyo, Whitey Ford, Clete Boyer, Yogi Berra and Bill Stafford, among others . . . In addition, Elston Howard and Moose Skowron haven't been hitting much more than their weight.

Is Houk worried? . . . "No more than usual," he says with a familiar twinkle in his eyes. "Not as long as those kids (rookie replacements) are delivering."

DON FLEMING of the Cleveland Browns has a dandy off-season job—for a pro defensive halfback . . . He's building bomb shelters in Florida.

John Thomas, Boston U.'s ace high jumper, entered not only his specialty but also the 120-yard high hurdles and broad jump in the ICMA track and field championships at Philadelphia this weekend . . . He won all three events in the New England collegiates last week.

Indianapolis Speedway expects a radio hook-up of nearly 500 stations for a lap-by-lap description of the 500-mile auto race on Memorial Day . . . New York City, as usual and unfortunately, isn't in on it . . . California, Indiana, Illinois, Pennsylvania and Texas will give the largest coverage . . . No live television is planned.

Paul Dickinson of Lisbon, N. H., who gave up golf in 1900 and resumed in 1950, now can shoot his age . . . He is 74.

Circus in Town!

In case you missed those opening day performances, that wonderful world of the circus, which has gladdened the hearts of youngsters for generations, blazes to life again this afternoon and tonight at Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium. Other performances are scheduled for tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock and tomorrow evening at eight.

It is best to be on hand early before the curtain goes up on the clowns, the animal acts, the music—on all the traditional pulse-quickenning excitement, fanfare and glamor of the big top. As assurance everyone will enjoy it, a roster of popular, name entertainers will perform, too.

The cause—the Red Feather—is a good one. What better way for the young to enjoy themselves, or for the more mature to be young again, than to head for Roosevelt Stadium this weekend?
