

Gentlemen (Golfers and Chow Hounds),

Yesterday was our Pride and Glory '62 PGA Championship final event of the season. The weather was fantastic, the golf was stupendous, but the 19th hole luncheon was beyond words. Seeing all those present made the hard work of the Committee more than worthwhile.

The Tiki Bar special on the menu once again was "Busting Chops". They were, I might add, done just right. We even had distinguished Hudson County lawyer Jake O'Halloran on site to adjudicate any and all disputes. Our accountant of record Vince McFadden verified all scores and for this we are thankful.

Here are the final standings for the 2017 season. The top five finishers are:

- ★ Gene Boyle 5th with 160 P&G points,
- ★ Lou Cuccaro 4th with 190 P&G points,
- ★ Jake O'Halloran 3rd with 200 P&G points,
- ★ Bob Doherty 2nd with 250 P&G points
- ★ and our 2017 Pride & Glory champ:
- ★ Rick Baker with 280 P&G points.

Rick got to take home the priceless Championship Cup, but there are about 20 guys who will be attempting to take it away from him in 2018.

Once again it was a fun filled day and seeing all of you enjoy yourselves made it a great day for the Committee and especially for me. Thanks again and remember to always keep your eyes on the ball.

The Commish
Danny M.
