Prep Introduces Women's History Month Speaker Series

This March, Prep will celebrate Women's History Month with two guest lectures in the Siperstein Library. First, on March 2, we will welcome Eileen Markey, author of A Radical Faith: The Assassination of Sister Maura. Then, on March 9, we will be joined by former U.S. Olympian and president and general manager of the WNBA's New York Liberty, Carol Blazejowski, P'17.

Thursday, March 2 - 6:30 p.m.

The Faith and Feminism of Maura Clarke

Guest Speaker: Eileen Markey

Ms. Markey is an investigative journalist whose work has appeared in the New York Times, New York Magazine, Wall Street Journal, National Catholic Reporter, America, and Commonweal. She has worked as a producer for WNYC's Brian Lehrer Show and is a contributing editor for Housing and Homelessness at City Limits. She will speak about the life and faith of Sister Maura Clarke, a Maryknoll nun who was murdered in 1980 with three other church women – Sister Dorothy Kazel, Sister Ita Ford, and Jean Donovan – by a Salvadoran death squad.

Thursday, March 2 - 4:30 p.m.

A Woman's Journey in Sports

Guest Speaker: Carol Blazejowski, P'17

Ms. Blazejowski, P'17 is a trailblazing women's basketball player who served as captain of the U.S. women's Olympic basketball team and was later inducted into the National Basketball Hall of Fame. She spent 14 highly successful years as president and general manager of the WNBA's New York Liberty, and served as the NBA's director of women's basketball programs. She currently oversees communications, marketing, community relations and events at her alma mater, Montclair State University.
