St. Peter's Prep baseball overcomes rough start to defeat Hudson Catholic

By Brandon Gould/The Jersey Journal
on April 16, 2014

After watching a pair of runs come around to score early in today's contest against Hudson Catholic, catcher Nick Camilleri was determined to get St. Peter's Prep back in the game.

The junior dug in at the plate and drove in a couple of runs to start a two-out rally that set the pace in a back-and-forth, 8-4 victory over the rival Hawks at Caven Point in Jersey City.

"When I got up, I had confidence in myself to get the ball in play and give us a chance to tie the game," said Camilleri, who also scored a run in the win. "This is one of the toughest teams in the state and even though we might not have the most talent, I think we're an aggressive team that can grind it out even when we're not at our best.

Although it was early, the Marauders (9-1-1), ranked No. 8 in The Star-Ledger Top 20, needed a lift after falling behind 2-0 to Hudson Catholic (6-4) thanks to some defensive miscues in the first frame.

And Camilleri did not disappoint as he drove in Corey Caddle and T.J. Ward with two away to kickstart the offense. The junior would also score later in the inning on a single courtesy of first baseman Dan Cooney to put the Marauders in front, 3-2.

“This game showed that we can handle adversity,” said St. Peter’s Prep coach Pat Laguerre, whose team erased 2-0 and 4-3 deficits on its way to victory. “We experienced that early on when we weren’t playing our best and let our emotions get the best of us.

“Give Hudson Catholic credit though, they’re well-coached, they come ready to play and it’s never easy against those guys.”

Led by shortstop Chris Garcia, who had a run scored and three RBI, the Hawks played step-for-step with the Marauders for the first four innings of the loss. But Hudson Catholic had no answer once Prep got going in a three-run fifth inning, incited by junior outfielder Kyle Bowes.

“I knew that I had to get a good swing on the ball and get the ball in play,” said Bowes, who drove in what proved to be the game-winning run. “In my first two at-bats, I didn’t get great swings in, I wasn’t seeing the ball well and my approach was off, but I just tried to find a hole there at the end and I was lucky enough to do it.”

Caddle added an insurance run in the sixth inning when he drove in senior outfielder Mike Cirilo.

On the mound, Prep was paced by pitcher Antonio Velardi, who struck out seven over six innings despite being under the weather. Cooney closed things out in the seventh. Hudson Catholic also received six innings from its starter, Brandon Pilovsky, who had eight strikeouts in the loss.

“(Antonio) went out there today and gutted it out even though he didn’t have his best stuff,” said Laguerre. “He could have had his head down after the beginning, but he battled his way through. It wasn’t easy, but I thought he did a very good job under the circumstances.”

Commissioner Kocmalski's Mt. Rushmore Baseball Lineup

Babe Ruth - forget
the Aaron vs.
Bonds debate.

Ruth's 60HRs in a season exceeded
the total of most teams. He towered
over his peers like
no other.

The true
"Sultan of Swat".

Ted Williams -
generally considered the greatest hitter ever.
Sui Generis.

Sandy Koufax - put together a string of 4 or 5 of the most brilliant seasons
imaginable for a pitcher. He and
Bob Gibson were responsible for MLB lowering the
pitcher's mound.

Willie Mays - most exciting ballplayer
I have ever seen.
The prototypical
five-tool player.
Willie's glove was once described as
"the place where
triples go to die".
Say Hey !!!

Mt. Rushmore Lineup

The Bambino was the greatest baseball player ever.

I visited his birthplace/ museum in 1993 near Camden Yards. He lived in a 6'x8' room with a military cot. There were no steroids for the Babe, just hot dogs and beer.

Teddy Ballgame is undoubtedly the best hitter who ever walked the planet. The Splendid Splinter also served in the Marine Corps in both World War II and the Korean War.

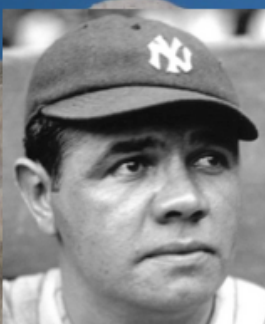

The Georgia Peach was the second greatest player ever and the 'bad boy' of baseball in his day. I corresponded with him in 1956 and have his autographed photo in a lock box. Plus I saved the envelope (3 cent stamp) for proof of authenticity.

Charlie Hustle was one of the most exciting players to ever grace the diamond. At 73 he needs to be in the Hall of Fame before his ninth inning is over. I met Pete on the street in Philly in 1979. He knew Big Mel from his Redlegs' days.

Danny Murphy
Catcher
Mt. Rushmore Lineup

Babe Ruth...the man who saved baseball after the Black Sox scandal..

Ted Williams greatest hitter ever to play the game... not to mention that he was John Glenn's wingman during the Korean War.

Hank Aaron 755 legit homers, need I say more.

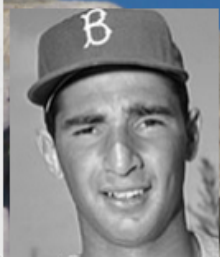

Yogi Berra. Every kid whoever wore the tools of ignorance loved Yogi, a man who never saw a pitch he couldn't hit... more championship rings than fingers.

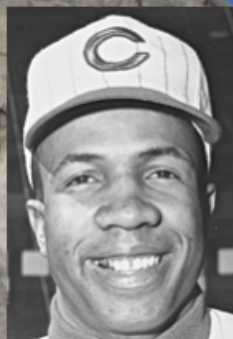

Bob Dempsey Bleeds Dodger Blue Mt. Rushmore Lineup

Duke Snider:
May not have been as good as Mickey or Willie, but you can't convince a Dodger fan of that. 40 homers 5 years in a row when homers were tough to come by. Had the opportunity to spend time with time with the Duke of Flatbush at Dodger Adult Fantasy Camp.

Sandy Koufax:
Most dominating pitcher I ever watched. Every game he pitched was a potential shutout.

Frank Robinson:
MVP in both leagues - not bad.

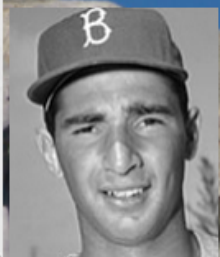

Rickey Henderson :
Hard to pass on him as he was such a character.

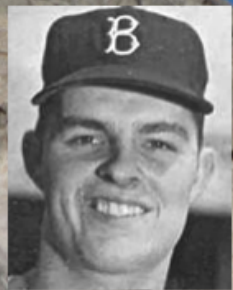

Nick Micucci Bleeds Dodger Blue Mt. Rushmore Lineup

Duke Snider:
The Duke produced when money was on the line. In 6 World Series and 133 at bats, he had 11 HRs & 26 RBIs. Extending to a full season: 47 HRs & 112 RBI's.

Sandy Koufax:
All Time Best.
In 1963, 1965 & 1966, Sandy won the MAJOR League Pitching Triple Crown. (Wins, ERA, SOs).

Don Drysdale:
He should be up here just because he was so mean. One of the best pitchers of his era. Lifetime: 207 wins, ERA 2.95.

Roy Campanella:
Playing in only 10 years, Campy won 3 MVPs. ('51, '53, '55). Yes, I was a Dodger fan.

Nick's Note:

With Koufax keep the capital letters for MAJOR. 2 others won pitching triple crown, 3 times, but only in their specific leagues. Walter Johnson (American), Grover Alexander (National)

Lou Cuccaro
 3rd Baseman ***
Mt. Rushmore Lineup

Brooks Robinson
"The Human Vacuum Cleaner"

He is the greatest defensive third-baseman in major league history. He won 16 consecutive Gold Glove Awards, selected for the All-Star team 15 consecutive years, and he ruled the 1970 post season and World Series with his hitting and fielding.

Cal Ripken, Jr.

Baseball Ironman with 2632 consecutive games played. Slugger shortstop with 19 All-Star game appearances. Top shortstop vote getter for MLB All-Century Team.

Hank Aaron:
"Hammerin Hank"
"The Man Who Beat the Babe". Record 25 All-Star apps. Made hitting the long one look easy. Could hit under pressure (death threats when he closed in on Ruth's record).

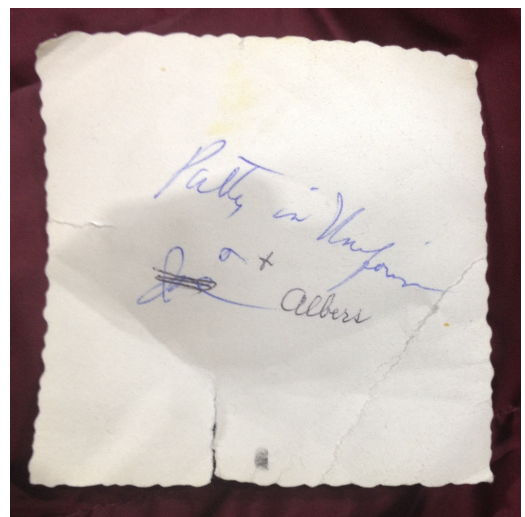

Roberto Clemente

He had 317 lifetime avg., 3000 hits. He was 15 times an All-Star, 12 times a Golden Glove winner & 4 time NL batting champ and MVP. Lost his life trying to provide aid to earthquake survivors.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- Two 4x4 school records, including the second-fastest 4x4 in collegiate history on the men's side (2:59.73), two world-leading marks and plenty of PRs and season-best performances capped off a fantastic edition of the Pepsi Florida Relays Saturday night for the University of Florida Gators at Percy Beard Track in Gainesville, where over 4,000 track and field fans filled the stands throughout the span of the three-day event.

Stellar as it was, the women's success set up one of the most thrilling races in collegiate history to end #FLRelays14. The likes of LaShawn Merritt, Bershawn Jackson, Michael Bingham, Tony McQuay, Christian Taylor, Torrin Lawrence, Kerron Clement, Manteo Mitchell and Jeremy Wariner laced a loaded field in the first heat of the men's 4x4, but Gators Najee Glass, Hugh Graham, Jr., Dedric Dukes and Gino Hall were up for the challenge, and in a big way.

Glass, Graham, Jr., and Dukes – all All-Americans and NCAA Champions themselves – lit it up against the decorated field of Olympic medalists, former All-Americans, world and NCAA champions, holding their own for the first three legs of the slugfest before Dukes passed to Hall on the final exchange with the Gators in third. Hall cruised, making up time on the straightaways and down the final 50-meter stretch, found himself in a Gator vs. Gator battle with Clement, setting up an amazing finish that saw Hall buckle down after a 43.7 anchor leg to edge out the Gainesville Elite squad, 2:59.73 to 2:59.76.

CREW

Our Team was founded in the spring of 2010 out of the Passaic River Rowing Association (PRRA) Boathouse in Lyndhurst, NJ.

We compete against high school rowing programs from all over the tri-state area as well as teams from Maryland and Pennsylvania. The team currently consists of 40 members and is still growing.

Before a rower can participate, he must complete the following steps; must pass the swim test and watch a safety training video. Practice runs 5 days a week during the Fall and Spring seasons with indoor training during the winter on Prep's Rowing machines.

Program History:

- In the Spring of 2010 the Novice 4 took 1st place at the Passaic River Sprints in Lyndhurst, NJ.
- In the Fall of 2010 the Novice 8 finished 2nd at the Head of the Hudson Regatta in Albany, NY.

Boys Volleyball season preview, 2014: Teams to Watch

St. Peter's Prep of Jersey City, which returns a solid nucleus including second team All-State setter Tyler Lee, Spencer Shickora and Shayron Taylor, looks poised to return to the NJSIAA finals for the first time since 2010.

"Our team motto this year is 'No excuses, No regrets,'" said Maurice Washington who begins his second season as head coach following the retirement of legendary Don Guide. "Our team goals are (to go) undefeated in Hudson County league play, win the county title, state sectional title and states title. Tyler, Spencer and Shayron are all returners with the determination and drive to bring titles back to Prep this season."

Prep volleyball remains undefeated with straight-set victory over McNair

By Michael Wright/For The Jersey Journal
on April 21, 2014

The St. Peter's Prep volleyball team may have shown up late to its match against McNair, but there were certainly no delays once the Marauders finally took the floor.

After problems with the team's bus pushed back the match's start time for over an hour and a half, Prep came out of the gate firing and eventually cruised to a victory at McNair this afternoon in straight sets, 25-7, 25-15.

"Given the situation of the problems we had with the bus, we got here and we took care of business," said Maurice Washington, who is in his second season as the head coach of the Marauders. "We've been working on our execution and mental toughness and today, we did what we needed to do."

Led by the senior hitting duo of Spencer Shickora and Shayron Taylor, Prep (9-0) was in control of the match from the very beginning. The Marauders began the first set on a 9-0 run, all but taking McNair (7-3) out of the running before it could even get on the scoreboard. After the Cougars finally broke through with a few points, Prep closed the set on a 10-2 run and grabbed the early momentum the team was searching for.

For Shickora, who propelled Prep with 13 kills, four blocks and five digs, it was nice to finally see his team come out swinging.

“Making sure we’re able to start out hot is crucial and it’s something that we’ve really been working on,” said Shickora, who is committed to playing volleyball for Kean University next year. “We’re a dangerous team offensively, but one of our biggest problems so far this season has been starting out fast.

“We’ve been working hard on that in practice, so it’s good to start seeing some results and hopefully we can keep playing well in games like this.”

In the second set, Prep finally got a taste of how good this year’s up-and-coming McNair squad can be. Shickora and McNair senior Mina Ghebrial battled hard early on, trading kills back and forth.

However, with the score knotted at 4-4, the Marauders pulled away with a 7-0 run to put the set out of reach. McNair eventually cut the lead down to 20-12, but Prep finished the job, taking the second and final frame, 25-15.

“I thought we were pretty much in control for the entire game,” said Shickora. “These Hudson County games are extremely important, so I’m happy that today we were able to beat a pretty good team, and hopefully we’re going to keep on steam-rolling.”

For the Marauders, Taylor finished with 5 kills and 4 blocks, while senior Tyler Lee guided Prep with 18 assists. Ghebrial had 4 kills for the Cougars and junior Terrence Cando added 3 digs.

Following a nice start to the season for McNair, which included vital county wins over Union City and Bayonne, a loss to the undefeated Marauders was a good learning experience for a team that has high expectations for 2014.

According to head coach John Diaz, the match’s delayed start didn’t help his team against one of Hudson County’s premier squads.

“I thought mentally, the fact that they were late, took a toll on us,” said Diaz. “We were all pumped for this game and I think waiting and warming up and cooling down and warming up and cooling down again really took a toll.

“I think we know now what to expect from them - they’re a great team and I hope that we see them again in the county finals.”
