State Rests Its Case

Kayo to Take Stand Today If Acquittal Bid Is Denied

The defense intends to put Harold (Kayo) Konigsberg on the witness stand today if County Judge Paul J. Duffy rejects a motion for a directed acquittal in the murder trial of Konigsberg and Frank Romeo.

The motion was made by Raymond A. Brown, counsel for Konigsberg, and Romeo's lawyer, Michael A. Querques, after Assistant Prosecutor Edward F. Zampella rested the state's case yesterday afternoon.

THE JUDGE, however, deferred hearing arguments on the motion until today to give counsel time to review the transcript of the testimony Zampella adduced from his witnesses.

$2 Million Applied to Budget Move Slashes $4.50 from Record Levy

By ROBERT E. O'BRIEN

Commissioner Murray has found a hidden municipal treasure, a $6,000,000 school surplus fund which has been doing nothing but gathering interest since 1945 when former Mayor Hague buried it by a complicated bookkeeping procedure.

Murray has transferred $2,000,000 from the new-found fund into the general appropriation of the 1961 Jersey City budget which reduces the 1961 tax rate from $107 to $102.50. It's still $12.50 above the $90 rate which business economists contend is the safe level for the city economy.

Murray's action requires approval by the city commission. The 1961 budget was introduced today.

Churchmen Fear Castro Mob Terror

HAVANA (UPI) —Roman Catholic leaders were said today to believe that religious institutions here face an outbreak of organized mob violence in support of Premier Fidel Castro's anti-church campaign.

Some churchmen believed anti-Catholic disorders here last weekend set a pattern for the future.

Worshippers who attended a special mass Saturday at LaSalle Academy, commemorating the 33rd anniversary of Cuba's Catholic Youth Organization, were besieged for nearly six hours by a mob of about 5,000 persons led by organized units of Castro's militia.

Demonstrators slashed the tires of most cars parked in the neighborhood.

Archbishop coadjutor Evelio Diaz called the police only to be told that "the Catholics provoked the demonstration."

Valentine's Day Ruling

If Trucker Wants to Truck, He Shouldn't Stop to Kiss

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Valentine's Day notwithstanding, the National Labor Relations Board ruled today that a romantic truck driver may be fired for stealing a kiss from one of his co-workers. In doing so, the board overturned a recommendation by one of its examiners which would have required the Borden-Sancken Co., Augusta, Ga., to reinstate dairy truck driver Lee Roy Pennington.

While the board agreed with

Examiner Thomas A. Ricci that Borden-Sancken did engage in certain activities to try to block organization of its workers by Milk Drivers Local 23 of the Teamsters Union, it said the company was on firm ground when it sacked Pennington.

The company said Pennington was fired because he had walked into the company's Columbia, S.C., office at the end of the run from Augusta, and grabbed and kissed Mrs. Jeanette Porter, a clerk, against her will.

TODAY'S CHUCKLE

The word "engagement" has two meanings: in war it's a battle, in courtship it's a surrender.

Now You Know

The association of St. Valentine with the festival of lovers is purely accidental. It arises only from the fact that the festival of the saint occurs near the advent of spring when love is supposedly in the air.

Bomb Toward Earth?

Venus 'Possibilities' Seen 'Terrifying'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Chairman Overton Brooks, D-La., of the House Space Committee said today there were "terrifying possibilities" in Russia's apparently successful attempt to send a satellite toward Venus.

Brooks pointed out that the Russian feat marked the first time a rocket had been fired from a space station in orbit around the earth.

"If they can aim this instrument-loaded satellite to Venus," Brooks asked, "how long will it be before they can aim a bomb-loaded satellite toward earth?"

Station On Moon

Brooks, who has called for a "full discussion" of the Venus shot at a hearing Wednesday, said in an interview he had long agreed with the maxim that those who control space will control the earth.

Besides the possibility of future satellite bombs, Brooks saw the Soviet Union's Venus rocket as being a "major step" toward placing a manned station on the moon.

A communique Monday night, about 36 hours after the launching, said the $\frac{3}{4}$ -ton rocket ship had traveled 263,118 miles from earth.

He had been caring for the baboons since the big snowstorm nine days ago, when a truck driver left them to his care . . . and feeding.

The trucker, who had loaded the apes on his truck by mistake, didn't return and Manziano was left to play king of the Congo to the tune of 50 bananas a day.

Richard Hughes: A Man of Tact—and Action

Friends say that Richard Hughes is an attorney who can get more accomplished over lunch than most other lawyers can in a full day in the courtroom.

Hughes, the dark horse who has become a front-runner in the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, approaches problems tactfully—or takes a tack around them.

—o—

JERSEY CITY attorney Harold Krieger recalled that last year he and Hughes were on the same side in what promised to be a long, drawn-out legal battle. Krieger was reconciled to a long siege when Hughes decided to go out to lunch with the opposition. He returned, an hour and a half later, with a settlement which was agreeable to both sides.

Hughes, of Trenton, is at his best in tight spots, his friends say. He often makes an incisive observation to put the problem in the proper perspective or reduces the tension with a light quip.

If neither method works, Krieger said, Hughes is likely to subtly change the subject entirely and then bring it up again when the tension has eased.

—o—

HUGHES 51, whose father was active in the Democratic Party in Burlington County, grew up in a political atmosphere.

At 28 he was an unsuccessful candidate for Congress, but a year later he was named an assistant U. S. attorney and served until 1945.

After a period in private practice, Hughes was appointed a Mercer County judge in 1948. In 1952 he was promoted to the Superior Court.

CO-WORKERS in the Union County Court House, where he was assignment judge, remember him as a hard worker who stayed on the job until 6 or 7 p.m., an hour when most magistrates are home eating dinner.

Former Rep. T. James Tumulty of Jersey City, who spent several years in the New Jersey Assembly, recalled that he campaigned with Hughes when the latter was seeking the Democratic leadership of Mercer County. He also recognized Hughes as a formidable campaigner.

Hughes indicated today he will bring his primary campaign into Hudson County.

—o—

HUGHES and his first wife, who died in 1951, had four children. In 1954, he married Mrs. William M. Murphy Jr., a widow, the mother of three children. Since their marriage, they have had two children, for a total of nine.

When Hughes resigned from the bench in 1957, he said he was returning to private practice because he couldn't afford to support his large family on a judge's salary.

As governor and the head of a king-sized family, Hughes would face other problems.

Morven, the governors mansion, has only four bedrooms. A new wing might be necessary.

Hollywood Cronies Renew Relations With Durocher

It figures. Now that Leo Durocher has a job in baseball again, his Hollywood cronies have rediscovered him. At the Beverly Hilton in Los Angeles last night Leo was honored by the Friars Club. Members who attended the affair include Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin, Joe Bishop, Milton Berle, George Jessel and Danny Kaye. I don't recall these same fellows tossing any luncheons for Leo when he was unemployed but now that he's back in the public eye as a Dodger coach, he's one of them again! St. Peter's Romps

Barry Gets 1,000th Point, Prep Easily Tops Ferris

By CAS RAKOWSKI

A healthy Jim Barry means a wealthy St. Peter's Prep basketball team.

Barry, a gangling 6-foot-5 All-Countyite, proved his value to the Prep when he scored his 1,000th point early in the first quarter as St. Peter's moved to within one game of clinching a tie in the Southern Division Basketball League race with a convincing 78-45 win over Ferris at the Prep gym yesterday afternoon.

—O—

BARRY THUS became the third cager in St. Peter's cage history to reach the coveted mark. In addition, Barry, who was high scorer in the fray with 25 points, moved towards another record. The classy senior brought his career total to 1,023, moving him to within 47 points of the all-time St. Peter's record of 1,069 points held jointly by George Waddleton and Mike Pedone.

The Maroon Marauders of Jerry Halligan haven't dropped a game this season with Jim in the starting cast. Barry has played in 10 contests and St. Peter's has been victorious in them all. Barry missed several games with an injury.

In winning, St. Peter's brought its league ledger to 8-2 with Snyder trailing with a 7-3 mark. The Tigers will clash with Lincoln tonight and must win if Thursday's game between the two clubs at Dickinson High School's gym is to have any meaning.

BARRY STARTED St. Peter's off when he caged one of two foul shots. Five points by Frank Nicoletti, fast becoming one of the top players in Hudson County, tied matters at 6-6. Barry broke the 1,000 point mark with a jump shot that broke the deadlock and sent St. Peter's on its way to the easy win. Barry also tallied the final six points of the quarter to give St. Peter's a 13-8 lead.

Ferris again closed the margin, this time to three points at 15-12. But six straight points by Barry, two by Wayne McGuirt, four by Nicoletti and two more by Barry gave St. Peter's a 29-12 and the Prepsters were never headed.

With Barry and Nicoletti on the sidelines in the last quarter, junior Greg Hochstein waxed hot to score 14 of his 15 points in the game as all nine St. Peter's players hit the scoring column.

—O—

JOINING BARRY in the scoring parade was Nicoletti, who bombed in 22. For Ferris Richie Piccillo was outstanding, garnering 17 points and keeping Ferris in the ball game until Barry's heroics.

In junior varsity competition, St. Peter's also moved to within a game of clinching the JV title, when Bill McKeever's quintet posted a 46-33 win over Ferris' irregulars. Vin McFadden took scoring honors with 15 points for St. Peter's.

Last Feb. 16 the submarine Triton began an historic 84-day journey around the world, under water. Tonight you'll see the most extensive film account yet presented of that voyage, which made modern-day history. Capt. Edward Beach kept a log which recorded everything from depth soundings to "babygrams"—messages informing the sailors they had become new fathers.

8:00 7 THE RIFLEMAN

Things look bad in Wyoming where hero Lucas McCain (Chuck Connors) is on an undercover assignment to track down some men selling rifles to the Indians, in the concluding episode of this two-part presentation. They look even worse in North Fork, however, as Mark (Johnny Crawford) decides that his father, after a two-month absence, is not going to return home.

8:30 2 DOBIE GILLIS

Zelda, the nose-wrinkler, has Dobie (Dwayne Hickman) very upset trying to improve him. Then along comes rich and nasty Chatsworth Osborne (Stephen Franken) who needs help with his grades so he will be able to enter college.

Budget Far Too High

As of today, the Jersey City budget calls for a tax rate of $102.50. That means Jersey City is contemplating spending far too much. That, in turn, is bad news for every property owner, rentpayer, businessman, worker and civil servant in the city.

The figure is far above the $90 tax rate which is considered safe for Jersey City by those who know such figures best. To get down to the safe level, the city would have to cut more than 11 per cent from its proposed spending.

NEWS

Unless reductions are made, the danger to all the people of Jersey City is clear. The property owner will know about it quickly; his tax bill will be higher. The rentpayer will find his rent increased. The businessman will feel it in a dozen ways. The worker in industry will hear more rumors of plants moving or expansions cancelled. The policeman, fireman, teacher, hospital attendant, park laborer and City Hall clerk will be faced again with the prospect of all the difficulties which arise when a city is strapped for the money needed to provide for them. High taxes can only accelerate Jersey City's decline at a time when low taxes are vital to assist the city's rebirth.
