Third Try Makes Tom Mayor

By LESLIE DENNIS

An oft-disappointed Thomas Gangemi scored a decisive victory over Commissioner Berry in Jersey City's runoff election and will take office July 1 as the first mayor under the city's new strong mayor-council form of government.

Gangemi, who was defeated narrowly in 1953 and in a contested election in 1957, swept into office carrying his three councilmen-at-large candidates and four of his ward candidates with him.

THE VICTORY gives his side seven of the nine seats on the city council. Free Martin in Bergen-Lafayette and Thomas Maresca in Hudson City were the opposition's winners.

The winning councilmen-at-large candidates are: Mrs. Evelyn Holender, James C. Rochford and John J. Kijewski.

Jack Kelaher was in the West Side Ward, Thomas Whelan in Journal Square and Thomas Flaherty in Greenville.

But it was Gangemi's day — he carried the ball. Unofficial returns show that Gangemi rolled up 38,000 votes to Berry's 43,000 as he topped the ballot in all six wards. His winning margin was swelled in the Dossstown Ward where he got 18,258 votes, nearly 8,500 more than Berry.

THE GREYING County Supervisor had a more difficult time in the other wards, however. He won by less than 500 votes in West Side and by slightly more than 1,000 in Greenville. But he carried them all.

The tightest of the races, however, were for council in the Greenville, Bergen-Lafayette and West Side wards where fewer than 1,000 votes decided the issue.

Flaherty edged out a 400 vote win over Thomas McGovern in Greenville; Martin won by 500 over Dr. Paul Sinclair in Bergen-Lafayette and a surprising George Cloit came within 800 votes of upending Kelaher in the West Side Ward.

THE WINNER—Supervisor Gangemi, with the telephone, happily receives the news that he has been elected mayor of Jersey City. Surrounding the victor are, from left, Ezra L. Nolan, his campaign manager, former Mayor John V. Kenny and, in his shirt sleeves, Sheriff William Flanagan.

Joseph Connors, who won the council seat for the Downtown Ward in the May 9 election, is between Nolan and Kenny. Successful councilmen at large candidates James C. Rochford and John J. Kijewski crowd between Kenny and Gangemi.

9:00 7 HAWAIIAN 5YE

One of the best in this series is re-run tonight. There's some nice acting from wistful Anita Lee as a faithful wife, Mike Road as her no-good, double-crossing husband, and Stella Stevens, as the blonde peachcake who is the object of the husband's fickle affections. (Repeat, 1 hour.)

9:30 2 I'VE GOT A SECRET

Edgar Bergen participates in a very funny secret. Another guest brings a secret right out of a comic-strip. Garry Moore is the master of ceremonies.

10:00 2 STEEL HOUR

A well written show. The action is set in a courtroom where a father is faced with the loss of his child. The father's in-laws charge him with neglect. There's a good element of mystery in this well-paced tale. Richard Kiley gives a strong and moving performance as a man faced with a murder accusation that grows out of the neglect charge. Mary Fickett is good as his lawyer. (1 hour.)

Built Calumet Farm*Ben Jones, at 78; Trained Kentucky Derby Winners

Tributes from a saddened racing world were being received at Lexington, Ky. today following the death of Ben A. Jones, 78, who remained "Plain Ben" through the years in which he trained six Kentucky Derby winners.

Jones, who built Calumet Farm into racing's richest operation, died of a heart attack yesterday.

JONES, WHO had been living at Mrs. Gene Markey's Calumet Farm as superintendent of racing since turning active direction of the stable over to son H. A. (Jimmy) Jones in 1953, suffered a heart attack at the farm last Saturday.

He was thought to be on the mend, and Jimmy, who had flown from Monmouth Park in New Jersey Saturday, returned east Monday. But another attack shortly after noon yesterday proved fatal.

Jones personally saddled six winners of the Kentucky Derby, five of them for Calumet, including Triple Crown winners Whirlaway in 1941 and Citation in 1948. He also trained Lawrin in 1938 for Woolford Farm, and Pensive in 1944, Ponder in 1949 and Hill Gail in 1952 for Calumet.

8 Negro
Athletes
Suspended

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI) — The Gulf Amateur Athletic Union last night temporarily suspended eight Texas Southern University Negro athletes for withdrawing from last Friday's Meet of Champions because they said seating at the event was segregated.

Robert T. Goehrs, chairman of the Gulf AAU registration committee, set a hearing for next Monday at which the eight athletes can appear and defend themselves.

GOEHRS SAID he set the hearing for Monday so that if the Negroes were cleared, they could compete in the National AAU championships June 24-25 in New York.

Athletes to Speak

Alex Webster of the N.Y. Football Giants and former N.Y. Giant baseball player Monte Irvin will be guest speakers at the last regular monthly meeting of St. Mary's Star of the sea Holy Name Society, Bayonne, tonight at 8 p.m.

Snead Called Man to Beat For U.S. Open Golf Title

By LEO H. PETERSEN

BIRMINGHAM, Mich. (UPI)—The feeling is general among his fellow golfers that Sammy Snead finally is going to win the "big" one—the U.S. Open championship.

Former U.S. Open champion Ed Furgol summed it up for all of them when he said:

"The golfer who beats Snead will win it."

He added that he doubted very much if any one will for at 49 Slammin' Sammy is playing the best golf of his career.

SNEAD ADMITS he is at the top of his game and realizes it may well be now or never. He hasn't shown any signs of slowing up, but when you are only a year away from the half century mark in life a golfer can start slowing up fast.

It happened to Ben Hogan, now also 49, because he lost his putting touch. He feels he has regained some of it now so he is grouped right up there behind Snead in the list of favorites for this one.

SNEAD HAS BEEN at even par or better in each of his practice rounds.

"It's too bad they don't count," Snead observed.

WILDWOOD-BOUND—Mary Wilson, "Miss Bayonne of 1961," signs contract entitling her to represent Bayonne at the Miss New Jersey Pageant in Wildwood June 22-24. Looking in is John Johnson, chairman of the contest, which is sponsored annually by the Bayonne Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Jersey City: Which Way?

Where Jersey City goes from here depends entirely upon 275,000 people—the people who live here. They have chosen Thomas Gangemi to be the first strong mayor under the new form of government but all he can do is point the way. Unless all the others are willing to help, Jersey City will not present a new and better face to the rest of the world.

—o—

WHICH DIRECTIONS can the new mayor take? Looking at it with cold practicality, he can offer the city little better than the Churchillian prescription of "sweat and tears." He inherits a residue of the more than 30 years of Frank Hague's era. And he inherits the penalties of four years of indecisive government at City Hall.

Anything less than "sweat and tears" is certain to be an expressway to disaster.

The tooting horns and the shouts of victory in the streets last night were elation of the moment.

Sooner or later Jersey City will awake to realize that unless heroic measures are taken, the tax rate will soar because too many of the economics of recent years were unreal. They were achieved by bookkeeping rather than by true savings. But there comes a time when bookkeeping no longer will serve; the books must be balanced with cash—from the taxpayers' and rentpayers' pockets.

'LET US BEGIN!'
