

"Hello—It's Me".....

I know you've been busy "Taking Care of Business" but on July 16, "Do You Know Where You're Going To" ? Yes! You were "Born to Run" to your High School Reunion. You are spending "Saturday In the Park" ...PNC Park, that is.

I'm "Down On My Knees" and begging you please. Register for the reunion right now! "It Only Takes a Minute". If you don't register now, then "Shame, Shame, Shame" on you!

I remember "The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face". We were all "Young Americans" then! But ladies, "You Are So Beautiful" still.....better than ever! . And you guys are still "Some Kind of Wonderful". We will always be "Forever Young"....well, in our minds at least.

So "When Will I See You Again?".

We can't put "Time in a Bottle" but it will be fun to go "Right Back Where We Started From". We'll be "Reelin' in the Years", talking about "The Way We Were", "Yesterday Once More", and the "Golden Years". I can think of more than a few that will prove that they are "Still Crazy After All These Years". Gee...can't wait to hear those stories! I promise....there will be no "Bad Company" on this night.

So get on a "Jet", drive the "Ventura Highway", "Thunder Road" or just "Walk This Way" and come to the reunion. You can enjoy a nice cool Pittsburgh "Summer Breeze", "Listen to the Music", strap on your "Boogie Shoes" and do some "Dancing in the Moonlight". I promise that you will have "The Times of Your Life".

"Money, money, money". You can pay through the website but look for the attached registration form to mail in if you prefer.

Don't forget that we'd love to have other friends and siblings from other Lebo years join us. Invite one or two as your guest(s). Their cost is $50 too. Ask "Mandy", "Angie", "Daisy Jane," "Sister Golden Hair" or all those "Beer Drinkers and Hell Raisers" from the class of '75 to come.

And now, please, email us some "Kodachrome"....especially old ones, that we can include in a slide show. Send them directly to our Flickr account: gets05man@photos.flickr.com. Be sure to identify the people in them. You can view our class pictures at our website or at: <http://www.flickr.com/photos/lebo76/>

You wonder "Why Can't We Be Friends?". Be sure to 'Like' the Mt. Lebanon Class of 1976 Facebook page to connect with people. Or you can find our classmates at AlumniClass.com and Classmates.com.

"You Ain't Seen Nothin' Yet". More info about everything is on the website: www.lebo76.com

Let's "Come Together" right now, before we are all taking the "Stairway to Heaven". Don't leave us "Wishing you were here". It won't be the same "Without You." Register right away at www.lebo76.com

See you soon!

Beth (yea, that was a song too!)
