

The Official West Point March

Original lyrics

CDT Alfred H. Parham, 1928

West Point at thy call
Thy sons arise in honor to thee.
May thy light shine every bright,
Guide thy sons aright,
In far-off lands or distant seas.
Thy name first above all,
Through all the years thy motto we will bear;
We thy sons, as we fight, May we strike for the right, Alma Mater, ever for thee.

Updated lyrics

CDT Emma San Martin, 2022

West Point at thy call,
We arise in honor to thee.
May thy light shine ever bright,
Guide thine own aright,
In far-off lands or distant seas.
Thy name first above all,
Through all the years thy motto we will bear;
Through the perilous fight, May we strike for the right, Alma Mater, ever for thee.
