

10A- Thursday, June 12, 1969 —

The long, long line of McCluer High School seniors march four abreast across the campus for baccalaureate services held prior to Friday night's commencement exercises at Kiel Auditorium. One thousand graduates received their diplomas.