OBERLIN COLLEGE

THE CLASS OF 1970

William James said that the purpose of a liberal education is to help you know a good man when you see one. As representatives of the first coeducational college in the country we would echo: "And a good woman, too."

It is our hope that this booklet will enable all of you to put together the names and faces of many good men and women, and that the casual acquaintances made in these first weeks of college will ripen into rich friendships.
