FALL 1983

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION BEGINS

FIVE TO BE INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME ON JANUARY 14 MAGILL, MYERS, CUMMINGS, SHAPIRO AND NETANYAHU CHOSEN FOR HIGHEST HONORS

The Cheltenham High School Alumni Association is pleased to announce the electees to the Alumni Hall of Fame.

The 2nd Hall of Fame ceremonies will take place at the Adam's Mark Hotel in Philadelphia on Saturday, January 14, 1984. A reception to honor our Hall of Famers will begin at 8:00 P.M. with induction ceremonies slated to start at 9:00 P.M.

This year we will honor Arthur Magill '25, Art Collector, Business Magnate and Author; Robert J. Myers '29, Social Security Expert, Author and Professor; Nancy Guest Cummings '43, Physician and Research Fellow; Ronald Shapiro '60, Attorney and Community Leader; and Lt. Col. Jonathan Netanyahu '64, posthumous award, Israeli War Hero.

Sound the trumpets! Ring the bells! Release the balloons! Fire the cannons! Why? Because it's Cheltenham High School's 100th birthday. One century since the class of 1884 began the fine Cheltenham tradition. And your Alumni Association — in conjunction with the school district and the United Parent's Organization — has planned a year of celebration that is worthy of such an historic event.

The Centennial year will begin with the dedication of a Centennial Grove to be planted in the library quadrangle at the high school. This symbolic gesture will grow along with C.H.S. as it enters its second century.

Beginning in October, the Alumni Association will sponsor the Centennial Sunday Series. The Series will be five Sunday evenings throughout the school year spotlighting distinguished graduates of Cheltenham.

The first night, October 23rd, features Lewis Klein '45 vice-president of Gateway Communications, Inc. Mr. Klein, among his many accomplishments, was the executive producer of American Bandstand during its Philadelphia tenure. He will speak on "Television: Yesterday and Tomorrow!"

November 20th will celebrate "Musical Comedy: Past and Present" with the return to Cheltenham's stage of three of Cheltenham Theatre's brightest stars. Robert Acker '74 (Don Quixote in "Man of LaMancha"), Susan Wapner '78 (Laurie in Oklahoma"), and Richard Weinstock '76 (Charley in "Where's Charley?") will recreate some of the great musical songs from Broadway hits of recent memory. They will be joined that evening by the Cheltenham Ensemble who will perform their touring show which this year has as its theme our 100th birthday.

March 18th, Robert Myers '29, former Chief Actuary of the United States, Deputy Commissioner of Social Security, and most recently Executive Director of the National Commission of Social Security Reform, will speak on the future of Social Security.

April 29th will find Robert Nurock '54, President of Investor's Analysis, Inc. and one of the regulars on Wall Street Week speaking on your money and what you should know about it.

The final evening, May 20th, will be a nostalgic look back by Don Kinnier '62 at the console of the Theatre Organ. His programs have delighted people at Longwood Gardens where he is currently guest organist, and around the world.

CLASS OF 1972

The Class of 1972 held their tenth year reunion on November 26, 1982 at the Warwick Hotel in Philadelphia. This second reunion of the class was an overwhelming success with more than three hundred people attending. The reunion planning committee was coordinated by Richard Greene and Sanford Student. Plans are being made to locate some members of the class of 678 individuals who were not able to be located. Look for another spectacular affair from this group in 1987. A permanent subcommittee has been established to aid in keeping the class list up to date; this group may be reached by calling 215-635-2700.

CLASS OF 1977

A fifth year reunion was held on November 27, 1982 at the Warwick Hotel in Philadelphia. Over 200 classmates attended the very successful affair. Hats off to Andy Goldfield and his committee.

CLASS OF 1933

The 50th reunion of the class of 1933 was held on April 29th at the Sheraton Executive Tower. According to Allen Faaet it was the best reunion they've ever had! About 80 people attended, including 55-60 members of the class. A special guest was Bunny Brogden, former gym teacher. Dr. Herman Wessel was also a guest at this very special gathering. A tremendous thanks to Louise Bers Rose for a job very well done!

CLASS OF '62 REUNITED

It was definitely the right time—November 27, 1982—and the right place—Philmont Country Club—and, most of all, the right event—the 20th Reunion of the CHS Class of 1962.

Borrowing some phrases from the children of the late 60s, "it was a trip," "a mind blower." It was as being in a time warp. And experiencing the ultimate natural high. Suddenly the last 20 years had evaporated and there we were, back where we had started. And amazingly with very little change. No pretensions; no false airs. We all knew who we were. It was just the end of another summer vacation—somewhat extended—but the atmosphere was the same. Exchanging stories and anecdotes and catching up on lost time.

Most people were more than recognizable, with the possible exception of Herb Sobel. Michael White had travelled some 8,000 miles. Others came in from California, Florida, Illinois. The evening could have extended to a week and not a moment of boredom would have existed.

Prizes were distributed by Class President Henry Donner for farthest travelled, most children (again, Mike White), strangest occupation, etc. A D.J. from Fascinating Rhythm continuously spun records—although not enough oldies—and people danced. Individuals were selected at random to relate past tales of renown and legend. But it was the reminiscing that made it all work. The "do you remembers" and "what ever happened tos" that formed the basis for a truly wonderful and unforgettable evening. Our hats off to Carol Steinberg Harris and her Planning Committee for a job beautifully done. 1992, here we come!

The CHS Class of 1962 wishes to extend its grateful appreciation to the CHS Alumni Association and especially to the Alumni President, '62's own Betty Cataldi, for all the assistance we received in planning our 20th Reunion. We couldn't have done it without you.

PANTHER'S SPOTLIGHT

Sylvester Garrett '29 — Career largely in labor-management relations. From 1951 to 1979, he was designated as Chairman of the Board of Arbitration for U.S. Steel and the Steelworkers Union. His tenure in this position is the longest on any major arbitration assignment in history. Following his resignation from the USS/USW Board, he has taken on two other chairmanships in arbitration: Iron Ore Industry Board of Arbitration and Chairman of Arbitration Panel for Newport News Shipbuilding and the USW.

Roger M. Scott '36 — Has just completed his 35th year with the Philadelphia Orchestra as principal bass. In 1947, Roger succeeded his teacher as the teacher of double bass at the Curtis Institute. He also has private students.

Albert R. Subers '47 — Appointed Judge, Court of Common Pleas of Montgomery County, Pa. on April 15, 1983.

Lita Hahn Solis-Cohen '48 — Syndicated antiques columnist for the Philadelphia Inquirer. She has become a nationally known authority in her field as an antiques columnist, lecturer and consultant.

Richard Katzenberg '59 — Vice-President of American Wind Energy Association and President of Natural Power, Inc. in New Boston, New Hampshire. Natural Power, Inc. is a company specializing in the design and manufacture of electronics for the alternate energy industry.

Marie Pulini Franks '63 — Assistant Professor of Medicine at New York University Medical School. Franks has a private practice in Endocrinology.

Randy Brecker '64
Michael Brecker '67 — Two talented brothers: Randy Brecker on trumpet, Michael Brecker on saxophone. They've appeared on hundreds of the best records of the past decade. They've built, together and separately, blue-chip careers as two of the most respected, versatile, sought-after musicians for hire on the east coast studio scene.

Enoch (Denise) Cho '73 — A first year resident at Johns Hopkins Hospital. She is one of the first Temple Medical School graduates to be accepted to Johns Hopkins. Cho was voted the best resident of the year. Graduated Phi Beta Kappa from college and received numerous honors.

ACTIVE MEMBERSHIP IS THE KEY TO A STRONGER ALUMNI ASSOCIATION!

Where Are They Now?

Ralph Garreth Started teaching in the Cheltenham School District in 1935. As a graduate of Germantown High School, Palmer Business School and the University of Maryland, he holds degrees in Economics, Political Science and Business.

Garreth's background lies heavily in the business world, and for years he worked in a local brokerage firm until he began teaching in Cheltenham. During his years in the school district, Garreth taught business and finance courses, and ran the school bank.

The purpose of the school bank program in the beginning, Garreth says, "was to give the kids training and experience in handling money and financial records." At that time, the school's money was held in the bank until it was issued for various purposes. Garreth was responsible for the money and had to issue monthly reports to the school board and superintendent on the use of money.

Ralph Garreth was also involved closely with athletics while at Cheltenham. A major problem the athletic department faced was the theft of athletic equipment. Coach Lehman asked Ralph if he would supervise, organize and distribute the equipment to the students. In addition to this responsibility, Garreth coached the baseball team for nine years and coached the golf team for 15. During his tenure as golf coach, his teams won 4 championships.

Garreth retired in 1970, and he remains tremendously active. He spends his time these days playing golf, gardening and doing civic and charitable volunteer work. He recently retired as secretary of a local building and loan association and spends every other week at the Wyncote Church Home giving lectures and leading discussions with the residents.

Mr. Garreth lives in Glenside with his wife, Frances, whom he met while working in Cheltenham. Frances was the secretary to the director of elementary schools at that time. They have one son, Ralph H., who attended Cheltenham and was distinguished for his achievements in baseball and basketball. Today he is Vice-President of Aerospace at Standard Pressed Steel.

Scholarships Awarded To Three Seniors

For the fifth successive year, the CHSAA is contributing to the continued education of three members of the graduating class. This year three $500 scholarships have been granted to Beryl Sandler, Glenside; Matthew Cole, Elkins Park; and Joel Goldstein, Elkins Park.

Beryl Sandler will major in Music and take the Pre-Med course at the University of Richmond. Beryl was a member of the orchestra, concert and marching bands. A percussionist, she was first drummer, first tympanist and played the mallets. She was in Honors Science and Calculus and a tutor in various subjects. She was also elected to the National Honor Society. Beryl somehow found the time to play softball as well. In addition to her activities at CHS, Beryl is an instructor at Club Nautilus.

Matthew Cole will attend the University of Pennsylvania and will pursue the Study of Monetary Economics. He served as Managing Editor of the Cheltonian and was also on the staff of the literary magazine, Quintessence. Matthew took Honors Courses, served as an English tutor and was elected to membership in the National Honor Society. He received a National Merit Scholarship Letter of Commendation.

Joel Goldstein was a captain of a Future Problem Solving Team which won third place in the Nation last year. He also captained the Chess and Debating Teams and was Chariman of the Simulations Club. Tutoring in Economics and European History and working in the library also consumed much of Joel's time. He was elected to the National Honor Society and is a National Merit Scholar. Joel will major in History at Macalester College in Minnesota.

Tickets are available for the Series at the low price of $10. All proceeds from these evenings will benefit the Cheltenham High School Alumni Assoc. Scholarship Fund. A subscription form can be found on this page.

Another Centennial event will be the big Cheltenham-Abington game on Nov. 19th, when the Panthers will "Roast the Ghost". Stan Freedman, after a seven year retirement from the sidelines, is once again coaching the football team. Hopes are high for the team, and special alumni festivities are planned for the game that will be played at Cheltenham. Kick-off is 1:30 p.m.

January 14th may well be the social event of the Centennial year as C.H.S.'s finest are honored at a "Hall of Fame" reception at the Adam's Mark Hotel. For more information on this evening see the "Hall of Fame" story that starts on the first page.

The high school will be changed into an art gallery on April 29th when the Alumni Association will sponsor the first "All Alumni Art Show". If you are one of the many talented CHS artists and would like to display your works, be sure to see the article on this page on the Centennial Art Show. The highlight of the show will be the unveiling of the new mural which was commissioned by the Alumni Association after a student mural contest last year. The winner was Jason Park '83, whose design shows the three buildings which have housed the high school over the years. Surrounding the buildings are students in sports uniforms and costumes that reflect various periods in Cheltenham's history.

May 17th, 18th and 19th will see Cheltenham turned into a Centennial Fair sponsored by the United Parents' Group. Plans are being finalized as we go to press.

On June 13, 1984, the 100th graduating class of Cheltenham High School will conclude the Centennial Year by receiving their diplomas. This should prove to be a special ending to a special year.

For more information on any of these events contact either Cheltenham High School at (215) 886-9500 or Charles Stamm '67 at (215) 659-2112.

CHS DAY

CHS Day for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund took place Saturday, May 21st at the Shops of Elkins Park. The day proved to be the kick-off of our planned Centennial year celebration.

Rain did not dampen the enthusiasm of the Cheltenham Ensemble and the CHS Stage Band, as they performed in front of the Station Pharmacy, formerly Farber's. Dr. Leonard Finkelstein, Superintendent of Schools, joined right in by performing with the ensemble.

CHS Centennial tee shirts and blue and yellow balloons gaily decorated High School Road and were nostalgic reminders of the years when CHS was located at High School Road and Montgomery Avenue in Elkins Park.

Our Scholarship Fund was enriched by generous donations from all the merchants of the Shops of Elkins Park.

CENTENNIAL ART SHOW

ATTENTION ALL CHS GRADUATES AND FACULTY!!!

If you draw, sketch, paint, sculpt, or do photographic work, we want representation of your work for our Centennial Art Show. The show will be staged at Cheltenham High School, on Sunday, April 29, 1984, from noon until 4 o'clock.

If you are interested in showing your works to other Alumni and the Cheltenham community, we would like to hear from you. To enter your art work or help with the show, please contact:

In honor of Cheltenham's 100th Anniversary, the CHSAA that evening will recognize 100 outstanding graduates (see list in this issue).

More than 250 people from all over the country attended the successful ceremony held in January of 1981. We hope that you will join us in saluting ALL of the Honorees on this very special evening.

Those inducted into the Hall of Fame in 1981 were: Bernard B. Rothschild '32, Architect; Maxine Winokur Kumin '42, Author and 1973 Pulitzer Prize Winning Poet for "Up Country"; William B. Eagleson, Jr. '43, Chairman of the Board and President of Girard Bank; Norma Levy Shapiro '45, Judge, U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania; Richard Levinson '52 and William Link '52, Emmy Award winning writing and producing team; Reggie Jackson '64, professional baseball player.

Members will be mailed a formal invitation within the next several weeks. Non-members are requested to use the reply form on the last page.

"100 CLUB"

Many of you will recall a letter being sent to all CHS graduates requesting nominations for the "100 Club," a group of "special" graduates in honor of the Centennial year.

The "100 Club" members as listed below were selected (no easy task) by a committee from nominations received last spring.

We salute these graduates as a sampling of Cheltenham's finest.

MATCHING MEMBERSHIP/ GIFTS PROGRAM

Many corporations make contributions to non-profit organizations through a Matching Membership/Gifts Program. Simply, this means that your company may double or sometimes triple your dues and gifts to our Alumni Association. Check with your company and maybe your support of our organization will multiply.

SPECIAL THANKS TO:

Jack Wagman '32 for his contribution of $500.
(last year Jack also contributed $500.)
Bernard Rothschild '32 for his contribution of $200.
The Class of '33 for their contribution of $225.
The Class of '62 for their contribution of $500.
The Class of '72 for their contribution of $50.
The Class of '77 for their contribution of $100.
The Class of '83 for their contribution of $500.
Our sincere appreciation to the classes and individuals listed above for their recent contributions to the CHSAA Scholarship Fund. It is the continuing support of people or groups that enables us to fulfill our goal of granting yearly scholarships to worthy seniors.
