

Cagers Battle Logansport in Semi-Finals

JUNIOR IZAAK WALTON LEAGUE CLUB ONE OF LARGEST GROUPS AT CENTRAL

The members of the Junior Izaak Walton Club, pictured above, are devoted to the interests of conservation. The program, affiliated with the national organization, is nation wide and at present includes a bird-house project. During the tree-planting season, opportunity will be provided for planting by members and they will probably take an active part in the planting of an arboretum, which the senior chapter is considering. Officers include President Fred De Ferbrache, Vice-President Franklin McKaye, Secretary Bertha Morris, and Treasurer Robert Carpenter. Co-sponsors are Noble Harbaugh and A. L. Smith.

TWO MORE WINS AND THE BEARS GO TO INDIANAPOLIS

Central and Horace Mann Probable Contestants in Saturday Evening Game.

With Sectional and Regional championships under their belt, the Bears travel to Hammond this coming Saturday for the Semi-finals where they meet Logansport in the first round of afternoon play. The winner of this game will meet the winner of the Horace Mann-Frankfort game in the evening to determine the day's champion. The winner will travel down state on the following Saturday to compete in the State Finals at Indianapolis.

Horace Mann boasts the best season record among the four teams, their slate showing 26 wins against but one loss. The only Bear relationship with Horace Mann is that both teams have beaten Michigan City this year by approximately the same score.

Frankfort, which has been state champ in the past, shows a season record of 21 victories in 28 tries. These two teams, Frankfort and Horace Mann, meet in the second afternoon game.

HERE AND THERE ABOUT CENTRAL

By Your Roving Reporter

Uphold Morale

Proving that they too are all out for Civilian Defense is the fact that the Glee Club, under the capable direction of Miss Helen Weber, will sing "The Ballad for Americans," by Robinson, this evening at 8:00 p. m. in the John Adams Auditorium for the Civilian Defense Rally. Singing the solo part in this number will be Fred McFaul.

Singing previous to that for the Junior Progress Club at 4 o'clock proves further that the group is holding up its end in keeping civilian morale up.

Mantoux Reactions

The results of the Mantoux test given to Central seniors on February 16 under the supervision of the Anti-Tuberculosis League of St. Joseph County show that of the 321 students who submitted to the test, 35 students or 11% had positive reactions, while 77 students had former positive reactions.

In charge of the test was Dr. Hazel Edison, a graduate of the University of Michigan.

Shamrock Shag

Wear the green
And bring your queen;
Come on, old bean;
It's on March 17!
That's the Shamrock Shag, the after school mixer in the Irish room to be given by the S. P. U. R. Club on March 17, 1942. Tickets can be purchased from any S. P. U. R. for a thin dime.

Timely Film

"Robot Pilot", a very timely picture based upon a robot-controlled war plane, will be shown in the auditorium at 12:30 on March 16, 17, 18. Forest Tucker, Carol Hughes, and Evelyn Brent are in the cast.

Speakers Plan For Annual Extemporaneous Contest.

Preliminaries at Central for the annual Kiwanis extemporaneous speech contest will be held by Miss Agnes Frick, head of the Central speech department, beginning March 23, in the speech classes.

Students not in speech classes may enter the contest by reading and preparing the contents of the January, February, and March, 1942, issues of the Reader's Digest as other contestants, and by contacting Miss Frick.

In the usual manner, topics are drawn one day after school and speeches are made the following day.

Approximately fifteen students, survivors of the elimination contest, will give extemporaneous speeches for assemblies on April 15 and 16, 1942. The final winner will represent Central in a city contest at the Kiwanis Club.

PLAY COMMITTEEMEN NAMED

Not only is the cast for John Barrie's "Shall We Join the Ladies?", to be presented by the Barnstormers March 18 and 19 exerting themselves, but also the various committees are working hard. They are composed of:

Stage: Wayne Gier, Chr. Don Eli, Delbert Garret, Grady Thompson, Madelon Marcus.

Property: Elaine Newgard, Chr., Eleanor Bielaski, Harriet Plotkin, Alfred Emery, Shirlee Schick, Sylvia Paskin, Geneva Pryweller, Mary Alice Kiisel, Janeanne Woodall, Bonnie Wilson, Margaret Mitchell, Mary Ann Hauck, Henry Burdeen, and Wallace Houk.

Set: Louise Takacs, Chr., Rowine Zick, Pat Wilson, Phyllis Cramer, Ralph Cherryholmes, Glen Snagel, Marilyn Bowyer, Kathryn Hack, and Jane Culp.

Costume Committee: Betty Billingsly, Chr., Janet Coddlin, Betty Roberts, Nancy Brodbeck, Mary Pappas, Joan Hoffman, Elaine Laskowski, Helen Morozo, Byrl Udvardi, Betty Lou Durbin, Buryl Linginfelter, and Donna Price.

Light Plot: George Davidson.
Lights: Robert DeFrees and Dale Wagner.

Make-up: Barbara Beyer, Chr.
Prompter: Naomi Hauck and Fred McFaul.

CENTRALIANS ENLIST AS CIVILIAN ARMY ON HOME FRONT

During the past week, Central, in cooperation with National Civilian Defense, has been enlisting the aid of her students and teachers. Although about 7,000 people have signed up for this work — 375 of which are Centralians — approximately 1600 more workers are needed.

Because there is so much that the average high school student can do, there should be a much higher registration rate of Civilian Defense Workers.

For example, that old bicycle laying around the garage. It has probably been deserted for a year or two, but with a bit of work here and there, a form of transportation will be developed. With that bicycle one of Central's students might carry a message which could be detrimental to the cause of the Axis.

First Aid Useful

Then there's the summer or two spent at camp, or the one period a week that made a Boy or Girl Scout out of some of us. Remember the bit here and there picked up about First Aid? Wars aren't fought solely with machines — men are still used. Because of that, a supply of bandages are needed, or if the worst comes and with it Axis bombs, there must be some people to serve on the home front in helping to cure the wounded.

What about the semester in which typing, shorthand, and other types of office training were learned? With former employees defending their country in the war trenches, we at home can defend our homes on the work benches.

Blood Bank Donations

Perhaps there are some of us willing and able to donate to a Blood Bank.

In the past, by having a home, freedom of speech, religion, the press, and many more advantages not offered elsewhere, we were proud of being Americans. Now let America be proud of having us as her citizens, by protecting the rights our ancestors have given us. Let's go all out for Civilian Defense! Let's act, not talk!

Vogel's Poster Gets First Prize In League Contest.

John Vogel, senior art major of Central High School, Saturday won first place in the health poster contest sponsored by the St. Joseph County Anti-Tuberculosis League. Second place was awarded to Hermina Gozekas, Riley High School, while the third prize was given to Myron Wilson, Mishawaka High School.

The judges were Prof. Stanley S. Sessler, head of the University of Notre Dame Art department, Mr. Frank E. Wright, head of the Studebaker Corporation art department, and Sister Edna of St. Mary's college art department.

Vogel's art work is familiar to every Central student because he has given generously of his talents during his three years here. Many of his posters have advertised school activities—and his drawings and lettering have often appeared in THE INTERLUDE. John is now studying art in Mr. Trottnow's classes.

BOYS AIM FOR PURDUE AWARDS

Three Central seniors, Fred Becker, George Pappas, and Paul Prass have been notified to report to Purdue University Saturday morning, March 14, to write on the final elimination examination for Special Merit Scholarships, according to C. O. Fulwider, guidance head.

These boys were winners in the scholarship examinations held locally and if successful in the finals, will be entitled to free fees at Purdue which amount to about $60.

GIRL RESERVE BOX SOCIAL

Central Senior Girl Reserves entertained at a Photo Roto, combined with a box social last Friday evening in the Y. M. C. A. gym, from 7:30 to 11:30 p. m. The City Recreation Orchestra played for dancing.

The Photo-Roto consisted of baby pictures of the members which were flashed on a screen and boys bid on the pictures. The highest bidder (35c limit) ate with the girl on whose picture he bid. The boxes were decorated in baby blue and pink with all sorts of "do-dads" on them.

The Central Jr. and Riley Girl Reserves were also invited.

Logansport Past State Champs

Logansport, Central's afternoon opponent, has won 18 games out of 28. They, too, have been past state champions and boast an even chance Saturday.

The Bears, with an enviable record of 23 wins against 3 losses, are given a slight nod over Logansport due to the fact that Riley of South Bend beat the Bruin rival in regular schedule play earlier this season and Central has beaten Riley twice.

Very little prediction concerning Saturday's outcome may be made in that all four teams are comparatively even and that any one of them could easily win.

SENIORS ATTEND THIRD CAREER CONFERENCE IN SERIES

The third in the series of 12B Career Conferences were held this morning in various Central rooms. The 12A's were invited to attend. The talks given are listed below:

Medicine as a Career, Dr. F. R. Nicholas Carter, Sheridan Building.

Careers in Music, Miss Effie Harman, Supervisor of Music in South Bend schools.

What Can the Home Economics Trained Girl Do?, Mrs. Gladys Staples, Dietician at Central High School.

Occupations in the Newspaper Field, Charles Egenroad, Reporter, South Bend Tribune.

What Boys in High School Ought to Know About the Navy, Chief Gunner's Mate, James F. Williams.

The conferences are under the leadership up pupil leaders and their committees.

FROM MORGUE TO DARKROOM

The Interlude is relinquishing sole possession of its old room next to room 311 for use as a dark room. The Interlude makes use of this room at present for its "morgue". The members of the old photography clubs at Central and other responsible individuals will use the newly prepared dark room for developing, printing, and enlarging.

ARE YOU A "DUST GATHERER"?

We are, or at least we should be at this critical time, conscious of making the most of every bit of material and time. Did it ever occur to us that we could save a great amount of time throughout the day? Loitering about the halls is too common a practice for many of us. Those few minutes before class or during the noon hour could be used to look over a lesson or to read a bit. At any rate when we stand about in the halls it causes unpleasant congestion. If we have to talk to a friend it would be wiser for us to walk along the halls and do the talking, because, at least, we are getting exercise.

Let's get in the habit of making use of those extra minutes instead of leaning against the walls and watching dust gather.

FOOLS' NAMES

Most of Central's 2,330 and some odd students have been able to overcome the temptation of marking in fee books. However, there are still a few students who insist upon turning down corners of pages, and in marking references with a pencil.

Don't you like to get a nice clean fee book at the beginning of the semester? So does everyone else — including the person who, next semester, will get the book you have now.

We want books to hold our interest, and to help us in our studies. So if you're one of those guilty persons who have been marking in fee books, won't you think next time before you write in an answer?

Every Bit Helps

FACE THE FACTS

Stop and notice the smart new dolman-sleeved (comes just below the elbow) sweater made of wool jersey and tailored just like a shirt. Glittering white buttons march in single file down the front.

Look at a big knit woolly cardigan piped in blazing red. Grand to slip into when you're in a rush and haven't time to fuss around.

Listen to the sensation the two-tone surplice sweater is creating. Can be found in any colors you can name.

Traffic jam caused by stripes — the cutest by a surplice dress of rayon jersey, full skirt, and slit pockets.

Stop the herd in a bright red woolen dress with sugary scrolls of peasant embroidery and elbow length sleeves.

Go to school with your best foot forward, clad in raven red leather shoes with blue soles and cowhide shoe strings—strings are guaranteed never to break!

Danger ahead when you appear in a glass spring flowered necklace. When you wear matching colored ear-rings—when you pin a silly oriental wooden man on your sweater.

FOR GIRLS ONLY

Hey there, all you fellas! Are you a wallflower? Are you alone and forsaken the night of a girl-bid dance? Does it seem as though you'll never please the "weaker" sex? Well boys, joes, and gentlemen—here is the answer to your questions. . . .

What the girls rave about most is your smugness and conceit. Wait a minute. Don't get huffy. They admit that a young man needs a modest bit of self-confidence to get on in this world, but they want you to notice especially the word modest. You may be God's gift to women but it's more fun for them to find it out for themselves.

Secondly, they notice what you wear and how you groom yourself more than you think. You yell about their clothes, yet you run around looking like a fugitive from a home for decrepit zombies. Those sloppy sweat shirts, pants that look like they went the last mile a year ago are out; as for the engineer caps, they don't enhance your beauty but if you can stand them they can, and those snowflake sweaters, or whatever they are, are the best fad you put out in years. As for grooming, greasy hair that's long enough to curl makes them shudder. And about your hands, keep them clean for goodness sakes and don't think it's sissy to clean your nails 'cause nothing riles the gals up more.

Another thing I heard a lot about is thoughtfulness and with that—politeness. This isn't the dark ages nor do you have to play Sir Walter Raleigh, but give them some consideration.

There's something about that "cared for" feeling that warms a girl's heart. From what I gather, the girls like sweetness to an extent. Come on, tell her how nice she looks, a good line never hurt anyone. Then too, there isn't a girl alive that doesn't respond to a bit of that "you're mine—cave man" stuff. But not too much of that! No one wants to be ruled. It's up to you to decide the happy medium.

Last of all, what they're really looking for is a boy that's a good sport, one that's fun to be with. You don't have to talk all the time to be fun, for there is nothing lovable about a person that's forever spilling his so-called wit about. Kid in your two-bits here and there, and people will appreciate you more. Then, give her a chance to shine once in a while and leave a little time for serious talking or just a little soothing silence!

PLATTER CHATTER

By Jim Cole

A sharp, up and coming orchestra recently heard in South Bend was Hal Leonard and crew who hail from the glorious state of Minnesota! Featured with this band was a group called the "Triple Tounding Trio". The trio was composed of Leonard and his other two trumpeters. They really displayed their ability on "The Bells of St. Mary's", "Chiribiribin", and Hal himself was really tacky on "The Flight of the Bumble Bee", and "The Carnival of Venice." Local critics said that Hal Leonard was better than the noted Max Greer, but not quite as good as Ken Nolan who plays in Chicago! He was really appreciated in our community!

Students take notice! The S. P. U. R.'s will give their Shamrock Shag after school in the gym on March 17. This will be perhaps the finest dance given in school this year. Buy your tickets (10c) from any S. P. U. R. right away. Be sure and go!!!

Records for the week are: "I'll Never Forget", by Hal McIntyre; "She'll Always Remember", by anyone; "Melancholy Baby", reissued by Harry James plus numerous violins.

OUR WINNERS

All of us extend our congratulations to another fine Central basketball team. The boys have brought honor and praise not only to themselves but to their school as well. At the beginning of the basketball season, few were ready to predict that they would make the brilliant record which is theirs. Neither did we realize that they possessed those qualities which go to make a winning team. Why have they been so successful? Mr. Wooden, in commenting on their success, said that these boys had the will to win. They worked together to accomplish the thing most desired, victory, and they have had their share of it. We are proud of their accomplishments, and the work of their coaches. Mr. Wooden and his assistants Mr. Stewart and Mr. Kindy have done a fine job. All of Central is pulling for them to win at Hammond on Saturday. With the support of every loyal Centralian they will carry on successfully to the end.

Bear Barrage, 51-21

The rambling Bears rolled on to the semi-finals Saturday night when they defeated a fighting band of Goshen Redskins 38-31 at the John Adams gym.

The Bruins entered last Saturday night's game by virtue of their crushing 51-21 triumph over Fulton, Saturday afternoon at John Adams, which game was played before a capacity crowd of 3,700 fans. The Bears found little trouble in defeating the small, but fast quintet of Fulton in their first game of the afternoon; but the story of the evening thriller is somewhat different, inasmuch as the outcome was somewhat in doubt into the heart of the latter periods.

Howell Leads Assault

After a somewhat jittery first-half, the Bears were on the long end of a 17-12 lead at the intermission. Captain Parson Howell, high man for the Bruins, widened the Bears' lead in the third quarter with a pair of lay-in shots which gave Central a seven-point advantage that was never relinquished.

The final gun ended the Redskins' last stand; but gave the Bruins the distinction of having won the regional crown for the second consecutive year.

BEAT LOGANSPOORT!!

The Bears have chalked up six straight tournament victories and in doing so have for the second time in as many years won both the Sectional and Regional titles. Their season record now stands 23 wins against but three losses.

Mr. Pointer announced that tickets for the Semi-finals Saturday costing $1.10, this includes all three games in the afternoon and evening, would be on sale until 4:30 this afternoon, after which all tickets unsold would be sent back to Hammond.

Having missed but one outcome in my predictions last week I'm back again to give you my predictions for Saturday.

Central over Logansport, 35-31.
Horace Mann over Frankfort, 37-20.
Central over Horace Mann, 28-27.

able your services become and the richer you get. However, the nearer our Bears get to the state basketball championship the less of the gate receipts they find coming into Central's treasury. A check for $478 has been received at Central as her share from the sectionals. From this meet the state association took only 1% of the balance after expenses were paid. In the case of the regionals, however, the state takes 50% of the balance after expenses are covered. The balance is pro-rated among the schools entered with season ticket sales one deciding factor. From the semi-finals and finals the participating teams are allowed expenses for board, lodging, and travel and are granted a $200 bonus. The state organization then takes all over expenses.

 orite song (for a sentimental reason) is Rose O'Day.

Wiley, (no relation to the vacuum cleaner) Hoover is a contribution of the C team for whom he played outstanding ball.

Don Hack, southpaw forward with plenty of scoring power. Don believes his actions speak louder than his words.

Dean "Dizzy" Bowker, a wolf in "Bear's" clothing. Dean's specialties are basketball, dancing, and gals.

John, "point-a-minute," Hazen. Johnny is an alumni of Muessel School, where he made his debut as a basketball player. He is an authority on the technology of hayrides.

As has been customary in former years, work on the calendar for the coming school year has been started. Any clubs or groups wishing any place in the 1942-43 calendar should contact Miss Ethel Montgomery as soon as possible. Only those activities that are of general interest to the whole school or a class can be listed.

GRAND LEADER

S. P. U. R.'S LABELED CHARITY AND DEFENSE WORKERS

This week the Interlude highlights the S. P. U. R. club, a group of young ladies who get a great many things done in a short time towards raising funds for charitable organizations. They sell popcorn and ice cream for this purpose.

Active in civilian defense and war work, the group rolls gauze bandages during business discussion at the meetings, sews for the Red Cross on Wednesday's after school, and has enrolled in the bicycle corps and a first aid class.

The club is sponsoring "The Shamrock Shag", a dance to be given March 17, after school in the gym.

The officers of the club are: President Pat Moore; Vice President, Carolyn Carlisle; Secretary, Ginny Manby; Treasurer, Mary Lois Coquillard; and Sponsor, Miss L. McReynolds.

Amateurs Devise Telescopes
 Amateurs in this country have made at least 25,000 telescopes. Most of these can be used to bolster National Defense because they can be pressed into the service as important tools for airplane spotters.

With a telescope arranged for terrestrial observation, speedy and accurate information can be obtained quickly. An amateur telescope club could arrange among themselves to attend the instrument 24 hours per day. In that way the club would render valuable assistance. — Science Service.

Survey Shows Rubber Use
 That Central students save leather was indicated last week when a survey of student bus riders was made. A total of 599 students reported that they rode the bus to school in the morning and 551 used the same service on the way home. Behind the survey was the matter of congestion on the carrier lines during the morning and evening rest periods. Whether school hours will be changed to relieve the situation was not indicated by Principal P. D. Pointer.
