

BOYS SCARCE

This semester the enrollment at Central has decreased from 2339 of last year at this time to 2151. Of this number 1100 are girls and 1051 boys, as compared to last year's 1163 girls and 1176 boys. In the junior high there is a total of 481 pupils, including 256 girls and 225 boys.

MEET LIBRARY

The first library period of this semester was held for the 8B's this morning, and the second will be held tomorrow morning for the 10B's. The purpose of these periods is to acquaint new students with the library, as a knowledge of how to use fully the services offered by the library is most helpful.

DE CAPO DEBUT

Soon after club periods begin for this semester, the Barnstormers will present "Aria de Capo" to the Drama Club in the little Theater. The author of the play, Edna St. Vincent Millay, is a poet who ranks among the highest in her field today.

"Aria de Capo" means that the end of the play is like the beginning. The play continues until the word "fini" is reached, which means "the end." Then you return to the beginning and play the last act.

This sort of play is quite new and will give the Barnstormers much pleasure and experimentation. It is a bitter play, full of high comedy, centering around two characters: Pierrot, the husband and his wife, Colombine.

"Aria de Capo" was witnessed by Mr. Casady at Amherst College some time ago, where he became interested in the idea of presenting it at Central.

WRITER'S CRAMP

Comes Monday morning, comes much scribbling with the pencils, much scratching with the pens, and much aching of the hands. The reason, each student must fill out an annual set of program cards which go to the different offices.

OPEN HOUSE

For the Junior and Senior girls interested in nursing, the Epworth and St. Joseph Hospital held Open House Wednesday, January 27, between 4:00 p. m. and 6:00 p. m. All girls who were interested signed up with Mr. Fulwider.

SR. ANNOUNCEMENT

Senior A's who want graduation announcements, must order them on Wednesday, February 3. All orders are to be in on that day with a 25-cent deposit to the company representative.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Plans are being made for an inter-club basketball tournament. A meeting of club representatives was held Monday and the dates of the tournament and days of practice will be announced next week.

This tournament is being held for the purpose of furthering the physical fitness program being sponsored in all high schools. So let's everyone of us get out there and support our club!

HONOR HOME ROOM OF THE WEEK—114.

Miss Frick's Home Room pupils loaned $43.60 to Uncle Sam last week and gained possession of the Student Council Banner for a second time.

INTRODUCE CLUBS

Next Wednesday Central's various clubs will be presented to the Sophomores and other new students. Representatives of the various clubs are to be chosen and posted on the bulletin board in the office. The representatives will tell the new students something about his club in order to help the newcomers decide which club to join.

SOPHS VISIT LIBRARY

As is the customary procedure, the new Sophomores will have their library periods on the following days during:

Friday, January 29, Mr. Barnbrook's and Mr. Crowe's rooms will go to the library; Wednesday, February 3, Mr. Cross' and Miss Ellis' rooms; and on Friday, February 5, the Sophs of Mr. Keltner's and Mr. Sanford's rooms will attend the period.

This beneficial period is offered to acquaint the students with the many helpful points about the library.

Student Governors Form Intercity Council.

Plans for an Intercity Council, consisting of the officers of the Student Councils of all high schools in South Bend and Mishawaka, have been completed. The first meeting will be held on February 2 at 7:30 p. m. in the Mishawaka High school.

The officers of Central's Student Council will outline our organization of selling Bonds and Stamps, the Intramural basketball tournament, and will endeavor to return with plans for activities and projects from the other members. The purpose of the Intercity Council is to bring about collaboration and sharing of ideas between the high schools of the cities.

The intramural basketball program has also been completed. Teams are urged to obtain entry blanks and place them in the box in the main hall before February 3. The elimination tournament starts Monday, February 8.

MAKIELSKI ROTARY GUEST

The senior A home room students have cast their votes in favor of John Makielski in the election of Central's Rotary representative for the current semester. John, who is president of the senior class, president of the student council, president of the Junior Anti-Tuberculosis League, captain of the varsity swimming team, an active Smiler, and a member of The Interlude staff, is replacing Bill Happ, who was Rotary representative last semester.

The ever capable Makielski, along with the delegates from the other local high schools, will attend the Rotary luncheons throughout the term. At the end of the semester each representative is called upon to give a speech on his impressions of the organization.

Wooden's Charges Risk Top Notch Honors On Cavemen Floor.

Central's top-ranking team in the state will face the powerful Mishawaka Cavemen Friday night at the Mishawaka gym in an attempt to regain the lead in the conference race which the Cavemen hold due to the fact that they have won one more conference game than the Bears.

The vastly improving Cavemen were well up in the top twenty teams in the state until they were knocked off by a hot Riley team 38-20 last week. A game in which big Dean Trump, Mishawaka star pivot man was held to two free throws.

Trump will undoubtedly present the Bears with their biggest problem in the game Friday night but after stopping Rochester's big center they will know how to handle Mr. Trump. Paul Johnston, Maroon footballer, is also developing into quite a wizard from far out on the court.

Mishawaka after its stinging defeat at the hands of Riley will be ready to take vengeance on Central while the Bears, flush with their victory over Rochester, will have to fight down the impulse to become overconfident.

Earlier this season the Bruins and the Cavemen meet at Adams in a not-too-interesting affair in which Central won 46-33. Since then both teams have made great improvements and this game will prove to be another of our Adams and Rochester type games.

The probable starting lineups:

Central		Mishawaka
Powers	F	Katt
Jagodzinski	F	Johnston
Bond	C	Trump
Toth	G	Umbaugh
Taylor	G	Sanders

WILSON SPEAKS

Dr. Howard E. Wilson will speak on "The Social Studies Mobilizes for Victory" this evening at 7:30 in Room 317. All social studies teachers are asked to come and other teachers are invited. Dr. Wilson has traveled extensively through the West and Midwest, under the sponsorship of the National Council for the Social Studies. His lecture should be interesting to all.

NEW EXTENSION COURSES

In a special semester, beginning February 1 and lasting until April 30, the Indiana University Extension division is offering basic freshmen courses in several subjects. These courses are open to students who graduated in January or have 30 high school credits, are recommended by the principal, and will make up the remaining credits. The special session gives regular credit and is offering English, math, science, foreign language, and social studies.

MATH, REFRESHING

Under much discussion by the Senior students is the new Refresher Math Course. Varying opinions are continually expressed as to the necessity of such a subject and the comparative benefits to be derived from it. Opinions pro and con from the students sum up with the feeling that:

1. Students without the ability to pass the test need the course.
2. Whether the pupil made a passing grade or not, the course would be of benefit to them.
3. The course makes a classification of students' mental abilities.
4. Due to the course, needed study periods must be forfeited.

From the faculty, the main attitude is that though they feel students would object to the Refresher Math Course, they cooperated fully and enthusiastically.

Most Central students, when subscribing to the Interlude, look forward to reading only their one particular column.

Of course, there is nothing wrong in reading your special column, because almost everyone does first, but the rest of the paper is just as important and interesting. The news stories, editorials, announcements, and advertisements, are all designed and written for your benefit and interest.

If you want to keep up with the school life—and not miss a thing, read your whole school paper and look forward to enjoying all its interesting features!

OFF BEAT

"Hogging" the musical spotlight this week is the Stan Kenton jam session billed for next Saturday night at the Palais. This extraordinary congregation of opulent advocates of synopated rhythm, which rocked and rolled Chicago night-club shufflers with their ever so solid "out of this world" jive, is to make its second appearance in our fair city. Judging by the tremendous mitt-pounding which accompanied their December show the unit undoubtedly made as big a hit with the S. B. hoofers as it did with the windy city crowd. So dig deep, lads (and I'm not kidding about this deep business), and date your ballroom queens because unless I miss my guess, you aristocrats who plan to attend will jump to the riffs of a strictly A-1 band.

All in Fun—Really!

Celia Zonenburg is another talented Glee Club member who promises to be a howling success! . . . Helen Jo Lane no longer sings in her church choir. She was absent one Sunday and someone asked if the organ had been repaired. . . . Some one who didn't like Dick Lamar's parents bought young Dick a drum.

Returning a Blow:

Centralians all know Platter Chatter's Johnny Bergan but what they don't know is that our amicable Junior friend is related to famed ventriloquist, Edgar Bergan . . . by way of Charlie McCarthy. Seriously, "J. B." has a good head on his shoulders—and the same one every night, too, for you see, when Johnny isn't scribbling for the Interlude or splashing around in the Central pool, he's serenading pretty little Betty McCarthy. Off the record, when nicer guys than Johnny Bergan come along, yours truly will be the first to shake their hands. —"R. T."

THE WASH

Well, little and large chums:

This six-period schedule certainly keeps us goin' with no time for Joe-in'. . . . Remember Grimm's Fairy Tales? Well, Mr. Fulwider's middle name is Griselda. . . . Now classes are somewhat settled, it seems we have with us some younger talent than usual (maybe Providence is trying to get back in us girls' graces after whisking away such male notables as Jack Uldin, George Gemberling, Eddie Meehan, Hank Froning, Bill Happ, John Zigler, etc.), soooo the grammar schools proudly present: Bill(y) Welshimer, and if ever there was a handsome little guy!!!! . . . "Teeny" Brazy, who's anything but! . . . And then on the petticoat side: Bettylou McCarthy, "the pride o' Diamond Lake" . . . Joan Shanafelt, who promises to be as cute as sister, Carolyn.

We wish we'd see: Hoby Smith and Pat Hukill get together . . . Ken Tupper lose some of that shyness . . . More of Eddie Glaser.

Around February 21, 1926, at 8:00 SHARP, the Tivins were blessed by a little Roy who anticipated George Washington's birthday by one day—no lie! Anyway, he eventually wound up at this educational institution where his activities include band, orchestra, writing for the Interlude on its "off" week, and gracing the boards and greasepaint in dramatic efforts. Plays clarinet by note — $10 down, and a note for the balance.

Likes: Food (especially spud pancakes), chemistry, swing moosic, and Maxine Levenson.

Dislikes: "Cats" (dig, dig).

At present, he's a shoe salesman, but has ambitions in a medical direction — "baby" specialist . . . uh, huh!!!

As the man said as he went into the F. B. I. office, "Keep 'em spying."

Verie Sauer Says

Dear Aunt Verie:

Hast heard or seen the budding romance between Dolores Woofter and Manford Redifer? (signed), Cupide.

Dear Cupide:
Entendu!

Amour,

Mlle. Sauer.

It's been so quiet and peaceful in the Hodson-Welch direction, we nearly forgot they were around . . . er . . . they are, aren't they?

Why won't "Red" Kuespert tell who's the O. A. O.? South Bend laddie?

Heard: Effie Zigler loudly bemoaning the man-shortage and dateless week-ends . . . well, fellows?!

Notice those two new super-cute soph wolves, Johnny Ripper and Bob "soup" St. Clair.

Nifty romance between Flossie Mickley and steady Don Tuttle.

The eternal triangle: Mildred Stevason, Eddie Glaser, Rachel Taylor. Can't say we blame the gals. . . .

Charming, delightful—Loretta May. Come on, "Ot"—fess up

Cute little chicken with plenty of fine feathers: Geneva Pryweller.

Aunt Verie would give her last cup of coffee! yes, her last pound of butter! for red locks like Pat Billingsley's.

Praise the Lord and Pass the Nutrition—Danny Armstrong.

Why won't this pen write — Any "INTERLUDE" reporter trying to make a deadline.

Ruth Hodes seems to think that a "Jack" is an ace; maybe it's because Cupid's dealing the cards.

Never a dull movement with Mercedes Gassensmith around.

Let's see more of Dot Meyers-Lee Wolf (no kiddin', that's his name) Brazy. . . . Phyl Kramer-Bill Buhler. . . . Beanie Wermuth-Tom ("nearly in the service") Anton.

If ever "Miss You" was anyone's theme song it's Kath McCaffrey's!!!

The latest member of the "So Young and So Depraved" club . . . Bob Malone.

Ace of aces: Alice Schafer.

Aunt Verie says: The fire in the average Central's girl's eye is thoroughly quenched by water on the brain. (Oh, how nasty!!)

Our candidate for one of the swellest teachers at Ye Oulde Highe Schoole is Mr. Schultz.

Good lookin' little Jack Woodard is Beverly Snyder's secret beau . . . hear that, Jackie?

Jim Daly, Leo Kazmierczak, and Jim Smith are employing their time splendidly these days at the Elk's Club.

Maxine Levenson has been stepping out high, wide and handsome these days, huh, Roy?

Those two Robertsons, Roy and Gene, seem to have Margaret Mitchell in something of a quandry.

Add to the list of cute couples: Alice Monhaut and Wayne Matthews.

Nice gal, good pal: Pat Smanda.

WHAT COULD BE DONE TO IMPROVE THE "INTERLUDE"?

Miss Geyer: "I would like to see a student literary section."

Miss Semortier: "To me, it satisfies all interests and requires no improvements."

Mr. Peden: "I'd like some color added, maybe on holidays."

Mrs. Bartlett: "I think it would be helpful to the English Dept. to title the articles with literary quotations."

SHOP SCOUT

Murry Hertz: "Hey, that wasn't the tooth I wanted pulled!"

Dr. Jones: "Now calm yourself. I'm coming to the right one."

We're not pulling your leg when we say Carlton's take really fine pictures. For graduation and just for remembrance sake, Carlton's is the last word.

Bob Darden: "When I was in the army, we studied cootie arithmetic." Jackie Doyle: "Cootie arithmetic!—what have cooties to do with arithmetic?"

"Come Again" Darden: "Well, they added to our troubles, subtracted from our pleasures, divided our attention, and oh, how they multiplied!"

You don't have to be very schooled in arithmetic to know that your finances are added to when you shop at Max Adler's.

REGRET

A graduate of Central came in last week to get a transcript of his grades. His record was asked for by the officer in charge of the branch of war service he was entering. The transcript was made out and after he had time to look it over, he called me to ask if some mistake had been made. His record showed that he was in the lower third of his graduating class. He could not believe that he was so low. In order to get the position he was applying for it was necessary for him to rank in the upper third. Naturally, he was disgusted because he knew that he could have done better. He admitted that he had taken his high school work too lightly. He then made this interesting comment, "I wish that all high school students would realize the importance of good grades. I am ashamed of my record here and if I could make it over, it would be more in keeping with my ability."

Every Central student should seriously consider this statement especially at the beginning of this new semester.

ROCHESTER ZEBRAS TOPPLED BY TITLE HUNGRY BEARS

A new king ascended the throne of Indiana basketball Monday night when Central's Bears defeated the Zebras of Rochester in one of the closest and hardest fought games to be played on the Adams hardwood to date.

Central started slowly, taking eight shots before they connected for a counter. After that the nets swished alternately, each team leading at various times, stopping finally with a 17-17 tie at the half. The second half was sparked by Jimmy Powers' constantly stealing the ball, Jag's unerring eye for the bucket and Buddy Bond's excellent defensive play in guarding King, the long, lanky Rochester center.

Then came that eventful last 60 seconds. With the score 32-31 in their favor the Bruins stalled and Rochester tried desperately to get the ball. With five seconds to go Tom Taylor started to put the game on ice with an under the basket shot but the ball rebounded into the arms of a Rochester player who went down and shot. In the act of shooting he was fouled, the basket did not count, and he was entitled to two free throws. Unfortunately for him he missed both of them. Two seconds of time remained. The gun ended the game with Central on top 32-31.

Box score:

Some three thousand people who were at John Adams Monday night saw one of the most thrilling basketball games of their lives when Central defeated Rochester 32-31. It was a game with chills and spills throughout with almost a story-book ending. With less than five seconds to go a Rochester man stole the ball off the backboard and raced down the court. He shot and made it 33-32 in favor of Rochester; the gun sounded and the Rochester fans were deliriously happy. Truly a story-book ending. But there is an epilogue to this story, written by Jimmy Powers, who fouled the hero while in the act of shooting. This nullified the basket and gave the tall Rochester center two free throws. Another chance to be the hero of the game but here our story changes. Luck, a prayer from the Central side, or nervousness may have been the cause for he failed to make either shot. It was over and South Bend Central's Bears left the floor victors over the number one team in the state.

oOo

It seems that with South Bend being such a basketball minded city and games being as important as they are that the schools should get some referees that could come closer to the satisfaction of everyone involved. Granted that it is human to make mistakes there is still a limit to what one can forgive in such important occasions as last Monday night. With better officials to call plays with more accuracy there will much be less unsportsmanlike conduct as displayed by the fans of both teams last Monday.

oOo

The "B" team lost their first game of the season Monday night when they were defeated by the John Adams "B" squad who substituted for Rochester, 21-19. The Rochester "B" team was unable to make the trip due to transportation difficulties.

oOo

A new city ruling has finally ended the heated argument as to when and how long spring football practice should continue. The new ruling states that spring football practice should start immediately after the school's basketball team has been eliminated from the state tournament and continue for a period of one month. This rule is being accepted with the hope of eliminating much of the unfairness present previously. Coaches who had track or basketball were unable to devote their time to spring football as they gave certain teams many more days of vital practice.

BEAR FACTS (Cont'd.)

The county basketball tournament which was run off over the week-end is a good indication of the outcome of the sectionals as far as county teams are concerned. Washington-Clay, winner of the tournament, is undoubtedly the best non-city team in the area and it will be interesting to see what they can do against a city team at tournament time.

Another stirring event in the coming sectionals will be seeing Carl Lloyd of Woodrow Wilson, who scored 56 points during the tournament.

Thus the seniors are champions for the first semester, but only time can tell about next semester???

Additional team tryouts were held last night and new teams will be announced next week.

BATTLE CREEK DUNKS BEARS, 54-12

Central swimmers in a telegraphic meet last Friday at the Natatorium dropped the first meet of the year to Battle Creek's wonder boys, 54-12. But spurred on by Johnny Makielski, ace diver and captain, Coach Elbel's boys took on Froebel and Kalamazoo on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week, and they will meet Lew Wallace here Saturday. Central's well-rounded team will have no starring swimmers this year and the loss of Kujawa and Porter will be felt, but Jim Miller, Paul Nelson, and Bill Borough are good enough for the best Lew Wallace has to offer.

Swimming for Central will be:
40-yd.: Bradley and Makielski;
100-yd. Breaststroke: Borough and Handwork; 220-yd.: Miller and Freeman; 100-yd. Backstroke: Nelson and Bergan; 100-yd.: Slack and Fleming; Diving: Makielski and Mortenson; Medley Relay: Nelson and Borough; Free Style Relay: Freeman and Fleming.
