

Additional Comet Members

Additional new members to the Comets Club this year are James Horning, Vincent Daube, Bob Sellers, and James Skoving. The Club is sponsored by Mr. Jack Nash.

Junior Red Cross Drive

The annual drive for funds for the Junior Red Cross opened on November 1, and will continue until November 15. Donations will be accepted until November 8, for the Junior High Students, and November 9 for the Senior High Students.

The goal for this year is 10c per person. Last year $163.00 was collected by this agency. Each student contributing to this fund will receive a membership card and a Red Cross Pin. Home rooms in which all students contribute will receive a Red Cross emblem to display on the doors of their rooms.

Tankmen Begin Practice

The Central varsity swimming team under the guidance of Coach Clarence Elbel will begin practicing for the 1944-45 swimming season this week.

The Bruin tank squad had been practicing for several weeks under Captain John Bergan. Bergan assumed the coaching duties because of the absence of Coach Elbel who took over control of the junior high football team.

The defending conference champs got into good condition and had a few time trials, but now training will really begin. It's not too far in the future when the Bear Swimmers will be having meets.

This year's squad is not without experience because returning from last season's tankers are: Ernie Hood, John Noble, Eugene Hahaj and Jim Herman. This year had a large turnout and this may be a good omen.

P. T. A. News

At the last P. T. A. meeting, on October 4, the topic of the year, Postwar Planning for the Community, was discussed. Mr. Weber spoke on Postwar Jobs. Mothers of 12 pupils served as hostesses at the tea. The next scheduled meeting will be a chicken-pie supper from 5:00 to 7:00 P. M. Nov. 14, the night of open house.

The following officers were elected and appointed: President, Mrs. Herman Glaser, Jr.; 1st Vice-president, Mrs. Irving Baim; 2nd Vice-president, Miss Montgomery; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Laremer; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Dale Row; Treasurer, Mrs. H. Jodon.

Board of Directors: Mr. Pointer, Mrs. W. Casey, Mrs. H. Reed, Miss Semortier. Mrs. Baim was appointed program chairman; Mrs. K. Banthman, Character Education; Mrs. A. Slack, Music; Mrs. C. Bepchem, Hospitality.

Membership, Mrs. W. Tewelzki; Publicity, Mrs. W. Casey; Publication, Mrs. C. Carr; Study Group, Mrs. Alex Weirouch; Legislation, Mr. Blanchard, Jr. Production, Mr. Harter; Standard of Excellence, Mrs. I. Noland; Health, Miss Watts. Room Representative, Mrs. M. Freidline; Radio, Mrs. L. Byers, and Budgets, Mrs. Jodon.

War Stamp and Bond sales totaled $182.70 for last week (3 days). This brings our year total to $4,779.00 but we are still $3,525.75 behind our own record. This week the stamp banner was awarded to room 115, the pupils of this room having purchased $16.00 worth of stamps. So far there are 27 rooms that have 100% and two rooms that have 90%. The other 27 rooms have not reported.

CENTRAL BEARS TO PLAY RILEY CATS ON SATURDAY

BRUINS OUT FOR REVENGE

Now that Central has put Mishawaka to one side, the Bears can look ahead to the Riley game coming this Saturday. The Bears are out for revenge this year because of the 13-6 defeat the Cats gave us last year.

The Cats, spearheaded by Bob Hartman, Jim Whippo in the backfield, and Ernie Kovatch in an end spot hope to put Central out of the running place in the conference. The winner of this game Saturday at School Field will undoubtedly put themselves in the second place in the conference race and both teams will be out to insure that the other won't be getting any honor for coming close to Washington.

This game Saturday will be mighty tough and just because the Bears downed Mishawaka doesn't mean that the Cats can't come back and tie for second place and end that tie, with Central tying for third.

Riley has lost only one game. This was to Washington. The Cats have had several tough games this season and have shown up very well in all of them.

Debaters Are Preparing

Twelve prospective Central debaters are working every afternoon in room 222 on the national high school debate subject, "Resolved, That the voting age should be lowered to eighteen years." The varsity team has not been selected yet and no inter-school debates have as yet taken place, but Central is planning to hold an invitational debate tourney on December 9, which will be attended by teams from all northern Indiana, and some from Michigan and Indiana. This should give some valuable practice and experience to eight to twelve Central participants. On January 20, Central debaters will attend a tourney at LaPorte.

Barbara Hagerty is the only member of last year's County and District Championship team left to add experience to a new team.

BRADEMAS CHAIRMAN OF INTER-CITY COUNCIL

The Inter-City Student Council is now in its third successful year. The last function it performed was our recent mock election, which was planned for the entire school city. Each school rotates as a host for the members of the council. Anti-vandalism speakers were appointed and elected for Riley, Adams, and Central. Barbara Hagerty and Dick Cortright represented Central at Riley on Wednesday before Hallowe'en. Louis McKinney, president from Adams, Dick Harmon from Riley and John Brademas (Chairman) from Central serve as presiding chairmen. Faith Campbell of Riley is secretary. Barbara Hagerty, Evelyn Manuszak, and Dick Cortright are the other Central members. Future plans are being laid for the monthly meetings.

Civitan Club Gives Party

The Civitan's Club of South Bend gave a Hallowe'en party in Pottawatomie Park Tuesday afternoon for all those students who signed pledges stating they would refrain from vandalism. School was dismissed early so students could attend.

ROOSEVELT WINS IN POLL

If American high school students were of legal voting age and could participate in the November presidential election, a strong majority of them would cast their votes for Franklin D. Roosevelt, according to a survey just completed by the Institute of Student Opinion under the sponsorship of Scholastic Magazines. Of the 102,051 high school students polled in all sections of the United States, 56.5 per cent would vote for Roosevelt, 38.5 per cent would vote for Dewey, and 5 per cent were undecided.

A majority of both boy and girl voters favored the re-election of President Roosevelt, but the girls gave him a higher percentage of their vote than did the boys. Fifty-eight per cent of the girls would vote for Roosevelt, 37 per cent for Dewey, and five per cent were undecided. Among the boys 55 per cent favored Roosevelt, 40 per cent Dewey, five per cent were undecided.

This semester's pledges to the S. P. U. R. club are: Charlotte Senger, Vivian Anton, Martha Snyder, Irene Curry, Dona Wilson, Gertie Kresztes, Gloria Hawthorne, Lucille Bartozek and Shirley Babcock.

HOW TIMES HAVE CHANGED!

French, German, Spanish Departments To Give Skits

French, German, and Spanish classes will participate in the traditional Modern Language Assembly, which is held every three years, on November 8 and 9.

The French department's contribution will be a one-act play entitled "Hunger is a Great Inventor." The play is under the direction of Miss Jeanne Gienand and concerns the plight of two American soldiers in Normandy because of their failure to understand French. The set and costumes are by Mr. J. L. Casaday. Lois Garnitz is the student director, and the cast includes:

The Inkeeper.....Stanley Tsalikis
Marie Vivian Anton
Colette Fay Bihary
Dick (a soldier).....Walter Butcher
Bob (his Buddy)..... Bob Ott
The Inkeeper's Wife.....Lois Garnitz
Pierre Victor Chaco
Villagers—Esther Varga, Anna Marie Pasalich, Ronnie Woodhull, Donna DuComb, Frances Slack, Gloria Glickman, Bonnie Byers, Francianne Ivick, Betty Arbuckle, Joan Shanafelt, Barbara King, Gloria Ferbrache, Shirley Stevenson, Janet Troeger, Aletha Orlea, Mary Jane Kalo, Shirley Brundige, Barbara Jackson, Shirley Kraus, Frances Bukoll, and Jeanette Jones.

Soldiers—Robert Howe, Leroy Stokes, Charles Hurwich, Richard Rehm, William Stroud, Marshall Ware, Charles Hillman, Robert Holdeman, Robert Morton, Alan Haber, and Russell Lindholm.

Trevona Bartlett will be the accompanist.

Schnitzelbank

"Schnitzelbank," the interlude to be presented by Miss Esther Devin's German classes, is under the direction of Harvey Feiwell, who is being assisted by Vivian Anton and Trevona Bartlett, the accompanist. It will be given by the following group: Alex Berta, Jack Bowland, Charles Budd, Walter Butcher, Robert Engel, James Flowers, Arthur Gau, Gerald Glaser, Ray Gloyeski, Morris Goldberg, John Gordon, June Halterman, Thelma Howell, Dick Huffer, Lorraine Kreuger, Norma Lois Jones, Frank Koloszar, Bob Lindgren, Harold Nichols, Lyle Pauszek, Thomas Pauszek, James Pier, George Resnik, Donald Ritschard, Fred Ritschard, Beatrice Rommel, Vivian Rhoades, Mary Elizabeth West, Don Schleuder, Kathryn Wetter, Harold Whiteman, and Alfred Walker.

Illustrative posters have been prepared by Eugene Ackard, Norma Lois Jones, Louis Kiskowski, Lorraine Kreuger, Julius Papai, and John Smith. Bob Keresztes, from the Mechanical Drawing Department, contributed the "Wagenrad" and Allen Cobb, of the Art Department, painted the "Affengesicht."

The Spanish part of the assembly, directed by Miss Antoinette Ceyak, consists of songs and dances typical of Spanish speaking countries. The opening number, "La Feria de las

THE IDEAL TEACHER

By the time we reach high school, most of us have had a good opportunity to form an idea of what makes the ideal teacher.

The first qualification for our ideal teacher would be respect for us as students. No student likes the feeling that he is being looked down upon by his teacher and it is difficult to have respect for a teacher when the feeling is not mutual.

As teachers vary widely in their methods, the ideal teacher would also have respect for the little differences in teaching methods used by other teachers. For an example, one teacher encourages us to give explanations in our own words. Then later we find a teacher who repudiates this and insists that all definitions must be letter-perfect, or aren't accepted.

A very common complaint among students is directed at teachers who forget that there are other teachers also making assignments for the following day. The ideal teacher would make a practice of allowing a short time in every class period for study, thus giving those students who work after school an opportunity for study.

We students would appreciate it very much if teachers would remember that their way of doing things is new to the class, and that we have other assignments that are just as important and must be prepared. A few moments of study time in class each day would do wonders for those incomplete assignments.

THE IDEAL STUDENT

The qualities which make an ideal student are similar to those which contribute to ideal citizenship. In the first place, he has to strive for a mastery of the problem before him. There are those who are satisfied with putting forth the least amount of effort to "get by", and others who will diligently apply themselves to the tasks before them.

Secondly, an ideal student will go out of his way to be of service to his school and community. If he has special qualifications, he will realize that he can take more responsibility and has a greater obligation for service. A glimpse of the world about us will reveal that those who have made the greatest contributions to the welfare of humanity are those who have done much more than was required of them.

A third characteristic of our ideal boy or girl in school is an interest in a balanced program. He will see in his school environment a wealth of opportunity for maximum development. His lessons come first, but he will try out for plays, take part in club activities, attend the parties and enjoy the fellowship of other students. volunteer for a part in an assembly, find his place in athletics, and promote school spirit in general.

He considers the school environment as one of unusual opportunity for the development of a happy and successful life in the democratic society he too soon will find himself.—Arthur L. Smith.

WHAT'S COOKIN'?

Ooh, it's jueves (I've studied my espanol again). Needles are scratching once more o'er the hot plates of Centralland. Now that we have not filled our ears with Palace big-name bands for some time, we're more than ever crawling to record haunts for musical entertainment.

May I suggest another good Hamp selection. Lionel on "Memories of You" and "The Jumpin' Jive." If you're an Elman man (or woman), take "Ziggin' the Zag" and "You're Mine, You." Another mighty mellow number, a Columbia red-disc, is "The Moment I laid Eyes on You," reversed by "Gordy."

Three cheers for those Centralians who beat and blow in the various local orchestras—the more merry musicians we educate now, the more jazzmen we'll have tomorrow.

As the ballad of the week, take the Ink Spots and Ella Fitzgerald returning on the Decca of "Into Each Life Some Rain Must Fall." "I'm Making Believe" backs it.

Well, 'tis el tiempo to give out with a bit of rah-rah for the penner of the better half of this column every other week. 'Tis Lois Garnitz who turns over great facts to all us lovers of la musica. Her column speaks for herself.

Back from plug to our choice of the hot of the week, we'll take our fill of good Major Glenn Miller's "Slip Horn Jive," a comebacker on Victor, but Muggsy Spanier's "Big Butter and Egg Man" runs a close second. "I'll Be Seeing You" in the disc dens.

MEET

THE FACULTY

You can't find a busier woman in Central than Mrs. Gladys Staples, the head of the Practical Arts Department. Her dark hair and darker, sparkling eyes seem to punctuate her kindly face.

Among her likes you'll find people in general heading the list, and following closely behind, bright colors, all foods (no exceptions), and seeking beauty in the commonplace. When questioned as to her dislikes, Mrs. Staples remarked, "I think students do not take enough pride in their school and its premises; for instance, throwing paper and cones in the hallways."

Mrs. Staples has been at Central for seven years and planned the meals for Central's famished students in the Cafeteria for five years.

She frankly admitted to me that her ambition is to provide opportunities for underprivileged students. How true that is, for when I thanked her for the interview, she handed me three luscious brownies! Thank you again, Mrs. Staples. Central loves you!

What would you do if you were in Hitler's shoes?

Ed Glaser: "Wear them."

Tom Pinkowski: "It would take a better man than I to decide."

Carmelo Ritschard: "Give them away."

Bob Smith: "Run!"

Julia Prikosovich: "Use them for a bomb shelter."

Jackie Doyle: "Reheel them."

Mary Louks: "Jump out of them."

Verie Sauer Says:

Have you noticed all the happy expressions of the Central girls lately? The reason: Dick Muessel arrived in town.

Swell girl with a swell personality; Frances Slack.

Orchids to the queen and her court, who reigned beautifully over the game.

Joan Witter's heart doesn't belong to Central anymore. Just meet her middie and you'll know why.

Pee Wee Oestricher certainly didn't waste any time on his last leave, eh, Betty Christian?

Did you ever see such energy as that expended by the Amigos in their Hickory-stick sale?

Are Norma Jones and Kay Britow permanent installations in Central's hallowed halls? Or maybe they're picketing the place.

And then there's stubborn Fred Moomaw with five invitations to Sadie Hawkins. So he stayed home. Don't you know there's a man shortage, Fred?

What lucky lad will Bet Lou McCarthy choose to console her now that Johnny Bergan is gone.

Congrats to the new Spurs: Gloria Hawthorne, Irene Currey, Dona Wilson, Gertie Kreztes, Martha Snyder, Vivian Anton, Charlotte Senger, Lucille Bartozek, and Shirley Babcock.

Where does Wilbur Laycock's interest lie? He just can't seem to make up his mind!

The Yoder-Culp romance is still running smoothly, or is it?

Seen at Smilers:
Pat Deneen-Nancy Engdahl.
Katie Dumont-Scotty McIntyre.
Bev Snyder-Bill Myers.
Bernie Hultgren-Bernie Looten.
Julie Keresztes-Jack Trent (from Chicago).

Hasn't Eddy Glaser noticed Elaine Kolman yet?

Another "furlough romance" now in full bloom: Pat Wilson - Carter Swartz.

Why is it that Jack Beyrer paces back and forth in front of Room 101 during home period?

Something new: Bill Jackson and Ann Dunnahoo. What about the ring?

Also, Mickley and Dolk, while Bartozek is pining away.

What's the story on the MacLean-Burroughs romance?

Joanne Whitehead and Louis LaPierre (from Adams). Hm, sounds interesting.

Ella Louise Dill is sporting a sharp ring, and she claims it's not from a Central Jackson.

Top man on Margie Manuel's heart throb list is Bryan McCarthy.

No bells to those SPURS who didn't want to take in new members.

Give out, Carol French, about this redhead Irish midshipman whose picture all the Jills are drooling over.

St. John's Military Academy seems to hold something for Gloria Hawthorne in the person of Dick Hazalitte. She's been sporting a sharp hunk of his jewelry since last summer.

An Adams damsel, Peg Kedzie, certainly has Fred Kiesel on the string.

Explanation, please: Tom Cassidy dates Nancy Giordono, but Shirley Clark has his ring.

BUY STAMPS AND BOMBS

Debt is often one of the worst forms of human slavery. It is a mortgage on the future. No wonder the ancient cry of the Lord's Prayer, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors." The habit of earning one's way and of living within one's income are essential to self-respect and personal growth. Emergencies will arise that demand unusual expenditures, but if possible, it is better to anticipate them through savings of insurance than to be reduced to debt by every passing misfortune. There are many temptations to live beyond one's means, so that it is easy to form the habit of being always in debt. By living simply and by doing without for a time one can get ahead and keep ahead. The habit of reasonable thrift gives stability to character. One of the best means of saving is through the purchase of War Savings Stamps and Bonds. Buy regularly each week, so that when you finish high school you will have saved enough to help you in your further education or start you on your career.

BEARS OUTCLASS MAROONS IN ANNUAL N. D. TILT

A fighting Central Bear eleven brought an end to a three-year Mishawaka domination of the annual Bear-Cavemen classic at Notre Dame by soundly trouncing them 19-12 before 18,000 fans in the sun drenched stadium last Saturday afternoon.

Things looked bad for the Bears in the first quarter when six plays after the kickoff Huggett plunged through center for a touchdown. Deranek blocked the extra point. Mishawaka kicked out of bounds and on the first play Flowers passed to Brademas who ran for 35 yards. A 15-yard pass, 10 yards of crushing, and a five-yard penalty put the ball on the one-foot line. Morriscal ran it over. The attempted conversion failed.

Daoust intercepted a pass and was hauled down on the Mishawaka 29. The Bears moved to the Maroon's five and on the fourth down Flowers laid a pass in Peczkowski's hands for a touchdown.

Once again Central got the ball. Two complete passes from Flowers, to Roytek and White, and a 29-yard run by "Posey" netted Central another touchdown. Morriscal kicked the extra point.

In the third quarter Barnard crashed through center and ran 65

BASKETBALL SCHEDULE

The backbone of Central's 1944-45 basketball team will be the three returning lettermen, Coach Charlie Stewart has revealed. The returning veterans are Tuggy Finger, John Hazen and Jack Woodard. Woodard may be the only one to play the whole season, because Finger is subject to army call and Hazen has an injured shoulder. Mr. Stewart is working with a number of inexperienced juniors and seniors. Last year's team won 13 games and lost 9.

G. A. A. PROGRAM

The G. A. A., sponsored by Mrs. Moore, has a full program scheduled for this year. They have already had a brownie sale and plan a few more sales.

The girls alternate between a business meeting and sport each week. They are also planning to sponsor a basketball tourney.

The officers of G. A. A. are: President—Betty Jordon. Vice-President—Anna DePaw. Secretary—Mildred Runyan. Treasurer—Mary Menzie.

TEEN'S INN

Table tennis, pool and dancing are some of the recreational facilities the Teen's Inn, recreational organization for colored students, provide.

A basketball team has recently been formed. On Friday, November 27, a dance will be held. A slight admission will be charged.

Teen's Inn officers are Levi Wade, president; Gloria Davis, secretary, and Frank Jackson, treasurer. Mrs. Ida Mitchem is sponsor of the organization.

QUEEN'S CROWN

The unusually beautiful queen's crown used for this year's queen of the Mishawaka-Central game was designed and made by students in Mr. Trottnow's art classes. Students themselves donated brilliants for the work.

FOOTBALL ASSEMBLY

An assembly held to express the appreciation of the school for the fine work the football team did at the Mishawaka - Central game last Saturday and during all the season was held in the auditorium at 8:35 on Monday, October 30.

Coaches Crowe and Nash made short speeches in which they praised the team for its fine spirit and hard work.

At Central, 1,824 student tickets were sold for the Mishawaka game. 1,062 adult tickets were sold at Central.

To demonstrate the art of Latin American dancing, Pedro and Yolanda Hill will present the "Jarabe Tapatio." The closing number, "Buenos Noches, Mi Amor," is the good night song with which young Latin Americans conclude their serenades to their sweethearts.

The guitar players are Carmelo Ritschard, Norman Hutchinson, Charles Boughman, Betty Jensen and Sarieta Peterson. Bette Sovinski will play the accordion and Richard Cortright is the piano accompanist, while Bill Koontz will do the announcing. The boys taking part are Richard Edwards, Robert Edwards, Robert Pendel, Charles White, Fred Moomaw, and Frank Stutesman.
