

Drum Majorettes Added

Three new drum majorettes were added to Central's band last week. They are Margaret Gacki, Mary Kassas, and Joan Irwin.

Apply For Orchestra

Members of Central's orchestra who have made application to play in the combined school orchestra for North Central Indiana Teachers Association October 24-25 have been announced. Those trying out are Juanita Swanson, viola; Joan Larimer, cello; Carol Keats, cello; Manuel Torres, flute; Dolores Van Wynsberger, first violin; Carole Hawkins, alto saxophone; Naomi Beghan, first violin.

Preliminary rehearsal and tryouts for choirs will be held Saturday morning, October 5. George Dasch of Chicago will direct the orchestra again this year.

Waltons Run Concessions

Concessions at the Central football games are again being run by the Junior Izaak Walton League. The club receives one-half of the profits from the sales. Members work free at these concessions in order to enlarge their club treasury. With this money the Walton League hopes to buy its own wild life preserve.

Noon Movies Announced

Mr. Richard has just announced that the noon movie for next week will be "She Shall Have Music", with Jack Hilton and his orchestra featured. The following week on Oct. 7, 8, and 9 short subjects will be shown. On Oct. 14, 15, and 16 the movie will be "Ferocious Pals."

Reading Test Given

All 9B's and 9A's were given the Iowa Silent Reading Test yesterday, September 25. This test is given each year to determine the reading ability of the ninth grade pupils. Those students who fail the test will be required to take a semester course in improvement English in their Sophomore B year.

Tolle Speaks To Veterans

Mr. Tolle from the University of Notre Dame spoke to the Veterans club last Tuesday evening September 24. His talk primarily consisted of explanations of the Veterans Administration and the G. I. Bill of Rights.

After completing the list of Veterans at Central, Miss Adelaide Stoll reports that the Navy had claimed most of the ex-servicemen at Central. About 43 were in the Navy, seven in the Army, and five in the Marines.

900 Enroll At Extension

A grand total of nine hundred students marks it's semester enrollment, the largest ever had, by Indiana Extension. Veterans comprise about three hundred of the enrollment. In order to accommodate this extra large number of students, six new instructors were added to the teaching staff during the past week, not including those added earlier this semester. Twenty-four new classes were added this far also. Additional classes of Indiana Extension are being held in Mishawaka this year as another addition.

MANAGING THE 1947 INTERLUDE ANNUAL

ROBERT HOLDEMAN WINS INTERLUDE CONTEST

Leading the 1946-47 INTERLUDE subscription contest with a total of thirty-nine sales, Robert Holdeman, of home room 32, won the first prize of $5.00 for the second time, having won last year's contest. Agnes Baumgartner and Therese Koszewski, of home rooms 103 and 210, tied for second with thirty-one sales and were awarded $3.00.

Other awards, consisting of free INTERLUDE subscriptions, tickets to Central home football games, and stage productions, were awarded to the following pupils: 8B—Pat Ferraro, 36, first; Marilyn Dion, 216; 9B—Marilyn Ferguson, x-17, first; Joe Zengerle, 30, second; and Antoinette Buehler, 9, third; 9A—Barbara Parmley, 311, first; Jennie Crowder, 11, second; 10B—Raymond Papay, 301, first; Delores Markiewicz, 102, second; and Robert Spain, 119, third; 10A—Shirley Morris, 224, first; Richard Schaporst, 116, second; Virginia Fruit, 209, and Robert Reinhold, 314, both third; 11B—Elizabeth Flowers, 313, first; Joyleen Przybylinski, 105, second; and Mary Moore, 211, third; 11A—Marilyn Barr, 225, first; Juanita Hale, 215, second; and Mary Sutherlin, 305, third; 12B—Agnes Baumgartner, 103, and Therese Koszewski, 210, both first; Lorraine Wisnewski, 318, second; and Dorothy Schmanske, 304, third; 12—Doris Udvardi, 303, first; Betty Grisley, 312, second; and June Palmer, 320, third.

P. T. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

Officers for the 1946-'47 school year of the P. T. A. have been elected with Mrs. Carroll Ketcham as president of the group. First vice-president is Mrs. Clyde Williams and second vice-president is Miss Margaret Geyer. Mrs. Fred Sonneborn is recording secretary; Mrs. George Holmes is corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ray Larimer will act as treasurer. The board of directors includes Mrs. P. D. Pointer, Mrs. H. F. Glaser Jr., Mrs. Wilbert Bernhardt, and Miss Adelaide Stoll.

Program committee chairman is Mrs. Clyde Williams assisted by Mr. P. D. Pointer, Mr. M. G. Richard, Mrs. Ralph Treanor, and Miss Margaret Geyer. Mrs. Ray Larimer heads the budget finance committee and working with her are Mrs. Harry Jodon and Mrs. K. W. Baughman. Membership chairman is Mrs. Harold Loutzenhiser and Mrs. Irving (Cont'd on page 4, col. 4)

DRAMATISTS IN ASSEMBLY

"Two Slatterns and a King" was this week's dramatics class play presented for the underclassmen on Wednesday morning at an assembly and for the upperclassmen on Thursday. The play, written by Edna St. Vincent Millay, works in the theme of how much the world depends upon chance.

Members of the cast were Dale Anderson and William Eveland as the King; Charles Budd and William Eveland as Chance (the gambler); Julia Ann Lane and Sally Deering as Tidy; Hula Cox and Nancy Seaver as Slut. Student Director for the play was Nancy Seaver, and Marilyn Hodges was in charge of costumes. The announcers were Marilyn Rohrer and Charles Budd.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEETS

President David Brown presided over the first Student Council meeting held in the Little Theatre Monday morning. The constitution of the Council was read and the platform of the Independent party was reviewed. Possible plans for the future were brought up and those suggested were the organization of an Northern Indiana Student Council, a dance sponsored by Central's Council, and helpful new rules for the lunch room.

Board members for the Student Council were elected. The two senior class representatives are Emily Rehm, and Shirley Bain. Donna Rensberger is the junior class member of the executive board. Representing the sophomores is Mary Belle Frith and Patsy Shaw for the Junior high school.

Looking ahead to next spring's elections Howard Denbo was appointed to head a committee to secure the voting machines. Assisting him are Jack Sonneborn and John Porta. A new committee this year will be a check-up committee which will see that all home rooms are notified of the Council's activities by the senator from that home room. Jack Sonneborn is chairman of that committee.

100 VETERANS ENROLLED

Mr. G. F. Weber, head of the vocational department, announced recently that approximately 100 veterans are enrolled in the Veteran Vocational Courses at Central.

ARE YOU DYING OF THIRST?

Are you dying of thirst? We know very few of the fountains work. We know how disillusioning it is to charge up to one of the drinking fountains, with your tongue fairly dragging the floor, and find an almost invisible trickle of water issuing forth. Take encouragement, however. Although there is no promise of salvation, we can hope that soon they will be fixed and in good working order.

DON'T DELAY!

At last! Tomorrow night at the Lakeview game the members of our band will make their first appearance in their new uniforms. No doubt you have been dying of curiosity to see these wonderful outfits. Well, you will soon have the chance. By coming to this all-important game you will be helping two causes: supporting the team with your yells and supporting the band with your money, for all proceeds from this game will go to the band. You still have time to get your ticket, but don't delay, for they're going fast.

ATTENDANCE

Before you play truant think it over and consider yourself. How will it aid and how will it hinder you? It will certainly hinder you in your studies and in the future. Playing truant will put off what you have for the day till the next and you know how the saying goes, "Never put off till tomorrow what you can do today."

Be wise and think of your grades, yourself and your future. Don't have any numerals after "Days Truant" on your report card. Make the best of everything.

A HERD OF SHEEP?

Are high school age boys and girls similar to a herd of sheep? It would seem so when we see how many have to jump over the fence just because they have seen someone else do it. It is alarming when we see a boy or girl take up such habits as smoking or drinking, just because so and so does it and he's in this or that club. Wouldn't it be terrible if some "reputable" person should take it into his head to chew tobacco?

We all have minds of our own. Let's weigh the actual pleasure obtained from some of these pastimes with the harm it can do to health and our respect for ourselves.

BUDGETING OUR TIME

You have almost certainly heard it said, "If you want something done, ask a busy person." Why? Because the busy person has had to learn to manage his time so as to get everything done he has to do, and having learned the value and management of time he can probably contrive to squeeze out a little more to do something else if it is worth while. Those who say, "I haven't time," mean either, "I didn't plan my time," or, "I don't care to give time to that." Everyone has all the time there is. Everyone, including the rich and the clever has duties to which he must devote some of his time. Nobody can have all his time to himself anymore than all his money. How sensible then, to budget our time, as we do our money, so as to make it go as far as possible, and cover as many worth while things as we can.

ON THE RECORD

Greetings Gates:

I've got big news today, it's about the Revue which Central is producing, "Atom and Eve." It promises to be one of the best productions Central has ever produced and here are some of the reasons why I think so.

It is a riotous musical comedy built around the theme of the atom bomb. With the fine array of talent here at Central this year the Revue is sure to be a hit. I know who takes the roles and by the shape of things at rehearsals you won't be disappointed. I have gone through the script and can promise you that you'll be rolling in the aisles from start to finish. Some of the top musical hits you will hear are, "Temptation", and "Evalina". These two are sung by a really promising Central vocalist, Jack Cunningham. He sang for a while with a local band and then got a chance to audition in Hollywood. He arrived out there just in time to be welcomed by his Uncle Sam and ended up in the navy.

Another hit tune that will be presented is that fine lyrical, "Who Do You Love, Hope?". It will be sung by John Spears and Phyllis Casey. Take my word for it they really do a fine job. A tune that you're sure to enjoy is "Li'l Abner" sung by cute and sweet voiced Janice MacLean. Then there will be "Doin' What Comes Naturally", by Hula Cox. And you'll not want to miss "Cement Mixer", "Martins and the Coys", and "God's Green Earth", sung by the chorus. These and many others will be heard on Oct. 3, 4, and 5. Don't miss it. It's a sure fire bet, just put your half a rock on the nose. "Atom and Eve", at Central, Oct. 3, 4, and 5.

Meet David Brown, a senior from home room 103. Anyone can recognize him in the halls of Central by his smiling face and the "determined to get results" look. He is 5' 11" tall, and has brown eyes and brown hair. Always an active member in anything, Dave is President of the Barnstormers Student Council, Senior Class and Smilers.

Dave likes anything and everything but he especially likes good books and music by Wagner or Beethoven. His main dislikes is inactive members of any organization.

He plans to attend Juillard Music School in New York after graduation next May.

We all wish you success Dave, and know you'll be one of our top musicians some day.

7:30 P. M.—"Mom, make some popcorn will ya, huh? Please, 'cause I just can't study without something to eat. Ya, know—I guess school's getting harder than ever, 'cause I've sure got the homework."

8:00 P. M.—Aw, Mom, don't you worry about my homework. It's tough enough on me. Well uh—no, I didn't start yet, but—after all, it's your fault, 'cause you wouldn't make the popcorn and I had to do it myself, but I'm pert-near done."

"Oh-gosh! I almost forgot Dickey Haymes! Turn it on, somebody. Sh, it's already started."

8:30 P. M.—"Mother! what do you mean—a half hour wasted—After all, music is good for you; that's what you always tell me when I'm supposed to practice the piano. It is too music! Dick Haymes is wonderful! Oh, golly!"

9:00 P. M.—"Mom—get the phone, will you? I'm doing my homework. Oh, it's for me? Wouldn't you know, —and I almost had this geometry problem."

Verie Sauer Says:

What could have happened Sunday night, Sept. 15, to make Carol Geier so happy?

Mildred Peterson certainly was happy over her date for the Central-Adams game.

Together again: Joan Taylor and Jim Paskiet.

'Tis rumored that Mary Henecki and Bob Dunn are twosomes.

Tell Verie who your new heart throb is, Bill Peterson.

Jean Dahley is patiently waiting for her Rin Grossman to return.

What goes on in sixth hour Library Study, Virginia Johnson?

A good deal — Eleanor Williams-Ernie Bond.

Please make up your mind Janice MacLean.

Lost for Central—Nancy Magiera; gain for St. Mary's Academy.

Congratulations to the new Smilers, Jerry Freeman, Clyde Williams, Chuck Beyer, Gene Ring and Dave Coquillard.

Lone Wolf roaming the halls—Glen Woods.

* * *

Veries vote for a cute twosome—Stephanie and Rollyn.

* * *

Come on Gloria Hans, who is he.

* * *

Who has Marilyn Moore's heart?

* * *

Could it be one Duane Aikin.

* * *

One cute senior, Joan Boudreau.

kie's life?

* * *

Rosemary DeMeulenaere has been seeing a lot of Eddie Marshall of Washington, Verie is informed.

Like to see more of this cute couple, McCaffery and Fries.

Wonder why that gleam comes into Phil Potts eye when Mickey Carter walks by?

* * *

313's loss is 216's gain. Jane Ann Jones.

* * *

Maridean come and tell Verie who he is.

* * *

Gloria Hans and Bob McDole sure looked cute at the football game, Saturday night.

Pat Lange seemed to be having a good time with some sharp Adams fellow at the Campus Club last Saturday night.

And now Cecil Colbert is writing requests to Bob Whitcomb for Bev. Farnsworth.

* * *

Your Auntie wonders if Marge Hertel is serious about this ex-sailor.

* * *

What's this between the Slick Chicks and the Saints, of Adams?

Tommie Thomas and Buzzy Redinbo make a pretty cute couple.

Cherry Teeter has a steady class-to-class escort in Roy Jensen.

SHOULD THE O. P. A. BE CONTINUED?

Charles Lee—"Naturally, 'cause I don't want to pay $1.50 for a pound of butter."

Marilyn Glaser—"Yes, because after all it's my own money that I have to spend."

Dorthy Borntrager—"Yes, because it held the prices down so no one firm could get a monopoly."

Dora Stein—"Yes, it helps people who can't pay large prices for food."

Janice MacLean—"No, I've got to be different."

Frances Tschida—"Yes, not everyone can pay such high prices."

Barbara Drollingher—"On some things, I guess."

Dorothy Gruszynski—"Yes, but revise the ceilings."

Peggy Muessel—"Yes, for I feel it is still needed."

Lois Louks—"In as few places as possible."

Junior Joan: Don't you think it would be wonderful to know everything?"

Senior Sam: It is!

BEARS AND PANTHERS DEADLOCKED AT 6-6

Dick "Posey" Flowers' fourth quarter pass to Gene Ring with the score board clock reading five seconds remaining gave our Central Bears a 6-6 tie with Washington's Panthers Saturday night before a record "standing-room only" crowd of 14,000 fans.

Washington had its own heroes in Leroy Wrydzynski, a sub for Bob Robertson, and Dick Martinczak, all state Panther end. It was a pass from Wrydzynski to Martinczak that put the west side team into the lead in the second quarter. A hard-charging Bear line blocked Ed Lach's kick for the extra point, however.

Central's touchdown was set up by a Flowers-Winston pass that covered 44 yards and put the ball down on the Panther 14 yard line. Line plays by Perkins and Flowers moved the ball to the six inch line, where on fourth down Flowers passed to Ring for the score.

Gene Ring, who twice blocked Washington punts, and Jack Enyeart, who several times broke through the Panther forward wall to nail his man, were standouts of the Bear line which played the entire game without substitution.

The teams were about evenly matched, and in the statistics Central had more first downs, twelve to seven, but Washington gained more total yardage, 208 yards to Central's 184.

BEAR FACTS

The Bruins may not have licked the Panthers last Saturday but you will sure have to give the boys credit for coming back in the closing seconds of the game to snatch almost certain victory out of Washington's hands. Even though the Bears had the chance to win the ball game by a conversion, after such a grueling battle it is small wonder they even had the strength left to roar back and score that game-tying T. D.

Seeing as how Central has never beaten Washington but has tied the Panthers the last two years, it looks as if Washington's number is just about up and that the inevitable Orange and Blue victory is almost at hand. Washington will be tough again next year with the return of Bob Robertson, and several other boys who played for the Green Wave this year, so if the Bruins don't tag them with defeat next year, you can bet your last dollar it'll be coming along pretty soon.

Gene's Ring's block of Washington fullback Ed Lach's punt in the last period almost set up a score, but the Green Wave held for downs on the nine yard line.

Congrats to all the 13 fellows who helped make the great come back and save the day for Central. All Bear fans give you a well-deserved pat on the back.

It's up to Elkhart, Goshen, John Adams, Michigan City and Fort Wayne North Side to stop the Laporte Slicers for after they beat Riley last Friday night and Central and Washington tied they look like a breeze-in to the Eastern Division N.I.H.S.C. football title.

Still on the subject of Laporte, if you read "Gridiron Grist" by Dave Gallup last Sunday you probably noted that Mr. Gallup certainly likes Dick Alban and the Laporte football squad. Maybe he forgot that South Bend has a couple of high school football teams too.

Cubskin only missed a couple last week and called the Laporte-Riley game right, so he's gonna take a chance again this week.

Central over Lakeview.
Wash. over Mish. Cavemen.
Riley will beat John Adams.
Central Catholic over Niles.

Interesting sidelight! Last year Whitings' Oilers tied S. B. Washington, 13-13, while Central and Washington wound up in a deadlock by the same score. Now in 1946, Whiting and Washington once again tied, this time 6-6, so Central and the Panthers come back the next week and do the same thing 6-6. Coincidence . . . well, maybe.

The Lads rapped the Comets last Sunday in the Dust "Bowl," alias Leeper Park, 12-6. Both teams were pretty evenly matched but the Comets just weren't good enough to stop their opponents.

Notice! Don't forget to boost your band this Friday night, for this is Band Benefit Night. Come on out to the game at School Field and see the new band uniforms.

Uncle Sam Says

No farmer will question the link between this familiar September scene of filling up the silo and his United States Savings Bonds. Farmers must reckon with the future every moment of their lives. The crushed green corn stalks which they are storing away this month by tons will assure their livestock of winter feed. The Savings Bonds which they are also storing up will add to the security of their families.

GOLFERS WIN AND LOSE

The Central golf team started their season last week at LaPorte, where they lost to Slicers by a score of 7-5, but came back in their next match to defeat Washington, 12-0. Last Saturday the Bears met the powerful Adams Eagles in a grueling match, losing to the Eagles, 5½-6½. The years team is composed of two returning veterans from last year, Captain Jim Roushelson, and Jim Parks, the other members are George Pantzer, Leonard Weisel, Jerry Smuts, and Dan Galivan. The Bears last meet was held September 24 against the strong Riley squad at Erskine Golf course. The season's schedule follows:

Sept. 26—Mishawaka There
Sept. 28—LaPorte Invitational There
Oct. 1—Michigan City Here

Tennis Squad Undefeated

The undefeated Bear tennis squad ran its number of clean sweeps to three straight as they trounced Riley and John Adams in tennis matches held Sept. 16 and Sept. 17, respectively. Identical 5-0 scores were recorded in each contest.

The team from Riley has little experience, and none of the Central boys had trouble winning. Over at Adams, however, all three singles players were extended, but all finally won. Tom Overholser defeated John Bennett, 7-5, 6-4; George Clauson ran up against a tough man in Jim Cox but won, 4-6, 6-1, 6-1. Bob McDole was also extended winning 7-5, 6-0 over Dave Cox.

The doubles teams won more easily, McDole and Overholser beating Bennett and J. Cox, 6-4, 6-3. John Mull and Don Steele defeated D. Cox and Bordon, 6-2, 6-0, in the other doubles match.

The team was to have played Michigan City Sept. 19, but the match was postponed indefinitely. Weather permitting the team was to travel to Fort Wayne Tuesday, and to meet Elkhart today at Leeper Park.

B'S LOSE TO SLICERS

Using the land route all the way for all of their touchdowns the LaPorte B eleven were able to slash the Central Bees by the score of 19-0 at LaPorte last Saturday morning.

In favor of Central is the fact that Laporte was able to use men not played against Riley the night before, while Central had to save manpower for the Washington tussle on Saturday night. Consequently only the fourth, fifth, and sixth teams saw action against the Slicers. Wisniewski, Kovatch, and Harmon looked good in this tilt. Others in the Central lineup were, Knox, Ewlad, Shapiro, Coquillard, Hessler, Starwinski, Hager, Philips, Woolridge, and Baumgartner.

SAME OLD STORY (Cont'd)

9:30 P. M.—"Gosh Mom I thought Mary Lou would never stop talking! And she never has anything to say! I fooled her though, cause she was bragging again about having her homework all done, and made her give me the geometry answers!! Golly what am I going to wear tomorrow?"

10:00 P. M.—"But Mother, I just can't go to bed now! Well,—cause I had to iron something to wear tomorrow, and now I have to put up my hair, and besides, my homework isn't done!"

10:30 P. M.—Yes Mom, I'm in bed, but don't forget to call me early so I'll get my homework done."

7:45 A. M.—"Mother, you didn't call me! Gosh, now I'm going to be late and I don't have my homework! It's all your fault. No wonder I get C's and D's."

10:15 A. M.—(2nd hr.) "But Miss Jones, I'll have my English tomorrow. The only reason I didn't have it today is 'cause—oh, all right, 3:30 then!!!

FEE COLLECTIONS

trade mathematics are offered on Monday and Thursday evenings. On Tuesday and Wednesday nights courses in machine shop, lathe operation, millers, shapers, grinders, welding, refrigeration, mechanical drawing, blue print reading, mechanic design, tool and die design, electricity, radio, aero engines, auto mechanics, inspection and shop theory.

Credits toward high school graduation will be given to veterans upon the completion of these courses. Factories throughout the city send veteran apprentices to work in the vocational school. These veterans are exempt from paying tuition. Any veteran seeking information concerning these courses should inquire at the Vocational School, 110 North Williams street.

POPPED CORN

Holdeman: "Did you say ice cream?"

Hindelang: "Why no, you hardly speak above a whisper."

—Lincoln Totem.

TEACHER COULD BE WRONG

A fellow met his friend on the street all bandaged up and on crutches. "What happened to you?" he asked.

"Well, I had a date with my girl friend last night. We were jitterbugging when her father came in. Is deaf and couldn't hear the music.—Blue and White.
